New Faces at NDLS

As mentioned above, we welcome Kevin Fye to NDLS this week as the CCHR's new Events and Communications Program Manager. Paolo Carozza write, "Kevin's wide experience includes founding and managing a visual marketing firm in South Bend and many years as a designer and animator with WNDU. He has a M.A. in Art History from the University of Notre Dame and has taught courses related to visual culture at IUSB. At the CCHR, Kevin will be overseeing all of our various speakers, conferences, and other events, and managing all our electronic and print media needs." Kevin's new office is located in the CCHR suite on the second floor of Eck hall. Please stop by to give him a warm welcome!

NDLS Classifieds

From G.R. Blakey: Ladies and Gentlemen, I know this may be a futile gesture, but I have to ask anyway. I need (for my family) four Miami tickets. If anyone knows of any for sale, please let me know. Thanks, G.R.B.

Question of the Week

What is your favorite event to watch in the Olympic games?

3035599_effc0b75

Ed Edmonds writes that "My favorite event to watch in the Olympics is probably a surprising choice – I like the rowing events the best. The technology that moves along with the sculls provides a view that one would not normally have at the live event. I think it really brings an element of drama to the coverage of the races."

Beth Given is always excited to see coverage of the equestrian sports, and has been a huge fan of beach volleyball for years. Soccer is one of her all-time favorites, though, probably because she has played it herself since a young age, but "It's not quite the same watching the USA women's team now that some of my childhood heroes – Kristine Lilly, in particular – have retired."

With the beginning of the school year approaching fast, we will soon be transitioning our "Question of the Week" section into "Question of the Month." For our last weekly question of the summer, we are looking for responses by next Monday, August 13th to the question "What was a highlight of your summer this year?" Please share!

Have a submission for The NDLS Update? Send an email by noon on Thursday for inclusion the following Tuesday, to libnews@nd.edu, or contact NDLS Update editors Susan Good or Beth Given.
