News and Notes

Granville Cleveland, assistant law librarian from 1969 to 1992 passed away at the age of 72. Grandville was an Ohio native who attended Central State College in Wilberforce, Ohio. He had extensive experience as a librarian for bar associations in his home state and was, among other distinctions, a professional singer. Among varied activities, he served as chairman of the University's Black Student Affairs Committee. He also is active in the South Bend community, serving as a member of Congressman Hiler's leadership conference and as an appointed member of the South Bend Housing Commission, and as a member of Senator Lugar's committee on Merit Selection for Academy Schools. He holds the Governor's appointment and commission as a member of the Board of Trustees of Museums and Memorials for the State of Indiana. A memorial service will be held in the Welsheimer Family Funeral Home North, 17033 Cleveland Road, South Bend, IN, on Saturday, April 20, 2013, at 1:00 PM. The family will receive friends in the funeral home from noon until the time of service on April 20th. See Obituary

On Thursday, April 4, the CCHR will sponsor a live webcast from Chicago of the conference Pacem in Terris After 50 Years at 5:00 p.m. in 1130 Eck Hall of Law. The live webcast will be of the opening session of their conference marking the 50th Anniversary of Pope John XXIII's important encyclical "Pacem in terris." The conference's goal is to evaluate the encyclical's perspective in light of developments in the international geo-political situation over the last 50 years that have affected the way states and other global actors seek to achieve a just and peaceful political and economic order. The webcast will include a keynote address by Roland Minnerath, Archbishop of Dijon, followed by a panel discussion by a highly distinguished panel of scholars, to be held at the University of Chicago. Respondents include Joseph Weiler (New York University), Russ Hittinger (Pontifical Academy of Social Sciences, University of Tulsa), and Mary Ann Glendon (Harvard University, Former U.S. Ambassador to the Vatican). Dinner will be served at the webcast.

News from Admissions

The Admissions Office has been busy welcoming admitted students during campus visits and on-the-road. Eamon hosted admitted candidates in northern and southern California and Chicago. Melissa met up with admits in New York City, Boston, and Washington D.C. Melissa also spoke to the undergraduate BLSA chapter at University of Virginia. Our biggest campus visits are coming up this weekend and next. Please help us welcome admitted students for our Admitted Students weekends on April 4th and 5th and April 12th and 13th. We expect 30-40 admits for each weekend!

NDLS Classifieds

From Beth Klein – St. Vincent's Stuff a Truck for Eric's Promise on April 6th from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. at University Park Mall on the Grape Rd side. In Giving, We Receive.

From Judy Fox: Colleagues, LaCasa, a not for profit in Goshen that does a lot of work assisting people in foreclosure, has sent me a request for assistance. They have a client who only speaks Turkish. They are in need of a translator. Does anyone have any knowledge of someone—and LLM student perhaps—that might be willing. In addition, the court has asked us to assist a client who is deaf. We need a sign language interpreter. Again, does anyone know anyone? – Judy
