The heart of our business as teachers of law is to present our students to model lawyers and model Christians. I know of no greater model, in both respects, than Judge Roger J. Kiley, '25L, who died in Chicago September 7. And he was a great Notre Dame man as well. May he rest in peace.

The directors of the Notre Dame Law Ass'n will be here Friday and Saturday for their fall meeting; S.B.A. Pres. Veatch invites them to join students in informal discussions about practice late Friday afternoon; directors and their spouses will be S.B.A. guests at a Friday evening party....Lawyers' Wives Pres. Amy Veatch and her colleagues will present a day-long program for directors' spouses....My proposals for the Spring 1975 curriculum are on the back....Richard Branson, '76L, has organized brief prayer services for members of our community--Thursdays at 1:15 P.M. in Room 112....William J. Casey of the Law Advisory Council is president of the Export-Import Bank of the United States.

The Indiana Court of Appeals will hear oral argument in two cases here Oct. 17....Best wishes to Amanda Gunn, until recently on our staff, and James Michael Griffin; they were married last Saturday....Rich Hill, '72L, is the new executive director of South Bend legal services; Alan Burke, '73L, is deputy director....Our annual Advisory Council lecture will be Nov. 14, on lawyers and the SEC by Commissioner A.A. Sommer, '48, a member of the Council....Recent visitors include Glen Squires, '51L, Cassopolis, Al Spahn, '48L, Elkhart, Tom DiGrazia, '70L, South Bend, and Ed Minczeski, '41L, South Bend—all here as lecturers in our Practice of Law series....Judge William E. Doyle, U.S. Court of Appeals, 10th Circuit, and Judge Mary Coleman, Supreme Court of Michigan, have agreed to join Justice Marshall on the panel for final Moot Court argument Feb. 1....Sympathy to Terry Quinn, '75L, and Tom Curtin, '68L, whose fathers died recently....Welcome to Brenda Hurlbutt, Assoc. Dean Link's new secretary....The Appellate Advocacy team reports a third September victory--U.S. ex rel. Williams v. Brantley; John Bruha and Bill Baughman, '74L, briefed; John argued. Mike Harvey and Bob Billmeier, both '75L, argued two cases Sept. 10.

Sixteen of our students are serving as legal interns this semester in the National Center for Law & the Handicapped, supervised by Marcia ('72L) and Bob ('73L) Burgdorf of the legal staff; congratulations to the supervisors on the birth of twin daughters Sept. 17....Four of our students are instructors in the Dept. of Modern Languages, six are serving as law teachers in the Freshman Seminar Program, and three are teaching in other University courses....Four students are interns in our environmental law programs and 12 are serving as resident assistants on campus....Congratulations to Mike Ryan, '64L, Peoria, who is now deputy officer in charge of the NLRB office there....Book report: Pat Gibbs, '75L, "Guide to Environmental Health Laws in Michigan"; Dennis Owens, '75L, further comments on resignation and prosecution (of you-know-who), Sept. 9 Scholastic; and Shaffer, "Some Thoughts on the Psychology of Estate Planning," Trusts and Estates, Sept. 1974....Thanks to alumni recruiters Frank Smith, '68L, Joe Kennedy, '69L, and Steph DeSales, '70L, Southern California; and Ed Sheridan, '72L, and Bob Greene, '69L, in Buffalo. Joe is now in Hong Kong.

Prof. Campfield represents us on the Law School Committee of the Indiana State Bar Ass'n; the committee met last Friday in Indianapolis....Dean Link will address the West Virginia Bar Ass'n, in Pipe Stem, this week; I gave the 75th anniversary convocation address at St. Elizabeth's College (N.J.) Sept. 8. I have been appointed to a task force of the A.B.A. mental health project; to the Committee on Education and Judicial Administration of the A.B.A. Judicial Administration Division; and to the adjunct faculty in estate planning (LL.M. program) at the University of Miami.
Dean's Proposal for Spring 1975 Curriculum

Required Courses

Contracts II (3/3, Murphy)
Torts II (3/3, Rice)
Procedure II (3, Rodes)
Procedure II (3, Bauer)

Core Courses

Practice Court (4/4, Seckinger)
Constitutional Law (4, Rice)
Jurisprudence (3, Rodes)
Modern Amer. Jur. (2, Chroust)

Elective Courses

Restitution (2, Murphy)
Family Law (2, Kellenberg)
Family Law (2, Crutchfield)
Environmental Law (3, Murdock)

Specialized Courses, Seminars, and Clinical Programs

Graduate School Courses (2 or 3)
Directed Readings (2 or 2, Faculty)
Co-curriculars (1 or 2, Faculty)
Law and Poverty (2, Broden)
Legal History (2, Rodes)
Trade Regulation (3, Bauer)
Administration of Criminal Justice (3, Dutile)
Criminal Practice (3, Foschio)
Securities Regulation (3, Murdock)
Appellate Advocacy (2, Foschio, Bauer, Seckinger)
Consumer Credit (2, Moo)
Problems in Inter. Law (2, Laing)

Property II (3/3, Kellenberg)
Criminal Law II (3/3, Dutile)
Legal Bibliography & Moot Court (2, Cekanski, Crutchfield)

Commercial Transactions (3/3, Laing)
Evidence (3/3, Broderick)
Property Settlement (4/4, Campfield)

Entity Taxation (3/3, Link)
Administrative Law (3, Shaffer)
Banking & Commer. P. (3, Moo)

Advanced Trial Prac. (2, Broderick)
Civil Rights Survey (3, Glickstein)
Sem. on Civ. Rights/Civ. Liberties Issues (2, Wise)
Law and Mental Health (2, Burgdorf)
Law Office Principles (2)
Law Office Practice (4)
Public Interest Prac. (3, Crutchfield)
Specialized Pub. Int. Prac. (1, Crutchfield)

Protection of Intellectual Property (2, Sokolowski & Silver)
Advanced Tax Plan. (2, Thornburg et al.)
Land Use Planning (3, Kellenberg)
Law, Ethics, & Science (2, Bender, Hauerwas, & Shaffer)
Local Govt. Practice (2, Roemer)

NOTE: This is a tentative schedule. It has not yet been approved by the Faculty, but is offered for student and faculty discussion.