Jeff Pojanowski has been appointed as the Robert and Marion Short Scholar, for a three-year term, ending June 30, 2016. Over the years, the Short Chair endowment has accumulated sufficient funds to further enhance faculty scholarship. In 2010, the funds were sufficient to create a rotating position to benefit a junior scholar. (Dan Kelly was appointed as the inaugural holder of the Short Scholar position.) Congratulations, Jeff!

Fr. Bill Dailey, C.S.C., was asked by Ezra Klein of the Washington Post his thoughts on Pope Francis's tenure so far. His response was published in the article One priest's early thoughts on Pope Francis's ways on July 31.

Lloyd Mayer was quoted in the Nonprofit Quarterly article IRS Targeting May Have to Do with Size and Connections on August 1.

Randy Koziel post the article Precedent and Reliance to SSRN.

News from Admissions

We are very excited to welcome two new staff members to the Admissions Office. Michele Talos is our new Admissions Assistant. Michele comes to us from Purdue College of Technology where she was the Location Secretary. Before Purdue, she was the Administrative Assistant of the Marian High School Guidance Office. Michele has been married to Steve for 22 years and has 3 kids.

Blake is a Senior at Purdue University, Morgan is a Senior at Marian High School and Mason is an 8th grader at St. Matthew Cathedral.

Lauren Bolland, an Assistant Director, joins us from Saint Louis, MO where she previously worked as the Program Director in Major Exploration Academic Advising at Saint Louis University. She holds a Bachelor of Arts in Communication from Truman State University and a Master of Education in College Student Personnel from Ohio University. Her background includes work in academic advising, career counseling, student transitions, and student engagement on campus.

We are also anxiously awaiting the arrival of the incoming class. We expect about 165 entering students from across the country and around the world. Our students were born in more than a dozen countries including: Nigeria, China, Canada, Germany, Armenia, and the UK. Many have served as Congressional interns or participated in collegiate sports (football, swimming, fencing, rowing, boxing, basketball...). They are avid volunteers and civically engaged. We are happy to share more about the class after they enroll. We are excited to welcome the new class as they become a different kind of lawyer.

Effective August 1, Kevin O'Rear has become the Assistant Dean for Admissions and Career Development. In this role, he will oversee both offices and work to integrate their work in ways that best serve law school applicants, job-seeking students, and NDLS as a whole.
