2019 Homecoming

Celebrating 150 years of Notre Dame Law School

Register now: ND Law's Homecoming is September 27-28!

Notre Dame Law School will celebrate our third annual Homecoming Weekend on September 27-28, when the Fighting Irish host Virginia.

This year marks Notre Dame Law's sesquicentennial, so this year's Homecoming will feature more events and activities. Visit law.nd.edu/homecoming to see the full schedule.

The two events requiring registration are listed below. The registration deadline is Friday, September 20.

- Sesquicentennial Reception

6:00 to 8:00 p.m. Friday, September 27, Dahnke Ballroom, Duncan Student Center

The ND Law community is invited to a reception with drinks and hors d'oeuvres. A brief program introducing Joseph A. Matson Dean and Professor of Law G. Marcus Cole will begin at 6:45 p.m. Cost: Free.

- Homecoming Tailgate

12:00 to 3:00 p.m. Saturday, September 28, DeBartolo Quad

Catch up with your classmates at our tent party before the football game. Food and drinks are included in the price of admission. Cost: $40 for general admission, $30 for Order of St. Thomas More members, $10 for children 12 and under.

Future Event: ND v. USC Gameday

- Notre Dame Law School: A Catholic Law School in America

10:00 a.m. Saturday, October 12, Room 1130, Eck Hall of Law

Founded in 1869, Notre Dame Law School is the oldest law school at a Catholic university in the United States. What has it meant to be a Catholic law school in America? Professor Emeritus Walter F. Pratt Jr., a noted legal historian, will discuss that question in a presentation about ND Law's history. Cost: Free.

Leadership

ND Law welcomes Dean G. Marcus Cole

An Installation Mass for G. Marcus Cole, the new Joseph A. Matson Dean and Professor of Law at Notre Dame Law School, was held August 24 in the Main Reading Room of the Kresge Law Library.

Networking Sign up for Football Meet & Greet

The Alumni Ambassador Program will conduct its second year of Football Meet & Greet. The student-led initiative seeks to establish networking pipelines for Notre Dame Law students to legal markets around the country.

The goal is to coordinate connections between students and alumni on football weekends. These connections are meant to be informal and social, simply an opportunity for students to visit with alumni from their markets of interest. It could be grabbing coffee in LaFortune on Friday afternoon or having a beer at a tailgate on Saturday — whatever works for you.

If you are interested in participating, please fill out the survey linked below.
