Lardy Memorial Scholarship

Peter A.R. Lardy, Class of 1975, died from cancer during his third year of law school and was loved by his classmates. Those who knew him recall his professional qualities, generosity, deep faith, and quiet cheerfulness and good humor in the face of death. He was a born lawyer, a warm friend, and a great human being.

Peter's classmates have established the Lardy Memorial Scholarship in his honor and the award has been given every year since 1976 (past winners are listed here). You are encouraged to nominate a current second-year law student (i.e., member of the Class of 2018) possessing the qualities listed above for this award. Nominations should be submitted to Peter Horvath on or before Friday, February 10, 4:00 PM.
