IBJ Media — the parent company of the Indianapolis Business Journal, Inside INdiana Business, and Indiana Lawyer — published its second annual Indiana 250 list of the state's most influential leaders today.

G. Marcus Cole [\[link:/directory/g-marcus-cole/\]](https://directory/g-marcus-cole/), the Joseph A. Matson Dean and Professor of Law at Notre Dame Law School, was among those recognized.

IBJ Media editors and staff accepted nominations for the list, researched executives and companies, and interviewed state, industry, and community leaders with the goal of identifying leaders who are making an impact locally, regionally, and across Indiana. Those on the list are leading organizations in business, philanthropy, the arts, government, and the not-for-profit sector.

"I am humbled to receive this great honor," Cole said. "I think that this recognition reflects the high regard with which Notre Dame Law School is held in the state, across the country, and around the world."
