SBA Community Service Thanksgiving Drive

For the next two weeks, SBA will be collecting nonperishable food items in order to provide Thanksgiving meals for several organizations in South Bend. There will be a box in the Commons for each class starting this week and continuing through next week. We could use all sorts of canned fruit or vegetables, cranberry sauce, boxes of dessert or cornbread mix, etc. So buy some extra canned goods, lug them all the way to the law school, and try to bring it in by next Thursday. The class who collects the most food items will be awarded with that temporary, good feeling you get when you've done something good for the world!

Assistant Rector Applications

Applications for the position of residence hall Assistant Rector will be available on Wednesday, November 23. Applications may be completed and submitted from the Office of Housing website. Please visit the website to view the position description, application, submission process and timeline, recommendation form, eligibility requirements, salary and benefits. (Please note: individual hall position descriptions and number of vacancies will be updated in the Spring semester.)

Assistant Rector Info Sessions

Wednesday, November 16, 7:30 p.m., FOG Community Center

Monday, November 21, 5:00 p.m., Law School, 1140 Eck Hall of Law

Residential Life is hosting two information sessions for those interested in applying for an AR position. Attendance is not mandatory, but can be very helpful in discerning whether being an AR is right for you, and how to best navigate the application process. Please visit the Office of Housing website to learn more.

Who's That 1L?

That's Claudia Tran! And she's not a 1L.

But she does a ton of stuff for both the SBA and the law school at large that is mostly behind the scenes, so she gets a shout out this week. Someone buy Claudia coffee.
