Monday Morning Update

September 19th - 25th

It's kind of weird a bunch of teenagers got together in matching outfits and ruined our weekend, huh?

There's not a lot of stuff going on this week, but there is some good stuff. Check out some introductory meetings for couple of groups, learn about how to get a job, and make sure you brought your boots back to South Bend with you. Winter is coming.

If you would like to submit something to the MMU, please click the link at the bottom of this email or send an email with all event details to mondaymorningupdate@gmail.com.

Galilee Announcement

Everyone interested in participating in Galilee this year should attend one or more of the city planning meetings this week (9/19-9/23). This is the best way for you to get info about cities you are interested in and form your groups to go there. Heads up, Chicago, Boston, and Denver are meeting today.

Want to see the rest of the week? Check out the attached chart. If you have any questions, please email Katie Hickey at mhickey2@nd.edu.

Be a Mentor!

The Asian Law Students Association is instituting a mentorship program for 1Ls and LLMS. Perks could include academic assistance, advice with job searches, emotional support, or just getting a new friend. Sign up by filling out this attached survey - it will only take a couple of minutes.

Survey must be completed by next Monday, September 28th. Anyone is welcome to join ALSA and the mentorship program. For questions, please contact Ron Ruangtragool at rjuangtr@nd.edu.

Who's That 1L?

That's Nicholas Burandt!

Nicholas is from Cincinnati, Ohio and attended DePaul University. While there, he double majored in International Studies and Arabic Studies.

He is fluent in Arabic, which is pretty cool. Buy him coffee the next time you see him in the commons. However, it has to be platonic, friendship only coffee, because he is happily in a relationship.

(Maria made me write this part. - Nicholas)
