Monday Morning Update

August 29 - September 4

You've made it through the first week, congrats.

It's a busy week here at NDLS. 1L's, you'll have an opportunity to decide whether or not you want to wear boat shoes to class every day regardless of the weather, as The Federalist Society has their second meeting of the semester. If Chacos sound better to you, the ACLU is also holding a meeting this week. (Please stop attaching Jezebel articles with your MMU submissions.)

College football is back! Even though we don't play until Sunday and it's not a home game and we have to go to school on Labor Day and a bunch of our players got kicked off the team and we're not sure who is going to start at Quarterback - college football is back!

If you're a brand new student or a ready-to-graduate 3L, there are plenty of things to do this week. Get some free food, listen to some smart people, and keep buying the Gameday shirt. Have an awesome week and Go Irish.

If you would like to submit something to the MMU, please click the link at the bottom of this email or send an email with all event details to mondaymorningupdate@gmail.com.

1L SBA Elections

You've known each other for two weeks - it's time to figure out who is good at first impressions.

The Student Bar Association will be holding elections next week to fill the positions of 1L Class Representatives for both the SBA and the Honor Council. Either of these opportunities would be a fantastic and fun way to help cultivate the law school community.

Interested? Good. Scroll down to Thursday and Friday to learn about the mandatory informational meeting.

Mentor-Mentee Program

Individually, we are one drop. Together, we are an ocean.

- Emma

Be on the lookout for an email from the 2L Class Reps about signing up for the Mentor-Mentee program in which 1L's are paired with students from the classes above them. This is a fantastic program that allows our community to grow. Sign ups close on Friday, September 2nd.

A Brief Announcement from the Communications Office

NEW STUDENTS: In your Orientation packet you received the "Community Passport," which is our way of encouraging you to take advantage of some of the unique offerings in the South Bend/Mishawaka/Granger community. As you'll note on the Passport, many of these venues and establishments are offering discounts or deals when you visit. Further, the students who get the most authorization stamps on their passports will be eligible for some raffle items, including gift baskets, dinner gift cards, and free bowling passes. Be sure to begin visiting some of the participating sites, and if you are a Twitter or Instagram user, please share your visits with #NDLSCommunityPassport!

If you'd like to be eligible for the raffle prizes, you must turn in your Passport (with your name on it) to Peter Horvath by November 18th.

Aly Hughes' Tweet of the Week

Debttty White @Aly_Hughes · Aug 11

I should stop taking 5pm naps but society should also do better at environmental preservation so let's just pick our battles here

Who's That 1L?

That's Jack FitzGerald!

Jack is from Green Bay, Wisconsin and studied Political Science at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee.

His friends tell him if he were an animal, he would definitely be an otter. Which is understandable, because both Jack and otters are adorable.

He likes to water ski and is a life long Notre Dame fan. Jack is cool.
