Farewells

After eleven years of dedicated service, Gail Peshel, Assistant Dean for Career Services, has decided to retire effective this Friday, March 2nd. In this role, she has helped countless Notre Dame students find positions during and after law school. She is a national leader in career services, having served as the President of the National Association of Law Placement, and in numerous capacities for the Chicago and the Indiana bars. Her extensive volunteer work for the Indiana bar includes serving on the Board of Governors of the Indiana State Bar Association. She also served on the advisory committee for the Indiana CLEO program for many years and brought the program to Notre Dame several times, most recently last summer.

Please join us in thanking Gail for her many years of service and wishing her the best in her retirement! Stop by the Faculty Meeting Room this Friday, March 2nd between 3:00-4:00 p.m. for cake and punch in honor of Gail!

Last Friday, Hesburgh Library hosted a farewell gathering for Naomi Bishop, who worked with the Kresge Law Library, Hesburgh Library, and Engineering Library as part of the Librarian-in-Residence program. Naomi recently accepted a job back in her home state of Arizona and began her cross-country move this weekend. Pictured at right is Naomi and her father with Joe Thomas and Dwight King at the farewell reception on Friday. (Photo courtesy of Joe Reimers.)
