This MMU is short and sweet.

FROM JACQUELINE BROUSSEAU

Thanks to everyone who donated to the Thanksgiving Basket Drive. We exceeded our goal and raised a total of $1615. Meals will be delivered to YWCA families early this week!

FROM RICK HERBST:

Congratulations on completing your Legal Research Exam! One law school class is done; only one or two left to go and you'll be graduates.

I am writing today to remind you of an upcoming program. This Monday (11.23), four of our professors with post-graduate clerkship experience will discuss how they approached the clerkship application process, what activities/qualities during law school make them strong (and successful) clerkship applicants, and what clerking entailed, among other things. If you are considering a post-graduate clerkship, this presentation is a great first port of call as you prepare for that process. Joining the panel will be Professors Randy Kozel, Jeffrey Pojanowski, Veronica Root, and Stephen Smith.

The details:

When: Monday (11.23), 12:30 to 1:30pm
Where: 1130 Eck Hall

Lunch will be provided to those that RSVP: <http://bit.ly/1q9cPGd> We were thinking of shipping in a tasting menu, or at minimum a smattering, of Michelin-starred thisses and thats from Chicago, but it appears the impending snow this weekend would likely entermete with, if not completely collapse, those plans. As such, we'll go with the something more locally-sourced (i.e., Papa John's).
