Since you are not suppose to "mess with Texas" I debated adding your name after the first one, but the second...well not even in Texas.

CONGRATS TO THE NEW EXECUTIVE STAFF OF THE SBA FOR 2015-2016

Congrats to all the election winners and also those that ran for office and made the contests such a difficult selection. Next year's staff is awesome and will do a great job for the law school. In case you didn't know them, let's take a brief moment to highlight the executive staff for 2015-2016.

Tim Dondanville, President. This photo was taken immediately following the announcement that he had won the election or after he once again realized that he was in London. Side fact, Tim now refuses to take photos where he is not sporting his Ray-Bans.

Paul Albarran, Vice-President. Paul wants you to know that when he puts his mind to do something, he goes all-in. Take the Bald & The Beautiful for example, that he helped organize. Way to pick an event that is low hanging fruit for you though!

Brian Israel, Secretary. Brian wanted to show you exactly how much effort he plans to bring to his representation of you in the SBA next year (see adult photo). I believe this was taken on a cruise ship recently? Brian, just so you know, I am going to be Pres. Bush to your Pres. Obama and disappear quietly and without comment (even if you do decide to utilize GIFs). Look for his first MMU on April 27.

Pat Akers, Treasurer. Pat displays the skills that led to your votes for him for Treasurer, the ability to count to two on his hand. No word on three yet, but we are optimistic.

A SHAMELESS PLUG

In what is sure to be the speaking event of the year, my Brother-in-Law will be speaking from 3:00 - 5:00 in 140 DeBartolo Hall as a guest of the philosophy department. Jeff King, the Chair of Philosophy at Rutgers University will be speaking on a topic related to his specialty, the philosophy of language. The author of several books and numerous articles, he is world famous in the philosophy world (a very small community). To me though, he is most well known for actually having been paid by a publishing company to write a book about the meaning of the word “that” in 2007. The Nature and Structure of Content is a must read if you are an insomniac. The strangest thing about Jeff to me is that he wears sun glasses no matter what, to teach, indoors at night, even during his own wedding. Below you can see him teaching (in sunglasses). You can also see him at a formal event in a black suit and sunglasses (on the left and unironically). Anyway, he is a fun guy and it should be a good talk although I am going primarily to determine whether or not he has in fact purchased an Apple iWatch as he is a believer in all things Apple.

GET TO KNOW SOMEONE

Candace Berg wants you to know that Bucky the Badger can't pull off red and white vertical striped overalls like she can. If law school doesn't work out she can work in a pizzeria and as we know from our Federal Tax class, the uniform would be a deductible write-off (Prof. Kirsch...I did remember something) because there is no way someone would willingly wear this in public as “actual clothes.” So if you couldn’t tell, Candace is a Wisconsin grad. In one of the greatest ironies of her life though, she is lactose intolerant. No milk or cheese. That must mean her diet is then strictly beer, brauts, and beer brauts. This fact is further supported by her unhealthy obsession with the Green Bay Packers. She was inspired to go to law school by “Alex Cahill, the attorney in Walker, Texas Ranger.” Folks I am not making this stuff up. I hope that was your admissions essay. As the MMU has never had an opportunity to discuss Chuck Norris (star of Walker, Texas Ranger) I will briefly offer my favorite “How Tough is Chuck Norris” lines in the segment to follow. Candace is super nice when she isn’t giving the correct answer to any question asked of her by any law school professor in any class she takes. In other words, she is incredibly smart. Candace is easily one of the nicest people you will ever meet so long as you did not attend Duke undergrad. Make sure you say hi when you see her and ask her to have a coffee with you and chat about life. Just remember, she doesn’t take cream, although her Badgers do take a creaming!

HOW TOUGH IS CHUCK NORRIS?

1. Chuck Norris’s tears cure cancer, too bad he has never cried.
2. When Chuck Norris falls in water he doesn’t get wet, water gets Chuck Norris.
3. When Chuck Norris goes to donate blood he doesn’t take a syringe, he asks for a knife and a bucket.
4. Superman owns a pair of Chuck Norris pajamas.
5. Chuck Norris doesn’t sleep, he waits.
6. Chuck Norris doesn’t play “Hide-and-Seek,” Chuck Norris plays “Hide-and-Pray I Don’t Find You.”
7. Chuck Norris counted to infinity. Twice!
8. The only Google search that returns zero results is “Chuck Norris getting his a*@ kicked.”
9. When the boogeyman goes to sleep every night he checks his closet for Chuck Norris.
10. Chuck Norris spelled backwards is Chuck Norris.
