HAPPY EASTER!

31 days until Finals!

MONDAY, MARCH 30

- SBA Meeting, Room 3140 at 6:00.
- Prof. Mark Murphy, Georgetown Law School will deliver the lecture “Some Unhappy Dilemmas for Natural Law Jurisprudence.” Recently, critics of natural law jurisprudence have tried to undermine the prospects for this account of law’s nature without having to confront the central arguments for the natural law view. Instead, these critics have argued that the very task of trying to provide an account of law’s nature is wrongheaded, or that even if law does have a nature, any interpretation of the natural law account is doomed to be either hopelessly implausible or indistinguishable from its positivist rivals. In this lecture I will formulate these challenges as dilemmas for natural law jurisprudence, and show how natural law theorists can escape them. Room 1315, 4:00 - 5:00. Speaking of unhappy dilemmas...if we go to this, do we still have to take Jurisprudence?
- FEATURED FOOD EVENT OF THE WEEK. 👉👉👉 CCHR presents “Finding Forgiveness.” Dr. Eileen R. Borris, President of Forgiveness International and Director of Training for the Institute for Multi-Track Diplomacy, will discuss her work in helping nations heal after violent political upheaval. Room 3140 at 4:30. Food: Jersey Mike’s. Yelp Review: Dan N. from Chicago gives 4 stars and says “As a general rule, I’m predisposed not to support anything from Jersey, mainly to protest against those stupid clowns on MTV. I’m also predisposed to hate chain restaurants. Needless to say, I’m shocked at how much I like Jersey Mike’s Subs.”
- “Completing Your Summer Stipend Paperwork” is presented by the CDO. To ensure your participation in the summer stipend program, you need to finalize employment paperwork with Human Resources. We discuss how to work with HR to become an employee of the University. If you are already an "employee" of the University, you need not attend. Room 1130 at 4:30. No word on if pizza is available.
- Thomas F. Fay Peace Through Law Lecture presents Congressman Peter King, R-NY. Hosted by Professor Gurule, the purpose of the Lecture is to provide a forum to discuss issues related to the threat to international peace and security posed by acts of international terrorism, including the rights of victims of terrorism. McCartan Courtroom at 12:30. Reception to Follow at the Morris Inn/Joyce Dining Room.

TUESDAY, MARCH 31

- Lexis presents “Cost Effective Training.” Laura Dettinger will speak on how to research in the most affordable ways possible. Google? Room 2108 at 8:30, 12:30, and 4:00.
- 1L Moot Court Tournament Finals. 12:30 in the Courtroom. No pressure! Food: Knowledge, THERE IS NO FOOD IN THE COURTROOM! Unsure who the final teams are but rumors are this guy (not Clyde Taylor) made it. Good luck to all the 1Ls.

- Snite Salon Series, 5:00 - 5:45 at the Snite Museum of Art. Snite Salons are collegial exchanges of ideas about a great work of art, informed by participants' thoughtful observations, curiosity, and discernment. Gather with fellow students, faculty, and staff in the galleries to discover, discuss, and debate.
- Baseball v. Eastern Michigan, 6:05 at Eck Stadium.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 1 (April Fool's Day)

How should you formulate an OCI bidding strategy? Join CDO Counselors Katelynn McBride & Heather Gorman, and Recruiting Program Manager, Ali Wruble as they prep you for OCI and OCIP success. Room 1130 at 12:30.
- Softball v. Eastern Michigan, 4:05 at Melissa Cook Stadium.
- Mini-Medical School Lecture Series presents “Negotiating a World with Infectious Disease.” The Ebola outbreak has dominated the news, but infectious disease is all around us. Meredith Wierman, D.O., an internist with Saint Joseph Physician Network, will discuss emerging diseases, the development of drug resistance and the threat that poses on the public health of our country and the entire world. Raclin-Carmichael Hall auditorium, Indiana University School of Medicine-South Bend from 7:00 - 8:30. Free and open to the public. Q&A to follow. The feel-good event of this Holy Week!

MISCELLANEOUS:

- Third year students Jessica Binzoni and Audra Passinault have been selected as the 2015 Thomas L. Shaffer Public Interest Fellows. Their fellowships will support two years of public interest work post-graduation. Jessica will work at the National Immigrant Justice Center and Audra will work at the Legal Assistance Foundation, both in Chicago.
- Recent winners of a Regional Moot Court are now headed to Nationals! Congratulations to Adam Zamora, Erin Kauffman, Jonathan Mahoney, and Miguel Contreras

- 3Ls, Mandatory Federal Loan Counseling e-mails went out last week. Remember that you need to get this completed by TODAY! If you don't have a loan then good for you. Check all your graduation orders, announcements, names for degrees, etc. Basically just make sure you read all the e-mails you get from Anne Hamilton.
- The "Shunning" removes Carlene Miller although she did say to me, after realizing who I was, "I thought the old guy on the bike next to me looked familiar." Ouch! Rachel Krajewski is also off the list. Added this week are Mike Mikulic. "I am just on my way to have a run" is what I would have responded to you just outside of Rolf's if you had said "Hey Matt, what's up?" Nick Vozzo totally Tom Cruised me this weekend. His Top Gun aviator glasses prevented even eye contact. I felt like a Russian mig-28. Specifically NOT shunned this week and all future weeks is Michael Mercurio, who gave "Peace" to a shy Molly Wine at mass on Sunday.
- For those of you who did not attend the Father Mike Show, didn't get there for the beginning, or were otherwise not paying attention, please watch the introductory video here <http://youtu.be/dbk47cSVQ7E> about who Father Mike was. The video was produced and directed by two of our school's amazing classmates, Liam Reilly and Claudia Tran.
- In preparation for finals, Practice Exams and Verification Forms are due by April 24. Forms can be submitted outside Peter Horvath's office.
- Ashlie Collier and family need your continued thoughts and prayers as they deal with a serious medical issue. If you would like to give support online, please see the following link: https://www.giveforward.com/fundraiser/4c78/the-ashlie-fund?utm_source=giveforward&utm_medium=email&utm_campaign=donation_notify_organizer&email=rgonza12@nd.edu
- ESTEEM students are organizing Notre Dame's Startup Weekend, set to take place April 10-12 at Innovation Park. This year's event is shaping up to be a good one with several accomplished mentors in addition to our keynote speaker Jim Lecinski, an ND grad and VP at Google.

Tickets are only $30 but we've also setup a 20% discount code ND~~LA~~W to make the event more affordable. The website to find more information and buy tickets is notredame.startupweekend.org. If there's anything else I can provide, please don't hesitate to ask.

- Congrats to all the Holy Half Runners. A chilly morning but you did it! Here is our own Treasurer Tom Bohac both during and after the race.

- “Rebuilding Together” is an awesome chance to get involved with your class in a service project. Each class (2015/2016/2017) are forming teams now to serve on April 11. Reach out to one of your class reps or an SBA office to get more information. Here's a link to the ND SAO FAQ page on the 2015 Rebuilding Together opportunity. <http://sao.nd.edu/events/rebuildingtogether.html> and a link to the story in the South Bend Tribune: http://www.southbendtribune.com/news/local/rebuilding-together-needs-volunteers/article_12826b26-10c7-5087-a49d-de671ce79d63.html

TALES FROM MENDOZA (PART III)

Information is taken directly from law school correspondents.

1. “In banking & finance ethics last week my professor had us spend 20 minutes of the class looking over a brochure he made for his ethics event -- he asked us questions such as "do you think the colors look nice?" and "do you know what the clouds and people are supposed to symbolize?”
2. “In my BOTFL class last week my professor came unprepared to teach (yet again) and had us discuss ‘justice’ (which I'm pretty sure she doesn't even know what that word means). At one point she started crying in front of the whole class as she thought of the Rwandan genocide (which I'm also sure she doesn't know anything about). I might add that this is about the fourth time that this business professor has cried in front of [the class].

This BOTFL professor [also] had us watch a youtube video about a girl who cries because she loves cats so much and actually presented this to us as a learning tool. She told us the video was important for teaching us that people don't always mean what they say. WHAT?! Also, it should be pointed out that about half of our ‘readings’ every week are youtube videos (and the business students still complain about the amount of ‘reading’.”

EASTER STUFF...

Holy Week Stations of the Cross

All are invited to join in the first annual Holy Week Stations of the Cross in the Basilica of the Sacred Heart on Tuesday, March 31 at 9 p.m. This intentionally quiet evening of prayer and reflection will include Adoration and meditative Stations led by students, faculty and staff, as a way for us all to prepare for the Holy Triduum in a place that is central to our prayer on campus. Holy Week Stations of the Cross will replace the former campus-wide Stations of the Cross, but will still conclude with reconciliation in the Basilica at 10 p.m. The Notre Dame Folk Choir will provide music during reconciliation. Please come for as much or as little of the evening as you are able. All members of the Notre Dame family are welcome to attend.

Student Easter Mass

Notre Dame students are invited to a Student Easter Mass on Sunday, April 5 at 9 p.m. in the Basilica of the Sacred Heart. Fr. Matthew Kuczora, C.S.C., will preside and the Notre Dame Folk Choir will sing.

GRADUATION REMINDERS FROM ANNE'S DESK

1. Graduating students' ID cards will expire soon after graduation. If you are going to be studying for the Bar in the Law School this summer, please legibly sign the sheet on the counter in Suite 1100 by April 15 per the locksmith's request. Keep in mind that the locksmith needs to be able to read your signature! ;)

2. Leave the forms to be completed by the Law School with me now, and no later than April 15, so that those forms may be completed and signed in a timely manner once you graduate. Students whose bar forms are submitted by April 15 will be assured that their forms will be given priority. Late forms submitted to me after the deadline will not have the guarantee of timely completion.

3. Thank you to those of you who have completed the 3L survey! You others, please complete ASAP! Last year, only one person did not complete the survey. Let's beat that record!

4. Student Doctoral Academic Attire Rentals can be made at the bookstore or by contacting Trish Aschenbrenner at supplies@nd.edu, or by calling 574-631-1399. Deadline for rentals is April 17, 2015.

GET TO KNOW SOMEONE

Ruben Gonzalez is a 3L and Notre Dame basketball's biggest fan. His depression henceforth is then understandable. So if you see Ruben, cheer him up by saying hello as he is a people person. I will start: Ruben, it could be worse. You could be Caroline Shoemaker who lost both Arizona and Notre Dame from the tournament this weekend. You could be Kat Brownor Lauren Nottoli or any of our other South Carolina classmates who will lose to the Irish women on Sunday. Luckily for Ruben, he gets to take his mind of the loss by working on stuff even more fun than the NCAA basketball tournament. What is that, curious minds want to know? Planning a wedding to occur the week after the bar exam! Ruben is a smart guy though and his beautiful and talented fiancé Ashley helps Ruben make the "right" decisions when it comes to the upcoming nuptials. Ruben is one of our very few students from Chicago but loves the city very much and will be working there with Faegre Baker Daniels after graduation. If you see Ruben, ask him his thoughts on the upcoming presidential race, he really loves politics. He would also like to make it clear that he doesn't use a separate e-mail server for personal and work related e-mails. If you don't know Ruben you are missing out. He is a really wonderful guy, cheerful personality, and he can't have enough friends. So when you see him, just ask him how he is or say congrats on the upcoming wedding and you will have a new friend by the end of the conversation, I guarantee it!
