MISCELLANEOUS:

- The University is providing shuttle services for staff, faculty, and students. It is important that you utilize the shuttle if you want to keep this service as they are doing counts over the next couple of weeks. The shuttle service is invaluable to staff and do you really want to hoof it through the snow and wind when you can take a bus that is constantly running for you? Nearest pick up and drop off to the law school is McKenna Hall (conveniently right next door). <http://construction.nd.edu/campus-shuttles/>
- The Seventh Annual Trinity College Law Student Colloquium is to take place on Saturday, 7th February, 2015 in the Graduates Memorial Building, Trinity College, Dublin. We would warmly invite all law students, professors, practitioners, and all interested. Registration is free and commences at 9:30 am. Continuing Professional Development certification is available.

The highlight of the Colloquium is the Brian Lenihan Memorial Address, which will be delivered this year by the Hon. Mr Justice Gerard Hogan, recently appointed Judge of the Irish Court of Appeal, and former member of the High Court. Mr. Justice Hogan will speak on the subject of 'Separation of Powers: Should we be talking to each other?', and the address will be chaired by Professor Yvonne Scannell of TCD at 5:30 in the Chamber of the Graduates' Memorial Building.with generous wine reception to follow.

For more information, please visit <http://www.colloquium.ie>, or like our facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/tcdcolloquium?fref=ts>.

- Lardy Memorial Scholarship. Peter A.R. Lardy, Class of 1975, died from cancer during his third year of law school and was loved by his classmates. Those who knew him recall his professional qualities, generosity, deep faith, and quiet cheerfulness and good humor in the face of death. He was a born lawyer, a warm friend, and a great human being.

Peter's classmates have established the Lardy Memorial Scholarship in his honor, and you are encouraged to nominate a current second-year law student (i.e., member of the Class of 2016) possessed of the qualities listed above for this award. Nominations should be submitted to Peter Horvath on or before Monday, February 2, 4:00 PM. After nominations are received, we will solicit additional information from the Law School community and select a student to hold the fellowship during his or her third year of law school.

- "The Shunning" removes Amber Underhill who said hello to me excessively this week to make up for her previous failure. The following shunners are added after ignoring me at Rolf's: Mary Shepro, Corben Lee, Monica Bonilla, and Stephen Turner. None could be bothered to spot me on my bench presses, say hello and/or wave while I was burning up the treadmill at a 12 minute mile pace, or invite me into their pick up basketball game.

GET TO KNOW SOMEONE

Eileen Liao is a 2L who comes to Notre Dame Law School all the way from Diamond Bar, California. She is definitely not used to the South Bend winters and is looking forward to returning to California eventually where she can drive her car with no fear of ever getting stuck in the snow again (at least three times already that I know of). Eileen recently (over winter break) visited her family's home country of Thailand and ate wonderfully authentic Thai food. If you are a Facebook friend check out the cuisine pictures Eileen took, they look delicious. Has anyone ever seen Eileen without a smile on her face? If so, please provide me with photographic evidence because I won't take your word for it. Literally, her resting face is a smile, it is incredible. Just to give you perspective, the picture above shows Eileen in a "furious" state after her parents told her that a real pony was not available for her party and this stone horse would have to do. If you need a quick fix of happiness or think you are having a bad day and just need a friendly face to give you a quick pick me up, find Eileen (usually sitting in The Crossings) and you won't be able to help feeling better immediately. She only asks that you not judge her for still wearing sandals during winter, "I change into boots when I go outside," and that you be available to help push her car out of the snow when needed.

OH BABY!

3L Alan Tucker and his wife had a baby right before second semester began, how wonderfully thoughtful of the little one. Kayla Rae Tucker is a beautiful little girl who "luckily looks like her mother," according to Alan. When you see him, say congrats!

LOST AND FOUND

Water bottle (Camelback) with a "Got Your Bak" sticker on it. The water left inside the bottle has been preserved for the student who is presumably quite parched by this point.

This scarf (brand Jos A. Bank) is cashmere and has frills. The red and white tartan pattern screams "Braveheart, big fan." Help us reunite this scarf with the appropriate female or Beau Brummell.

Somebody needs to claim this hat before the mother who knitted it for them finds out and knits another one.

GUESS WHO?

Before he was quarterbacking Notre Dame law school classes he was quarterbacking for the football team.

Last Week's Answer: Warren Rees circa 2000. This was right around the time we were converting from DOS to Windows.
