News from Admissions

Melissa Fruscione and Jennifer Kilian attended the LSAC Annual Meeting and Educational Conference in Newport Beach, California last week. The conference focused on “Choosing the Ethical Path in Challenging Times”.

Second deposits are due on June 10 and the class is shaping up to include many great students with exceptional mission fit for NDLS. We are very excited to welcome them to the Law School.

It is with sadness that we announce Wendy Barnes will be leaving her position in the Admissions Office to become the Program Coordinator for Advanced Placement Training Incentive Programs (AP-TIP), part of the Institute for Educational Initiatives. Wendy has been an amazing asset to the Admissions Team for the past six years and will be greatly missed. This is an amazing opportunity for Wendy and we congratulate her on this new position!
