Staff News and Notes

Congratulations to Sean and Felicia O'Brien on the birth of their daughter, Issa Grace O'Brien last Friday, June 7th at 9:42 a.m.

Today from 11:00-1:00 is the annual Notre Dame summer staff picnic. Shuttles are available to get over to the Stepan Center. These will run from 10:30am – 1:30pm on a continuous loop between the bookstore, McKenna Hall, Morris Inn and the Stepan Center.

Don't forget that this Friday, June 14th, Dean Newton is hosting a staff lunch in the Faculty Meeting Room. Lunch from McAlister's will be available beginning at noon. Mark your calendars for the next staff lunch, too, which will be Friday, July 19th (details to follow).

The Faculty Administrative Assistants participated in a day long retreat on June 5, 2013. The Office of Human Resources scheduled a National Seminar Training of "Creating Amazing Moments the Notre Dame Way." Tina Jankowski noted some highlights of the retreat:

To sum it up, we were taught that "The goal is not homogeneity but that the goal is harmony. It takes everyone to make NDLS special – we work as a group and not as an individual and it is extremely important to share our values and standards."

We met back in the Law School for a luncheon and a seminar of scarf tying by our very own Kim Daniels.

After a short break, we were joined by Mark Kocovski from the Department of Human Resources who conducted our afternoon training, The DISCstyles. "We don't accomplish anything in this world alone...and whatever happens is the result of the whole tapestry of one's life and all the weavings of individual threads from one to another that creates something," (a quote from Sandra Day O'Connor.) We learned that most of the employees here at ND are Cautious, Stabilizer and Interactive and that there are very few Decisive personalities employed.
