Monday Morning Update

April 30 - May 6

NDLS,

I won't sugarcoat it. Finals are not great. They aren't even good. One might even say they are.... bad.

But they are here. So hunker down and finish strong. You got this. I think you got it, and so does high school Paul Rudd.

Got some brief #new #new #content for you after your weekly update.

Looooovin' you is easy 'cause you're beautiful, doot-doot-doot-doot-do-do, aaaahhhh,
Bill

Mass Schedule

For the Spring 2018 semester, Masses will be offered in the St. Thomas More Chapel as follows:

- Monday-Thursday, 5:15 PM
- Friday, 12:30 PM
- Sunday, 4:30 PM

 !!!!!!DOG DAY!!!!!!

Take a break from studying for finals. Come chill, relax, hangout & “destressify” (if it’s not a real word, it should be) with some dogs in The Commons.

Send A ND Mother's Day Card

Celebrate the moms and mother figures in your lives this Mother's Day by sending them a free Notre Dame postcard.

The Notre Dame Alumni Association has provided the postcards and will pay the postage. They will pay for domestic and international postage, so please send your mom a card even if she's in another country.

In the Law School, you can find the cards and deposit boxes in two locations: 1) the library circulation desk, and 2) in the middle of Eck Commons.

The cards and boxes will be in those locations until next Wednesday, May 2.

Summer Job Form - Research Consultation Request Form

Before you head out for your summer job, sign up for a personalized research consultation with one of the research librarians. Use the Research Consultation Request Form. A research librarian will contact you to set up a time to go over the legal research resources you will need for your summer job.

LEGAL WRITING CENTER

The Legal Writing Center is dedicated to helping law students become better writers. Our tutors accomplish this goal by listening attentively in writing conferences, reading papers carefully, and asking questions that can help writers better express their ideas and construct their arguments. Legal Writing Center tutors work with writers during all stages of the writing process—from understanding an assignment, to developing a thesis, to organizing the paper, to revising the final product. Make an appointment here or drop in to room 2146 during the following hours:

Monday 9:00–12:00; 1:00–4:00

Tuesday 9:00–11:00

Wednesday 11:00–2:00; 4:00–5:00

Thursday 12:00–2:00; 4:00–5:00

WLF Announces Summer Stipends

The Women's Legal Forum will be awarding 8-12 summer stipends of varied amounts, ranging from $250 to $1000 to active WLF members dedicated to advancing WLF's mission of empowering, educating, and supporting women at NDLS and beyond.

To apply, please redact your name and identifying information from all application documents, submit a resume, and submit short answers to the following three questions to Heidi Baguer in the CDO at hbaguer@nd.edu by 5 PM Eastern on Monday, April 30.

1. Briefly describe your involvement with the Women's Legal Forum this year, highlighting the events you attended and your reflections on them.
2. How do you intend to advance WLF's mission of empowering, educating, and supporting women at NDLS and beyond?
3. Provide a statement of financial need and what work you will be doing this summer.

Please note that these stipends are available to all students. However, involvement in WLF is one of the deciding factors in whom we give scholarships to, so please keep this in mind while applying. Also, please note that the awards will not be awarded in one lump sum at the beginning of the summer. Instead, you will receive the award in increments divided up over the summer.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Cassie cgawron@nd.edu or Heidi at hbaguer@nd.edu.

THAT #FRESH #FRESH #CONTENT

Ah, the final MMU of the year.

As you may have realized, my smiling face is missing from South Bend this semester. But with the impending end of my second year at NDLS, I am feeling some nostalgia for life under the Dome, if for no other reason than many of our 3L friends will be moving on to do amazing things.

Law school comes with its stresses, but I always found easy conversations and good advice when talking with the current 3L class. Thank you for all of your help, and best of luck wherever life takes you.

Phew. The serious part is done.

I spent three hours in a plant shop yesterday. For those of you unfortunate enough to never set foot inside such an establishment, it's much less a store than a carefully-cultivated Jumanji-like heaven that makes your senses feel really, really nice. I am honestly unsure as to whether I bought anything or if I just made a bunch of plant friends whom I'll never write to.

Did you know that a terrarium is a collection of small succulents that you can name, never have to water, but offer ample opportunity for a man in his late twenties to ask completely-confused, completely-serious questions of plant store workers about their health benefits?

Succulents are called succulents because Latin was a language once. They offer few tangible benefits other than allowing you the chance to talk about them or encouraging individuals to collect various small pots.

They aren't all bad, though. I once owned a small succulent that I called Justice Clarence Thomas because Justice Clarence Thomas is an incredible plant name. Try to find a better plant name - just kidding, you cannot.

I left the plant store feeling very good, thank you very much. I would recommend anyone looking for a a nice break from their studies to dive into their local plant store™*.
