New faces at NDLS

A warm welcome to Allison Wruble, who joined the Law School last week as the Administrative Staff Assistant for the Career Development Office. Ali is originally from Texas but has been in South Bend for six years. She holds a B.A. from Dartmouth College and joins the Law School after working with a local attorney for several years. You may reach Ali at 631-7542, via e-mail, or stop by to visit her in 1341 Biolchini Hall.

We also welcome Kyle Fitzenreiter this week, who joined the Law School on Monday as the new Marketing Communications Program Director. Kyle comes to us from the DeBartolo Performing Arts Center, where he served as Marketing Program Manager for more than five years. Kyle holds an M.B.A. from the University of Cincinnati and a B.S. in Business Administration from Miami University in Oxford, Ohio. Originally from Napoleon in northwest Ohio, Kyle lives in Granger with his wife, Allison, and two boys, Liam (4) and Quinn (1). Stop by his office in 1156 Eck to say hello! Kyle can also be reached by phone at 631-0467 or e-mail.

News and Notes

Vice President and Associate Provost J. Nicholas Entikin has appointed Paolo Carozza to be the Director of the Kellogg Institute for International Studies at the University of Notre Dame, beginning on July 1st. Dean Newton notes that "We congratulate Paolo on this recognition of his central role in the ongoing development of international studies at Notre Dame. ... I am particularly delighted that he will remain on the Law School faculty, teaching and directing the J.S.D. Program as well as serving as the Academic Director of the CCHR pending the outcome of our search for a new Director." Read more...

Ed Edmonds was a co-presenter with Frank Houdek, Associate Dean for Academic Affairs at Southern Illinois University of “Separating Folklore and Myths From Reality: Searching For the Truth,” at the 24th Cooperstown Symposium on Baseball and American Culture, co-sponsored by the State University of New York at Oneonta and the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum, Cooperstown, New York, on June 1, 2012. Frank and Ed challenged the audience to consider the scope of research necessary when writing about baseball history and resolving different accounts of a specific event. Read more...

Events

Attention Faculty: Nikki Harris, our Lexis representative, will conduct a noon-time training session on Lexis Advance for the law faculty on Thursday, June 14th. Lexis Advance — the next-generation Lexis platform — features an “intuitive single search interface” allowing you to search all Lexis content at once for “a comprehensive set of results.”

Not sure what this means? Neither am I, but we’ll be able to enjoy a free lunch (compliments of LexisNexis) while we find out! Please e-mail Dwight King if you will attend, so we can get an accurate count for lunch.

Attention Staff: Don’t forget that this Friday, June 15th, Dean Newton is hosting a staff lunch in the Faculty Meeting Room. Lunch from McAlister’s will be available beginning at noon. Mark your calendars for the next staff lunch, too, which will be Friday, July 13th (details to follow).

Question of the Week

Do you have any favorite summertime festivals?

Sandra Klein, Law Library: I always enjoy going to the Krasl Art Fair on the Bluff whenever it doesn’t coincide with AALL, [American Association of Law Libraries’

Annual Meeting] which, happily, this year it does not!

Jaimi Wood, Clinical Law Center: I have gone to the Mishawaka Summerfest, since I was a little girl, and now take my family. This is a wonderful family event. Summerfest is held in Mishawaka at Merrifield and Crawford Parks. The event is always held towards the end of June and features a 5k run and timed walk that starts at Mishawaka High School. There is music, and also food booths, crafts, and the famous “Kid Zone,” with lots of different activities for kids. For the history buff, check out the tours of the beautiful Riverwalk by golf cart. There will be a free open air concert featuring an artist/band on Saturday evening. I hope to see you there.

Cathy Roemer and Dwight King both recommended the annual Ann Arbor Art Fair. Cathy noted that “it’s a fabulous and extensive collection of fine art and crafts.” The event is held in Ann Arbor, Michigan on July 18th–21st, from 10 a.m. until 9 p.m. Wednesday through Friday, and from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Saturday.

We’re looking for responses for next week’s Question of the Week: What is your favorite local park and why? Please e-mail us your answer by 3:00 p.m. on Monday, June 18th!
