Legal Writing Center

The Legal Writing Center is dedicated to helping law students become better writers. Our tutors accomplish this goal by listening attentively in writing conferences, reading papers carefully, and asking questions that can help writers better express their ideas and construct their arguments. Legal Writing Center tutors work with writers during all stages of the writing process—from understanding an assignment, to developing a thesis, to organizing the paper, to revising the final product. Note: 1Ls may not use the Legal Writing Center during the fall semester. Make an appointment here or drop into room 2145 during the following hours:

Notice for student visitors to Sinai Synagogue

The Sinai Synagogue of South Bend often hosts Notre Dame student visitors during worship services to learn about Judaism either as a class assignment or otherwise. Rabbi Friedland has informed the University that their visitor policy has changed this year and the University has asked us to pass on the new policy as needed to students. Please stop by to see Christine Holst in Student Services in Eck 1100 for more information if you plan to attend services at Sinai Synagogue this year.

A Little Lagniappe

Hello NDLS!

Another week has come and gone without a home game leaving me feeling a little unfulfilled as I write to you Sunday evening. My weekend is just not complete without the invigorating Saturday home game schedule.

So, what did I do to pass the time, you ask? Excellent question!

Friday night, I was introduced to LivePD. Low-key hooked now. If you haven't watched it yet, join the rest of America. Watch the show. You, as law students, will not be disappointed. I promise.

Saturday, with banner weather, I cheered on the 3Ls in our Annual SBA Softball Tournament! Huge s/o to Kevin Francese who did a #fab job in organizing the tourney complete with sunflower seeds, Gatorade and your classic ballpark favorite, Double Bubble Bubblegum. While the 3Ls didn't pull out a victory (blame it on the fact that 1Ls & 2Ls are younger and this more #fit than we are), I truly enjoyed the morning. AND I DIDN'T GET SUNBURNED #winning

Saturday afternoon and evening were of course dominated by football. My Tigers got that W with a 66-38 victory over Vandy while all of Baton Rouge practically took over Nashville--hello home field advantage. And of course we all watched the Irish--man what a game. Honestly, so impressed the Irish hung in there as long and as close as they did. Great job to the team on that. If only they could've heard the calls over the roar of those gosh awful Georgia fans...

As always, Sunday came much too quickly with its readings and other responsibilities. But I am happy to report, we all survived another week of law school so let's get ready to do it again!

Stay Golden, NDLS
Marge

SPORT REPORT

First, an update from your Athletics Chair, Kevin Francese:

The 2L team took home the title this year at the softball tournament. We had a good showing by the 1Ls to get themselves to the finals and a merciful end to the 3Ls pitiful run in softball. Congrats 2Ls!

Now, I'm sure we all watched the prime time game of Notre Dame vs. Georgia this past Saturday night. What a game. I can honestly say, the Irish fought longer and harder than I thought they would--call it my SEC bias--but it was an entertaining match-up nonetheless!

However, because the Irish snagged the prime-time spot, it seemed like every other team in the country played at Noon. So here are some recaps in case you couldn't flip channels fast enough to catch them all!

- Auburn edged out the A&M Aggies for a 28-20 victory in the Home of the 12th Man. So much for home field advantage, Aggies.
- Pitt with the upset over UCF--4th and 3 with a snap, a toss, and a touchdown for Pitt to win the game!
- This week's competition, UVA, came away with a 28-17 victory over Old Dominion. I watched their game highlights...nothing the Irish can't handle!

- Michigan State trounced Northwestern with a 31-10 victory in Chicago. Go Green!
- Of course the great win of Saturday afternoon was Wisconsin taking down Michigan. 35-14. That's a score ya love to see!
- Last but not least, happy to see LSU got the W in Nashville this weekend against Vandy 66-38. The bigger win though was the fact that Tiger fans drank multiple bars and the entire Vanderbilt stadium out of beer. Atta way, Tigers!

So many teams, so little writing space--that's all for this week! Want your team to be highlighted? Got a few things to say about this weekend's game schedule? EMAIL IT TO ME! (otherwise you'll get to read sports reported by me, a passionate but uneducated fan, all year long :))

Go Irish! and ALWAYS GEAUX TIGERS!

PROFESSOR SPOTLIGHT

This week's professor is David Waddilove. He loves history, the University of Michigan (which we are willing to overlook), AND he needs recommendations on where to grab a beer! Thank you Professor Waddilove for participating in our spotlight and I hope some students provide you with beer suggestions soon!

Undergraduate/Law School

- Undergraduate in Theology and Religious Studies, University of Cambridge
- Master of Art in Religion concentration in Theology, Yale Divinity School
- Law School, University of Michigan
- PhD in English Legal History, University of Cambridge

Legal work prior to joining the faculty

I clerked on the Eighth Circuit, and then practiced commercial litigation at a firm in Kansas City before my PhD. After the PhD, I was a fellow of St Catharine's College Cambridge for several years, and then a fellow in Private Law at Harvard Law School.

Classes you teach/have taught or areas of study you are particularly interested in Teaching Secured Transactions this semester and Property next.

Any current research you are conducting or projects you are working on?

I research English legal history, particularly the history of equity and the Court of Chancery. I'm also interested in how those origins affect property and contract law today.

What is your favorite hobby outside of the law school?

I enjoy Anglican choral singing, playing squash, and old-fashioned socializing (something that the young seem to do more than the old, although they call it "hanging out")

Favorite college sports team?

I support the Notre Dame Fighting Irish and Michigan Wolverines - but which has priority?!?!

Best place to grab a beer in South Bend? Favorite restaurant?

I haven't been in South Bend long enough to know the best place to grab a beer. So I would love suggestions from students!

If you could tell your law school self one thing, what would it be?

I wouldn't tell my law-school self anything other than keep living the dream; I loved law school. I became a professor in large measure because I wanted to come as close to staying a law student as I possibly could. Part of my enjoyment was engagement with the wider university. It was great to think of it not as law school as much as a general university education. But that was something that my law-school self taught me, not vice-versa.

1L OF THE WEEK

Sooooooo I didn't get a 1L of the Week for this week because I was too busy watching the Irish. My bad. 1L of the Week will be back next week for your reading pleasure!
