The Sinai Synagogue of South Bend often hosts Notre Dame student visitors during worship services to learn about Judaism either as a class assignment or otherwise. Rabbi Friedland has informed the University that their visitor policy has changed this year and the University has asked us to pass on the new policy as needed to students. Please stop by to see Christine Holst in Student Services in Eck 1100 for more information if you plan to attend services at Sinai Synagogue this year.

A Little Lagniappe

Hello NDLS!

Sweater Weather has arrived! I hope you all felt a little bit of joy waking up Friday morning to see a high temperature of 60 degrees because I sure did!

The cool temps definitely made watching the Powder Puff tournament and the ND game on Saturday that much more enjoyable. There's just something about a good sweater and a football game, ya know?

I just hope that this beautiful weather continues through the week and into the weekend because...it's FALL BALL, Y'ALL. The food, the DJ, the dressing as if you're going to a high school homecoming--what a time! (I am clearly pumped for this event.)

Now, I know many of you may roll your eyes and say "why is it necessary to have law school semi-formal?" Hello, it is one night where all the law school can gather together, dance, take pictures, and eat the delicious queso served by the Century Center. What is not fun about that?! Particularly the all-you-can-eat queso?!

As a 3L, I can honestly say I am sad this is my last Fall Ball. When else in my professional career will I have the opportunity to wear my old homecoming dresses and dance to the "Cupid Shuffle" with my closest friends and colleagues in the lovely Century Center of Downtown South Bend?

Answer: Never again.

So, come Friday night you can fully expect to see me, on the dance floor, all night, with a plate of chips and queso, having the #timeofmylife.

That's all for this week and I hope to see you on Friday!

Stay Golden, NDLS

Marge

SPORT REPORT

First, a message from Athletics Chair, Kevin Francese!

Powderpuff football was a huge success! The 2Ls kept up their winning ways and took both games to be crowned champions again this year! 3Ls won the game against the 1Ls to ride off in style.

Don't worry 1Ls - there's two years to shake off those nasty losses!

BIG THANK YOU to referee Ian and ball marker Margaret. The event was a success because of volunteers like you!

Stay on the lookout for some kickball coming in a few weeks!

Now for some highlights from yours truly:

- We all loved seeing a good shutout last Saturday as the Irish defeated Bowling Green. Nothing says victory like a good old American fly-over and a 52-0 win!
- So depending on when you tuned-in to the game, it looked like Tennessee might be trouble for the Georgia Bulldogs. Our hopes were short-lived, however, once the Dawgs found their stride with a 43-14 win over the Volunteers.
- Another week of football and Ohio State has jumped back into the top 4 in the Coaches' poll. The buckeyes(which are a poisonous nut btw) defeated Michigan State 34-10 Saturday night. (In the words of some Sparty fans I know, it's time for a new offensive coordinator, MSU.)
- Down South, the Florida Gators beat the Auburn Tigers, War Eagles, whatever the mascot is this week, 24-13. Why do we care? Because the Fighting Tigers of LSU take on Florida this Saturday as College Gameday returns to Baton Rouge!
- What a high scoring game for Michigan--10-3 over Iowa! Things are looking good for the Irish when they meet the Wolverines later this month!
- Keeping tabs on another opponent in ND's schedule, Stanford defeated Washington 23-13 Saturday with a very nice 42-yd Stanford touchdown pass!

So many teams, so little writing space--that's all for this week! Want your team to be highlighted? Got a few things to say about this weekends game schedule? EMAIL IT TO ME! (otherwise you'll get to read sports reported by me, a passionate but uneducated fan, all year long :))

Go Irish and ALWAYS GEAUX TIGERS!

PROFESSOR SPOTLIGHT

This week's professor is Patrick Corrigan. He specializes in many things corporate/business law related, he is branching out into tennis, and he is partial to 3 Floyds Brewing! Thank you Professor Corrigan for participating in our Spotlight!

Professor Corrigan is from Cincinnati, Ohio. He did his undergraduate degree at Notre Dame, a Master in Public Policy at Harvard, and his JD at NYU. He practiced corporate law in New York City and was a fellow at NYU Law School and Stern School of business before joining the faculty at Notre Dame. Professor Corrigan teaches Business Associations and Securities Regulation, and a seminar on initial public offerings and venture capital deals.

Professor Corrigan's favorite hobby is hiking and outdoors activities. He is currently taking tennis lessons through Rec Sports. Professor Corrigan is a mug club member at Evil Czech and really appreciates everything made by 3 Floyds Brewing Co (Muncie) and Great Lakes Brewing Company (Cleveland). One piece of advice is to enjoy these years as a learner and as a classmate. These times are really good!
