- Survivor Advocacy Service Project Training #2:
 - The CDO, in conjunction with the Women's Legal Forum (Legal Voices for Children, FPAC, and the Lawyers Guild co-sponsoring), are currently finalizing plans for the Survivor Advocacy Service Project at the end of October. The aim of the project is to provide counsel and representation for women who are survivors of domestic or sexual abuse.
 - During the first run of this program, the CDO and ND Law students will be meeting with survivors to assist in filing petitions which will expunge their criminal records. Previous criminal history is one of the main obstacles facing this population as they seek work in order to better assert their independence.
 - During Session #2 advocates/caseworkers from the Family Justice Center and the St. Joseph County YWCA will be instructing participants on trauma informed representation, as well as basic client needs to the target population of the project (survivors of domestic/sexual violence).
 - For 3L Participants:
 - If you would like to serve as a Certified Legal Intern, which will allow you to sign filings and, potentially, represent clients in any hearings that are scheduled, please fill out the attached form and bring it with you to the training. (2L's will have the opportunity to do the same in the Spring Semester, if they have/are taking Professional Responsibility).
 - Please RSVP via IrishLink. Lunch will be available to those who register by 9am 10/17.

Legal Writing Center

The Legal Writing Center is dedicated to helping law students become better writers. Our tutors accomplish this goal by listening attentively in writing conferences, reading papers carefully, and asking questions that can help writers better express their ideas and construct their arguments. Legal Writing Center tutors work with writers during all stages of the writing process—from understanding an assignment, to developing a thesis, to organizing the paper, to revising the final product. Note: 1Ls may not use the Legal Writing Center during the fall semester. Make an appointment here or drop into room 2145 during the following hours:

Notice for student visitors to Sinai Synagogue

The Sinai Synagogue of South Bend often hosts Notre Dame student visitors during worship services to learn about Judaism either as a class assignment or otherwise. Rabbi Friedland has informed the University that their visitor policy has changed this year and the University has asked us to pass on the new policy as needed to students. Please stop by to see Christine Holst in Student Services in Eck 1100 for more information if you plan to attend services at Sinai Synagogue this year.

Mock Trial Coaches Wanted

John Adams High School is looking for up to five volunteer coaches for its mock trial program: two pairs of coaches for two freshman mock trial teams and one coach to help the head coach of a freshman team. Practices are Monday and Wednesday evenings from 7:00 p.m. to 8:15, beginning October 7 and running through Feb. 22, which is our regional competition. (The state competition is March 6-8; freshman teams qualify occasionally.) Please contact Amy Elliott at aelliott@sbcsc.k12.in.us or 574.261.1212 if you are interested in helping out. We generally have ten to twelve teams and a great group of attorney-coaches!

A Little Lagniappe

Hello NDLS!

Can I get a "Go Irish"?! We truly lucked out on a perfect football weekend. Got a little nervous towards the end there, but the Irish didn't let us down! I chalk it up to the fabulous weather, the night game atmosphere, and our fabulous rally towels in the student section. If you thought I was excited about the discounted hot dogs, you haven't seen me with a free rally towel. It was awesome!

Looking back at Friday night, huge shoutout to Nicole and her social committee for throwing a wonderful Fall Ball event! The rain cleared off and the dance floor was poppin'. Those are 2 huge signs of a successful night. Throw in the fact that I didn't lose my shoes AND I was able to enjoy Wings Over afterwards and I call the whole night a win!

Now, I'm not sure if you're aware because all the other events we had this weekend, but most importantly...NOTRE DAME HOCKEY IS BACK. I know you're wondering how I, a southern, could be so excited about a sport we don't even have in my state, but I can assure you I am one of Notre Dame Hockey's biggest fans.

I may have bought a hockey jersey the first game I went to and I may still call them "matches" instead of games, but I LOVED ending my weekend watching the Irish beat Air Force on the ice Sunday afternoon. And for the first time, I sat right in the front row. You better BELIEVE I was banging on the glass the entire time!

With so much happening this past weekend, it is no surprise that I am exhausted as I'm sure many of you are as well. Chins up though, people, because Fall Break is in sight! One more week and we can all take a breath, recharge, and catch up on all that reading we haven't done yet!

That's all for this week!

Stay Golden, NDLS

Marge

SPORT REPORT

I was told by some LSU haters that it was "Upset Saturday" this past weekend. Idk 'bout all dat, but here are some highlights:

- SOUTH CAROLINA OVER GEORGIA! The Gamecocks and the Bulldogs pushed it into 2 overtime periods, but s/o to the Georgia kicker who missed that field goal to end the game. Pretty sure every ND fan was cheering as the Gamecocks took the W 20-17.
- U of I couldn't hold back Michigan as the Wolverines claimed a 42-25 victory. It's ok, Illinois. You tried. You tried.
- Keeping an eye on Clemson--the Tigers trounced FSU 45-14. No real surprise here, but still just watching those teams in the Top 4.
- Oklahoma took down Texas in the Red River Showdown with a score of 34-27. Not that I'm a Sooner, but I'm for anyone who beats Texas!
- Baylor made it through 2 overtime periods before pulling out a win over Texas Tech. Would've hated to see such an upset, but Sic 'em Bears!
- Wisconsin-Michigan State? I'll be brief. 38-0 shutout for the Badgers. #woof MSU...
- As I'm sure we ALL saw, ND over USC 30-27. It was cold, it was intense, but best of all, it was a win! AND we got rally towels out of it! #SCORE
- Finally, my favorite team took down the Florida Gators in a Saturday Night Showdown in Death

Valley. The Cardiac Cats of LSU almost gave me a heart attack at the half, but slowly we secured our W 42-28 and with it a hefty jump up in the polls. Chomp Chomp, Gators.

So many teams, so little writing space--that's all for this week! Want your team to be highlighted? Got a few things to say about this weekends game schedule? EMAIL IT TO ME! (otherwise you'll get to read sports reported by me, a passionate but uneducated fan, all year long :))

Go Irish and ALWAYS GEAUX TIGERS!

PROFESSOR SPOTLIGHT

This week's professor is Julian Velasco. He specializes in many things corporate/business law related, cheers against the Hoyas, and he enjoys photography! Thank you Professor Velasco for participating in our Spotlight!

- Undergraduate/Law School

- I went to college at the Georgetown University School of Business Administration, where I majored in Finance and minored in Philosophy and in Theology.
- I went to Columbia University School of Law.

- Legal work prior to joining the faculty

- I clerked for the Hon. Ellsworth A. Van Graafeiland of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit.
- Then I worked at Sullivan & Cromwell in New York City for four years, where I engaged in transactions practice, consisting mostly of securities offerings and mergers & acquisitions.
- Then I taught at Hofstra University School of Law for two years before coming here 18 years ago.

- Best place to grab a beer in South Bend? Favorite restaurant?

- I don't drink. My favorite restaurant is Simonini Gourmet in Granger.

- Classes you teach/have taught or areas of study you are particularly interested in
 - I teach Contracts, Business Associations, Mergers & Acquisitions, and a seminar in Advanced Topics in Corporate Law.
 - I have also taught Securities Regulation and Corporate Finance.
 - I would like to teach a seminar in Fiduciary Law.
 - Any current research you are conducting or projects you are working on
 - I research and write on corporate governance issues and fiduciary law. I am currently working on two pieces: one on the role of shareholders in benefit corporations, and another on the applicability of the business judgment rule outside of corporate law.
 - What is your favorite hobby outside of the law school?
 - I enjoy photography, especially (but not limited to) portrait photography.
 - Favorite college sports team?
 - The Irish, and anyone playing against the Hoyas.
 - If you could tell your law school self one thing, what would it be?
 - Take prayer more seriously. It takes a LONG time to get any good at it, so you might as well get started while you are young.

1L OF THE WEEK

This week's 1L of the Week is Meghan Dalton! She's a Double Domer and is automatically cooler than me because she had an AIM. If you see her this week, buy her a coffee!

Q. Hometown?

A. Marshfield, MA

Q. Undergrad?

A. Notre Dame

Q. What did you do this summer before coming to law school?

A. Took a road trip out west with my college roommates and visited Badlands, Yellowstone, and Glacier National Parks!

Q. What are you looking forward to most this semester?

A. My whole family visiting for the BC game!

Q. When not at the law school, what do you do for fun?

A. Try to convince people to sing with me at one of South Bend's many fine karaoke establishments

It is a struggle to get anyone to karaoke. Including myself. Still never been.

Q. Where is your favorite place to study on campus?

A. 10th floor of Hesburgh Library, desk in northwest corner that looks out over the dome

Q. If you could be any kind of dog what would it be and why?

A. Full disclosure, I outsourced this question and was told I would either be a Portuguese water dog because I grew up in a beach town and I have wavy hair or a bulldog because I snore ^_(\u2197)_/^

I respect your outsourcing. I have been told I would be either a pug (bc I'm "needy") or a corgi (bc I'm loyal). I accept both personas.

Q. What kitchen item would you be?

A. Crock pot

Q. Did you have an AIM? If so, what was your username?

A. Hmu @soccerchik271

I was not allowed to have AIM...but my yahoo name was peacefrog_mm...my phone still uses it to send texts sometimes.

Q. Android or Apple?

A. Apple

Q. Football or Hockey?

A. Field hockey

Q. Eck or Biolchini?

A. Eck

Q. Coffee or tea?

A. Coffee (dunkin iced >>>)

Q. Anything else you'd like to tell your fans?

A. Follow my dog's instagram account to get your fix of ND/golden retriever content (@RudyRoo42)

Shameless plug. Love it. And your dog.

Q. Who should be next week's 1L of the week?

A. Christian Palacios
