 - Pizza will be served.
 - Please register on Irishlink.
 - 12:30pm-1:30 pm, 1315 Biolchini
- Academic Success Workshop:
 - Join Peter Wendel, Professor at Pepperdine University School of Law, for 2-hour workshop on academic success. The first hour of the workshop focuses on what it means to “think like a lawyer.” The second hour focuses on how to take that abstract understanding and perform better on exams. Professor Wendel developed the workshop at the request of the Pepperdine BLSA chapter, and when it proved helpful, he began exporting it to other students at other law schools across the country. The event is cosponsored by BLSA and CDO.
 - Dinner will be served.

- Please register on Irishlink
 - 6:00pm–8:00pm, 1130 Eck
- Remain in Mexico: How Tent Courts Fail Asylum Seekers and Abandon Due Process
 - Prof. Lisa Koop from the National Immigrant Justice Center and the NDLS Immigration Clinic represented asylum seekers in tent courts created by the Trump Administration's "Remain in Mexico" program. Prof. Koop will share her observations and work on the border. Free and open to the public.
 - Event hosted by NLG and co-sponsored by: ACLU, ACS, Economic Justice Society, Exoneration Project, HLSA, and International Law Society
 - Mango Cafe lunch will be served afterwards
 - 12:30pm-1:30pm, McCartan Courtroom

Legal Writing Center

The Legal Writing Center is dedicated to helping law students become better writers. Our tutors accomplish this goal by listening attentively in writing conferences, reading papers carefully, and asking questions that can help writers better express their ideas and construct their arguments. Legal Writing Center tutors work with writers during all stages of the writing process—from understanding an assignment, to developing a thesis, to organizing the paper, to revising the final product. Note: 1Ls may not use the Legal Writing Center during the fall semester. Make an appointment here or drop into room 2145 during the following hours:

Notice for student visitors to Sinai Synagogue

The Sinai Synagogue of South Bend often hosts Notre Dame student visitors during worship services to learn about Judaism either as a class assignment or otherwise. Rabbi Friedland has informed the University that their visitor policy has changed this year and the University has asked us to pass on the new policy as needed to students. Please stop by to see Christine Holst in Student Services in Eck 1100 for more information if you plan to attend services at Sinai Synagogue this year.

Mock Trial Coaches Wanted

John Adams High School is looking for up to five volunteer coaches for its mock trial program: two pairs of coaches for two freshman mock trial teams and one coach to help the head coach of a freshman team. Practices are Monday and Wednesday evenings from 7:00 p.m. to 8:15, beginning October 7 and running through Feb. 22, which is our regional competition. (The state competition is March 6-8; freshman teams qualify occasionally.) Please contact Amy Elliott at aelliott@sbcsc.k12.in.us or 574.261.1212 if you are interested in helping out. We generally have ten to twelve teams and a great group of attorney-coaches!

A Little Lagniappe

Hello NDLS!

Welcome back from break, everyone! I hope you all got some PRT (personal rejuvenation time), caught up on your readings, and started those outlines. If you did any or all of those things, good for you.

If you're like me, and decided not to do ANY of those things, we're gonna be alright. At least we made fun memories over break, right?!

In case you haven't seen my Instagram, I split my break between Detroit and Louisiana. Yes, after 3 years of talking about it, I finally made it up to the Mitten to check out all the hype. Y'all, from the downtown scene to sitting practically on the ice at a Red Wings game, I had a BLAST. S/o to my tour guide, Alex Kurrie, for showing me the ropes and tolerating me for more than 24 hours. Grade A host, ladies and gentlemen!

If you thought my fall break activities stopped there, you are mistaken. From Detroit we headed down to the Bayou state for a weekend in New Orleans and Baton Rouge. Under my carefully scheduled guidance, my 4 Midwest peeps experienced Nola's finest in cuisine and the roaring Saturday Night atmosphere of LSU's Death Valley. Memories were made, football games were won, and pounds from food were gained.

I must say, of my three years in law school, this was the BEST BREAK EVER. Again, a HUGE thank you to Dominique Fry and Alex Kurrie for putting up with me for 9 days and for making my last fall break an unforgettable one!

As proud of how awesome it was, I have included a shameless picture of us at the game. But look how precious we look!

That's all for this week!

Stay Golden, NDLS
Marge

SPORT REPORT

Truth be told, I spent my Saturday playing tour guide for my Midwest peeps visiting LSU, so my attention, as you can imagine, was solely on the purple and gold. As result I have very few comments to make regarding the state of college football on this Monday morning.

- Congrats to Iowa for their shutout against Northwestern. 20-0 W for the Hawkeyes!
- I'm sure many of us saw that Ohio State beat Wisconsin. The badgers kept it from being a complete shutout though with a score of 38-7.
- How about TCU taking down Texas 37-27?! Horns. Down. That's all I have to say bout that!
- Another victory for Penn State as they took down Sparty 28-7. Would someone just please ruin Penn State's undefeated season already?
- Yes, the LSU Tigers beat Auburn 23-20. Yes, I stood the whole game out of panic. Yes, the Midwesterners had a ball. Yes, you'll read more about this trip somewhere in the MMU.
- But I know the real game everyone was watching was ND v. Michigan. What. A. Heart. Break. Though I didn't watch a minute of the game, I heard it was a rough go for the Irish. If anyone would care to recap why ND lost 45-14 to the Wolverines, please come see me in the Commons to explain.

So many teams, so little writing space--that's all for this week! Want your team to be highlighted? Got a few things to say about this weekends game schedule? EMAIL IT TO ME! (otherwise you'll get to read sports reported by me, a passionate but uneducated fan, all year long :))

Go Irish and ALWAYS GEAUX TIGERS!

PROFESSOR SPOTLIGHT

This week's professor is our very own Dean Marcus Cole! I sat down with Dean Cole and ask the "hard hitting" questions and now is your chance to learn more about him! Thank you Dean Cole for participating in our spotlight!

- Undergraduate/Law School
 - Cornell undergrad and Northwestern for Law
 - He always wanted to come to Notre Dame, however. Growing up in Pittsburgh, Dean Cole and his brother worked as paper boys and altar boys to do their part to support the family and participate in their community.
 - On the weekends, he and his brother would work their paper route and then serve the earliest mass they could so they could make it home in time to watch the re-airing of the Notre Dame game

- The Cole brothers made a pact to come to Notre Dame
- Dean Cole was accepted to ND for law school, but choose Northwestern for financial reasons.
- Legal work prior to joining the faculty
 - Clerked on 8th cir. for judge More Sheppard Arnold which is where he met the Garnetts
 - Worked at Mayer Brown for almost 4 years
 - While practicing, wrote a lot of pieces that gained notice of many universities—Stanford was the ticket
 - Taught at Stanford for 22 years
 - 2001-2002 was a visiting professor at Northwestern
- Becoming the Dean:
 - The entire selection process was about 6 months long with a series of interviews. The final selection was made in late December.
 - Throughout the entire process, Dean Cole was able to gain insight into what was important to the university as a whole and the law school.
 - When asked how he felt about taking the job, Dean Cole commented that ND was the only place he would leave Stanford for.
 - While here, the Dean has a real interest in embracing and making the most of the faith-based mission of the school.
- Best place to grab a beer in South Bend? Favorite restaurant?
 - Lasalle Grille, Corndance, Crooked Ewe

- Classes you teach/have taught or areas of study you are particularly interested in:
 - Bankruptcy law, venture capital law, banking regulation is what he taught
 - first year contracts was his favorite class to teach
 - taught from own textbook and taught $\frac{1}{3}$ of Stanford students

- Venture Capital in China Seminar— taught chinese investment, business, contracts and they even went to China over break to meet with
- Here at ND, Dean Cole will teaching contracts in the fall and international banking regulation primarily focusing on the UK
- Moving to the Bend:
 - He's been coming for years for football and has spent a lot of time here. Even driving home for the holidays from Northwestern, he would slow down as he passed through South Bend so he could see the Dome from the interstate.
 - His biggest love in South Bend is the supermarkets. You can catch him shopping at the Martin's by campus!
- Favorite college sports team?
 - Easy--it has ALWAYS been Notre Dame.
 - Looking to the NFL, you can bet he's a Steelers fan!
- Favorite class in law school?
 - contracts, comparative law, legal history-english and american
- If you could tell your law school self one thing, what would it be?
 - You're not going to believe where this education takes you
