MONDAY MORNING
Update

Sponsored by:
Notre Dame Law School
Student Bar Association

This Week @ NDLS

The banner features a dark blue background with the words 'MONDAY MORNING' in large, white, sans-serif capital letters. Below this, the word 'Update' is written in a white, cursive script font, followed by a small green shamrock. To the right of the text, it says 'Sponsored by: Notre Dame Law School Student Bar Association'. Below the text is a circular logo for the Notre Dame Law School Student Bar Association, which includes a building illustration and the text 'NOTRE DAME LAW SCHOOL' and 'STUDENT BAR ASSOCIATION'. At the bottom of the banner, the text 'This Week @ NDLS' is written in a large, bold, gold sans-serif font.

Monday - November 4

- Monday Morning Message from President Patel:

- When I ran for President, I promised I would change the coffee in the Commons. The best way for our new coffee to be selected is not through a small group with a closed-door process, but through you all - our faculty, staff, and students. So this Friday from 10am-1pm, a coffee taste test will be set up adjacent to the Crossings Cafe. We will have six options for everyone to try and then rate. With great power comes great responsibility - coffee is the most-purchased item in the Law School, so sip wisely, future generations of faculty and law students are depending on you!

• Externship Q&A Session:

- This is your last chance to learn about Spring 2020 externship programs before the application deadline. Professor Jones will field questions about all externship programs and policies. Feel free to join in progress.
- Pizza will be served.
- 12:45pm-1:45pm, 3140 Eck

• Lunch Conversation with Prof. Paolo Carrozza:

- Please join Prof. Paolo Carrozza for an informal lunch talk about his work as a member of the US State Department's Commission on Unalienable Rights.
- Earlier this year, US Secretary of State Michael Pompeo named Prof. Carrozza to the newly formed Commission on Unalienable Rights, along with ten other academics, philosophers, and activists. The Commission "will provide the Secretary with advice on human rights grounded in our nation's founding principles and the principles of the 1948 Universal Declaration of Human Rights."
- Lunch will be provided.
- Co-sponsored by the International Law Society
- 12:30pm, 1130 Eck Hall

• Commons Menu Specials:

- Turkey & Cheddar on Pretzel Roll
- BBQ Pulled Pork
- Gumbo or Fire Roasted Vegetable

• SBA Store Hours: 11:30-3:30

• Mass @ 5:15pm

Tuesday - November 5

• Morning Prayer with CLS

- Coffee and bagels provided
- 8:00am, Eck Commons

• Father Mike Informational Meeting:

- Ever heard of the Father Mike variety show? Want to learn more about it? Interested in performing? Want to be my stage crew? Now's your chance! There will be an informational meeting for all those interested in participating in the Father Mike Show. This includes anyone who is interested in serving on the Show committee AND/OR potential performers! We will briefly go over what the show is, what the committee does, and what is required to perform.
- 1:00pm, 1140 Eck

• Deadline for Spring 2020 Externship Applications:

- Application deadline for Spring 2020 South Bend-area externships. Learn more at: law.nd.edu/for-current-students, under Experiential Learning.
- 11:59pm

• EBB Training Session (Mac users):

- This is a required session for 1Ls using a Mac to take exams this semester. Please bring your laptop. Any upper-level students who want an EBB refresher are welcome to attend as well.
- 11:00am, McCartan Courtroom

• Interview Workshop #1:

- Ed will discuss the nuances of interviewing.

- Please RSVP via IrishLink. Breakfast will be available to those who register by 3pm 11/4.
- 8:00am, 2108 Eck
- New York Bar Exam Application:
 - This session will provide an overview of the New York bar application process, character & fitness investigation and admission requirements. New York's rules differ significantly from other jurisdictions, so come hear what you need to know!
 - Please RSVP via IrishLink. Lunch will be available to those who register by 9am 11/5.
 - 12:30pm, 3140 Eck
- My 1L Summer Experience: A Student Panel:
 - A group of 2L & 3L students will discuss what their 1L summer experience looked like. The panelists are Jim Scales, Rebecca Pronesti, Mikhael Bunda & Rachel Palermo.
 - Please RSVP via IrishLink. Lunch will be available to those who register by 9am 11/5.

Legal Writing Center

The Legal Writing Center is dedicated to helping law students become better writers. Our tutors accomplish this goal by listening attentively in writing conferences, reading papers carefully, and asking questions that can help writers better express their ideas and construct their arguments. Legal Writing Center tutors work with writers during all stages of the writing process—from understanding an assignment, to developing a thesis, to organizing the paper, to revising the final product. Note: 1Ls may not use the Legal Writing Center during the fall semester. Make an appointment here or drop into room 2145 during the following hours:

Notice for student visitors to Sinai Synagogue

The Sinai Synagogue of South Bend often hosts Notre Dame student visitors during worship services to learn about Judaism either as a class assignment or otherwise. Rabbi Friedland has informed the University that their visitor policy has changed this year and the University has asked us to pass on the new policy as needed to students. Please stop by to see Christine Holst in Student Services in Eck 1100 for more information if you plan to attend services at Sinai Synagogue this year.

Mock Trial Coaches Wanted

John Adams High School is looking for up to five volunteer coaches for its mock trial program: two pairs of coaches for two freshman mock trial teams and one coach to help the head coach of a freshman team. Practices are Monday and Wednesday evenings from 7:00 p.m. to 8:15, beginning October 7 and running through Feb. 22, which is our regional competition. (The state competition is March 6-8; freshman teams qualify occasionally.) Please contact Amy Elliott at aelliott@sbcsc.k12.in.us or 574.261.1212 if you are interested in helping out. We generally have ten to twelve teams and a great group of attorney-coaches!

A Little Lagniappe

Hello NDLS!

Another week has come and gone here at NDLS--I hope everyone has adjusted back to the school schedule after Fall Break! I, for one, really have not and I am LIVING for Thanksgiving Break!

But this weekend was a great recharging for me because the Manning family made the trip up North to visit me! How sweet are they?! I mean who doesn't love mom's home-cooking straight from the Bayou State?

I'm sure you're wondering "Marge, when your family comes in town what do y'all do for fun?" Well, to let you in on a secret, the Manning family tradition is to spend Friday night at a little dining establishment in downtown South Bend known as Fiddler's Hearth.

If you haven't been yet, what are you doing? Live music, fish n' chips wrapped in newspaper, and one of the best Irish coffees I've ever had--what more do you need to know?! Many a time have one of my family members been called on stage to perform an Irish jig or take the mic to sing a song--fond memories have been made and many a salmon dip consumed!

So, yes, all of the Mannings (minus my brother who was off managing a band somewhere) held court on Friday night at our usual table right next to the band and we had a blast! If anyone wants to get in on this little tradition, feel free to find me in the Commons--I am happy to introduce any new soul to the wonders of The Hearth.

Looking ahead to the rest of this week, the most notable thing on my calendar is the MPRE on Saturday. For all of those taking the exam--We got this! St. Thomas More and Notre Dame, Our Mother, Pray for us!

That's all for this week!

Stay Golden, NDLS

Marge

SPORT REPORT

Another week in college football with a little movement seen in the most recent polls. Here are a few highlights!

- Most notably, SMU is no longer undefeated. The Stangs lost to Memphis 54-48. One less undefeated team makes me sleep a little easier at night!
- Baylor, on the other hand, is standing strong with an 8-0 season after beating West Virginia 17-14. Never have I ever paid attention to a Thursday night college football game, but I've got my eyes on you, Baylor.
- Auburn won out against Ole Miss 14-20. Not really surprised considering the Rebels, bears, land sharks, whatever of Ole Miss are 3-6.
- Georgia over Florida 24-17. Amway Coaches has Georgia up one to number 6. I'm just sitting here praying they don't find their way up any higher!
- In non-score related news, Florida State kicked Coach Willie Taggart to the curb. This leaves FSU in a pretty interesting spot for the rest of the season!
- And there were the Irish. In classic Irish fashion, we get a 21-20 victory over Virginia Tech. Was it just me or was that first half kinda slow? My sister and I, of course, snagged some shamrock-shaped pretzels before leaving after halftime and THAT'S when the game became exciting. Classic. We're down a little bit in the polls now, but I'm still cheering hard for the Irish!
- Last but not least, LSU had a bye this week. What does this mean? We are in preparation for Bama on Saturday. Start praying now everyone that the Tigers and I make it through this game--I've never been so nervous in my life. Look for me decked out in purple and gold all week long and if you say "Roll Tide" to me you will be met with a resounding "TIGER BAIT!"

So many teams, so little writing space--that's all for this week! Want your team to be highlighted? Got a few things to say about this weekends game schedule? EMAIL IT TO ME! (otherwise you'll get to read sports reported by me, a passionate but uneducated fan, all year long :))

Go Irish and ALWAYS GEAUX TIGERS!

PROFESSOR SPOTLIGHT

This week's professor is Christian Buset. According to Professor Buset, it's all about the Ewe and he is all about the history of the British Empire--read below to find out more! Thank you Professor Buset for participating in our spotlight!

- Undergraduate/Law School:
 - Princeton (AB), Yale (JD, PhD in history)

- Legal work prior to joining the faculty:
 - Clerked for Judge José Cabranes (2nd Circuit)
- Classes you teach/have taught or areas of study you are particularly interested in:
 - Civ pro, plus two new classes next semester: “History of the Common Law” and a seminar on “The Rule of Law.” (N.B.: Dean Cole listed legal history as one of his three favorite classes in law school when he did this professor spotlight. Benefit from his wisdom.
- What is your favorite hobby outside of the law school?
 - Playing with my seven-month-old son.
- Favorite college sports team?
 - ND, of course. If Princeton makes it to the NCAA tournament, I’ll pick them to go inappropriately far.
- Best place to grab a beer in South Bend? Favorite restaurant?
 - It’s all about the Ewe.
- If you could tell your law school self one thing, what would it be?
 - Don’t be so intimidated by office hours.

- Any current research you are conducting or projects you are working on:
 - My research focuses on legal history, particularly in the British Empire. I have a contract with Yale University Press to write a book explaining why Britain did not transplant English law to all of its colonies. The answer will shed new light on several topics, including law and economic development; the history of humanitarianism and human rights; and how the Founding generation thought about the common law. I’m also wrapping up articles about the histories of commercial arbitration and the idea of the rule of law. Finally, I’m working with a coauthor to publish a newly discovered manuscript report of Entick v. Carrington (1765), which the Supreme Court has described as the key to understanding the original meaning of the Fourth Amendment.

1L OF THE WEEK

This week's 1L of the Week is Christian Palacios! He paints, he makes dad jokes, and he's planning on spending his Winter Break in a blanket burrito! Thanks for answering my questions, Christian!

1. Hometown?

A. Chicago #WestSideBestSide

2. Undergrad?

A. The University of Chicago (proud our D3 status! the football team wins a game once every decade or so #GoMaroons)

3. What did you do this summer before coming to law school?

A. I worked at a law firm doing corporate immigration work. It was fun and there was one of those fancy coffee machine touch screen apparatuses on my floor #perks.

4. What are you looking forward to most this semester?

A. Winter break! I'm going to wrap myself in blankets and do my best tamale impression.

5. When not at the law school, what do you do for fun?

A. I paint. Usually it's pictures of fictional characters I find interesting.

6. Where is your favorite place to study on campus?

A. My apartment. I like slipping into my jam jams and listening to Richard Freer's lectures on Civil Procedure at full blast. My neighbor and I don't have the best relationship.

7. If you could be any law school professor, who would you be and why?

A. Definitely Mark McKenna. The man's suit and tie pairings are flawless, just like his humor.

8. What one merchandise item do you want to see in the SBA store?

A. A NDLS mug or thermos.

9. When you go to Garbanzo, do you get a pita, a salad, a bowl, or a burrito?

A. Never have I ever been to Garbanzo but I'm a fan of the bean, so I'll have to check it out. It's the second best bean after the one in Millennium Park, Chicago.

10. White Claw or Truly?

A. Ain't no laws when ya drinkin the claws!

11. 2:30pm kickoffs or 7:30pm kickoffs?

A. Erm... 2:30?

12. Snapchat stories or Instagram Stories?

A. I have it on good authority that Snapchat has become a "finsta" (or fake insta...) but I do like making my Snap bitmoji do things. It looks just like me!

13. Personal Jurisdiction or Subject Matter Jurisdiction?

A. Venue for 300 please.

14. Anything else you'd like to tell your fans?

A. Usually I don't talk to my fans on a regular basis. My air conditioner on the other hand knows most details about my personal life. #DadJokeCringe

15. Who should be next week's 1L of the week?

A. Lex Miller
