Legal Writing Center

The Legal Writing Center is dedicated to helping law students become better writers. Our tutors accomplish this goal by listening attentively in writing conferences, reading papers carefully, and asking questions that can help writers better express their ideas and construct their arguments. Legal Writing Center tutors work with writers during all stages of the writing process—from understanding an assignment, to developing a thesis, to organizing the paper, to revising the final product. Note: 1Ls may not use the Legal Writing Center during the fall semester. Make an appointment here or drop into room 2145 during the following hours:

Notice for student visitors to Sinai Synagogue

The Sinai Synagogue of South Bend often hosts Notre Dame student visitors during worship services to learn about Judaism either as a class assignment or otherwise. Rabbi Friedland has informed the University that their visitor policy has changed this year and the University has asked us to pass on the new policy as needed to students. Please stop by to see Christine Holst in Student Services in Eck 1100 for more information if you plan to attend services at Sinai Synagogue this year.

Mock Trial Coaches Wanted

John Adams High School is looking for up to five volunteer coaches for its mock trial program: two pairs of coaches for two freshman mock trial teams and one coach to help the head coach of a freshman team. Practices are Monday and Wednesday evenings from 7:00 p.m. to 8:15, beginning October 7 and running through Feb. 22, which is our regional competition. (The state competition is March 6-8; freshman teams qualify occasionally.) Please contact Amy Elliott at aelliott@sbcsc.k12.in.us or 574.261.1212 if you are interested in helping out. We generally have ten to twelve teams and a great group of attorney-coaches!

A Little Lagniappe

Hello NDLS!

For all those readers who took the MPRE Saturday morning--we did it! Scores might not be out for another 5 weeks, but, hey, we showed up and took the test. That counts for something! I, along with what seemed like the rest of the 3L class, travelled to Kalamazoo for my testing location. Most memorable moment of my trip? The test administrator asking me why I drove all the way from Louisiana to take the MPRE at Western.....I really had no response to that, so I just smiled and explained that I moved to Indiana.

But, tbh, I was far more nervous on Saturday for another reason--LSU's match-up against Alabama! It was #2 vs. #3, but the game of the century nonetheless. Heck, even the President of the United States was there!

So, as soon as I checked off the MPRE my focus immediately switched to the game. from kick-off at 3:30 till the 4th Quarter clock hit 0:00 I sat raptured by the Tigers. Like Thaddeus Moss's catch at the 1, I was on my toes the entire game.

But from pass to run, the Tigers were on point. Joe Burrow, we do not deserve you.

Finally, after 8 years, we finally saw the reign of Bama fall as the Tigers took down the Tide 46-41. Yes, I cried as the entire Tiger sideline took the field. I cried even more when Coach O gave his post-game report.

What a day to be a Tiger fan. Really, what a great day for all of us wishing for Saban's precious Tide to fall. Really don't know how a Saturday can be any better than that!

That's all for this week!

Stay Golden, NDLS

Marge

SPORT REPORT

If you've made it to this point in my email, then you already know my sentiments about college football this weekend (Geaux Tigers). But for some other notable highlights from the weekend, read more below!

- The Terrapins couldn't hold back the Buckeyes as Ohio state trounced Maryland 73-14.
- GOOOOOO GOPHERS! What a win by Minnesota over Penn State 31-26. And how bout that field storming? What a celebration!
- Oklahoma narrowly defeated Iowa State 42-41. With 20 point scored in the 4th alone, it looked like State was going to take it, but lucky for the Sooners, Oklahoma held 'em!
- How about those 3 overtimes down in Texas. The Bears and the Frogs fought it out but ultimately, Baylor took home the victory over TCU, 29-23 keeping their undefeated streak alive.
- In other news across Texas, UT narrowly defeated Kansas State after being down 14-7 in the first half.
- Wisconsin defeated the Hawkeyes 24-22. Keeping it a little close there, Badgers!
- Welcome to Bowl eligibility, Illinois! It came down to the last minute, but U of I defeated Michigan State 37-34. Congrats to the Illini!
- Finally, the Irish took down the Blue Devils of Duke 38-7! I wasn't able to watch any of the game (@ACC Network...) but from those who could, the reports were good! Great job, Irish!

So many teams, so little writing space--that's all for this week! Want your team to be highlighted? Got a few things to say about this weekends game schedule? EMAIL IT TO ME! (otherwise you'll get to read sports reported by me, a passionate but uneducated fan, all year long :))

Go Irish and ALWAYS GEAUX TIGERS!

PROFESSOR SPOTLIGHT

This week's professor is Lloyd Mayer. He loves to play video games, cheers for Stanford, and is happy to discuss any law relating to non-profits! Thank you Professor Mayer for participating in our spotlight!

- Undergraduate/Law School:
 - Stanford
 - Yale
- Legal work prior to joining faculty:
 - Two-year federal district court clerkship then nine years at a medium-sized DC law firm that specializes in tax law (Caplin & Drysdale).
- Classes you teach/etc.:
 - I teach Election Law, Not-for-Profit Organizations, Professional Responsibility, and Taxation of Business Enterprises; my research focus and main area of interest is any and all laws specifically relating to nonprofit organizations.
- Any current research:
 - Whether and how the Supreme Court's Bob Jones University case should apply to churches; whether and how the government should regulate charitable crowdfunding.
- What is your favorite hobby:
 - Playing video games, although I have trouble finding time to do so (it may have something to do with the seven kids).

- Favorite college sports team:

- When I interviewed at Notre Dame, the students I met with asked if I would be rooting for ND or Stanford (my alma mater) at the football game the next weekend; after hedging a bit, I said I had to choose Stanford.
- Best place to grab a beer in South Bend? Favorite restaurant?:
 - I am not much of a beer drinker, but when I want one anyplace serving Sam Adams is good for me.
- If you could tell your law school self one thing, what would it be?:
 - Relax. There are a lot of great legal jobs out there, and no one looks at your grades after your first (non-clerkship) job anyway. Well, unless you want to be a professor, which was definitely not on my radar screen when I was in law school.
