Notice for student visitors to Sinai Synagogue

The Sinai Synagogue of South Bend often hosts Notre Dame student visitors during worship services to learn about Judaism either as a class assignment or otherwise. Rabbi Friedland has informed the University that their visitor policy has changed this year and the University has asked us to pass on the new policy as needed to students. Please stop by to see Christine Holst in Student Services in Eck 1100 for more information if you plan to attend services at Sinai Synagogue this year.

Mock Trial Coaches Wanted

John Adams High School is looking for up to five volunteer coaches for its mock trial program: two pairs of coaches for two freshman mock trial teams and one coach to help the head coach of a freshman team. Practices are Monday and Wednesday evenings from 7:00 p.m. to 8:15, beginning October 7 and running through Feb. 22, which is our regional competition. (The state competition is March 6-8; freshman teams qualify occasionally.) Please contact Amy Elliott at aelliott@sbcsc.k12.in.us or 574.261.1212 if you are interested in helping out. We generally have ten to twelve teams and a great group of attorney-coaches!

A Little Lagniappe

Hello NDLS!

Well, I finally did it. I finally allowed myself to be hoisted into the sky to celebrate an Irish touchdown. I, Marge Manning, participated in the old student section tradition of performing touchdown pushups.

Why have I waited until this year to partake in this tradition, you ask? For someone who is 5'10", I prefer my feet to remain planted on my stadium seat--being thrown in the air isn't really my thing.

But after 21 pushups and several pictures and videos later, I had completed my initiation into Notre Dame just in time for me to finish my last football season! If you haven't done a round of pushups as the Irish run up the score, I 10/10 recommend!

Of course, I fully intend to attend the BC game. Don't want to miss my last game as a student, or the chance to storm the field, (or the chance to join in the marshmallow fight!). I just hope we luck out with the same weather we had last Saturday. With the sunshine and a nice souvenir cup full of hot chocolate I think we'll all be ready to cheer on our Irish!

That's all for this week!

Stay Golden, NDLS

Marge

SPORT REPORT

It's time once again to check in with the Nation's top teams. As bowl season draws closer, speculations are forming as to who will face off against who in this year's bowl line-up. But until then, here are some highlights from this past weekend!

- LSU held on to their undefeated stance and #1 ranking after defeating Ole Miss 58-37. I was hoping our defense would hold a little better than it did, but a win is a win!
- Down goes another undefeated team. Oklahoma defeated the Baylor Bears 34-31. All I can say is, Boomer Sooner!
- Rutgers tried putting up 21 points against the Ohio State, but the Buckeyes kept rolling to a 56-21 victory.
- Georgia pretty much secured their spot in the SEC Championship for the West with a 21-14 win over Auburn.
- Prayers for Alabama quarterback, Tua Tagliovia, who suffered a season-ending hip injury in the Tide's game against Mississippi State on Saturday. Bama continued on with a 38-7 win over State.
- Well, the celebrations for the Gophers after last week's win over Penn State were cut a little short on Saturday as the Hawkeyes took down Minnesota 23-19.
- Last but not least, how about that ND game against Navy?! The weather was beautiful and the score even more so--52-20! It was a great day to be cheering for the Irish!

So many teams, so little writing space--that's all for this week! Want your team to be highlighted? Got a few things to say about this weekends game schedule? EMAIL IT TO ME! (otherwise you'll get to read sports reported by me, a passionate but uneducated fan, all year long :))

Go Irish and ALWAYS GEAUX TIGERS!

PROFESSOR SPOTLIGHT

This week's professor is Bruce Huber. He is your go-to for all things Energy Law, prefers SB Brew Works over the Ewe, AND shares our strong dislike for USC. Thank you Professor Huber for participating in our spotlight!

- Undergraduate/Law School
 - I went to Stanford and then across the bay to arch-rival Berkeley for law school. We can all agree to hate USC.
- Legal work prior to joining the faculty
 - I'm sorry, what?
 - Ok, if you must know, I worked at Cooley for a short while, then I was a college minister for four years before going back to get my PhD and start down the academic path. Not typical and not necessarily recommended, but it worked out for me.
- Classes you teach/have taught or areas of study you are particularly interested in:
 - Property, Natural Resources, Energy Law, Water Law, Environmental Law
- Any current research you are conducting or projects you are working on:
 - Just wrapped up a paper called "Negative Value Property." Coming soon to airport bookstores.

- What is your favorite hobby outside of the law school?
 - Is parenting a hobby? How about home maintenance? If I had time, I'd do more hiking/backpacking, play more music, and read more [non-legal] books.
- Favorite college sports team?
 - Taking the Fifth here.
- Best place to grab a beer in South Bend? Favorite restaurant?
 - SB Brew Werks. As for a restaurant, hmm ... liking The Lauber at the moment.
- If you could tell your law school self one thing, what would it be?
 - Yes this girl is going to end up marrying you, so now do the reading because YOU WILL BE TEACHING THIS STUFF IN LIKE A DECADE.

1L OF THE WEEK

This week's 1L of the Week is Brendan Besh! I just HAD to spotlight my fellow Louisianan because what's more fun than chatting with someone about your home state?! Thank you, Brendan, for answering all my hard-hitting questions!

A. Notre Dame

3. What did you do this summer before coming to law school?

A. I worked here at Notre Dame as an intern until late this summer.

4. What are you looking forward to most this semester?

A. Not disappointing my friends and family by eventually learning how to do law school.

When you figure this out, please, let me know.

A. Listen to audiobooks, cook meals that take up way too much time, or watching movies.

Ahhhhh procrasticooking. My favorite.

6. Where is your favorite place to study on campus?

A. I really like the law library (I used to get kicked out of it when I studied there as an undergrad), but I also like studying at Geddes Hall.

7. If you could be one kind of cereal, what would you be and why?

A. Cheerios because I'm very loyal but not that interesting of a person.

This takes excellent self-awareness and I applaud you.

8. It's coming down to the wire for finals and you only have time to study one subject, which one is it?!

I made notecards for these terms specifically complete with the phonetic pronunciation of the words because at the time my Southern-self couldn't pronounce them.

9. What is your favorite home-cooked, Louisiana dish?
