General Announcements

Student Job Opportunity w/ND Listens!

Run through the office of University Relations, ND Listens is a call center dedicated to engaging and stewarding alumni, parents, and friends of the University. We make phone calls, staff events, write letters, create videos, and do a number of other activities to listen to, learn about, and love the Notre Dame community. We are looking for ND Law students to join our team and work specifically with our ND Law alumni community.

Timing: 6 hours/week with shifts available Sunday afternoons 3:15-5:15pm & 5:15-7:15pm, Monday-Thursday 5:30-7:30pm & 7:30-9:30pm, Friday 11am-1pm & 1-3pm. Other shift times may be available this semester as well. As a law student we understand your time constraints, so there will be flexibility with the weekly hour requirements.

Pay: $10.15/hour

Minimum qualifications: You must feel comfortable speaking on the phone and engaging with alumni and benefactors. Please be reliable and have good time management skills.

If you are interested in applying, please fill out this application by January 24th. If you have any questions, please reach out to ksmith61@nd.edu.

Legal Writing Center

The Legal Writing Center is dedicated to helping law students become better writers. Our tutors accomplish this goal by listening attentively in writing conferences, reading papers carefully, and asking questions that can help writers better express their ideas and construct their arguments. Legal Writing Center tutors work with writers during all stages of the writing process—from understanding an assignment, to developing a thesis, to organizing the paper, to revising the final product. Note: 1Ls may not use the Legal Writing Center during the fall semester. Make an appointment here or drop into room 2145 during the following hours:

- Jack
 - Tuesday: 11-1:30

- Thursday: 1-3:30
- Whitney
 - Monday: 11-1
 - Wednesday: 11-2
- Marlee
 - Tuesday: 2-5
 - Wednesday: 3:30-5:30

Notice for student visitors to Sinai Synagogue

The Sinai Synagogue of South Bend often hosts Notre Dame student visitors during worship services to learn about Judaism either as a class assignment or otherwise. Rabbi Friedland has informed the University that their visitor policy has changed this year and the University has asked us to pass on the new policy as needed to students. Please stop by to see Christine Holst in Student Services in Eck 1100 for more information if you plan to attend services at Sinai Synagogue this year.

IDEA Center Student Connections

Please consider this amazing opportunity to utilize your skills or expertise to help others push their ideas forward. If you are interested in working with other students, alumni and community members on their ventures, please fill out this form.

A Little Lagniappe

Hello NDLS!

I hope you all had a great week last week and that you capped it off with a solid Super Bowl Sunday. Yes, I watched the game on my couch with a healthy serving of fried rice and Erie Doctrine review (Thank you Professor AJ Bellia. It was a nice accompaniment to my viewing.)

However, I did not watch the game for the sport. While I do love a good football game as much as the next person, if the Saints or a Manning aren't playing, I'm watching for the commercials and the halftime show! So if you're looking for commentary on the game, look elsewhere. Want a review of this year's commercials and show? I'm your gal!

Most Funny Ads:

I thought the ad where Jonah Hill stood Martin Scorsese up at the party was hilarious. Do I remember who the ad was for? No, but did I laugh at the thought of Scorsese alone at the party? Oh yeah. I also loved the Cheetos popcorn ad. We are all quite familiar with the Cheeto fingers, but have you ever played "Can't Touch this" in your head while you ate them? You will now.

Most Clever Ads:

I thought Pepsi's commercial where they started off with a Coke can that eventually turned black for Pepsi's Zero Sugar drink was clever. Mainly because the entire time the Stones's "Paint it, Black" was the song of choice for the entire ad. Definitely a clever play on message.

Also thought Little Caesar's "Greatest thing since sliced bread" commercial was great. Hello Rain Wilson as leader of the Sliced Bread Corporation! As someone who loves to use the phrase, Little Caesar's got to me with that commercial...though I still think their pizza is trash.

Weirdest Ad:

Pretzel Poptarts? I thought this was weird solely because there is no way ANYONE asked for a pretzel pop tart. I am skeptical about this product and PopTart's venture into this territory.

Most Heartwarming Ad:

You all know it--Google's "Remember" ad. It was sweet, it was touching, it was wholesome. Excellent job Google plugging that ad into one of the most watched sports games of the year. We will all remember it!

Favorite Ad:

Bill Murray and Puxatawny Phil in the Jeep ad. Hands down the best one of the whole night. From driving with the top off the car to playing Whack-A-Mole with the groundhog, this ad just took the cake. As a Jeep driver myself, well done, Jeep!

And of course, I would be falling down on my job if I didn't provide some thoughts about this year's halftime show. What an energetic performance! The colors, the songs, and, of course, the performers were just all top notch. Who doesn't love some "Hips Don't Lie" and "Jenny from the Block"?! I also REALLY want J.Lo's feathered wrap--what a fashion statement (literally bc it was a flag)!

That's all I have for this week!

Until next time!

Stay Golden, NDLS

SPORT REPORT

CALLING ALL SPORTS FANATICS!

This semester I am looking for some crowd participation in our sports column. Basketball season is here and I cannot possibly hit all the highlights on my own--I'm just one fan! If anyone is interested in writing a weekly sport report covering some of your favorite teams and sports moments from the previous week, shoot me an email! Can be one person or a team of many--I just need some help! Let me know if you're interested!

PROFESSOR SPOTLIGHT

No Professor Spotlight this week. Why? Well, I opened my MMU inbox, anxious to learn who my next spotlight would be, but sadly the inbox was empty!

Sigh

Maybe we'll have a new professor spotlight next week...but only if one emails me :(

1L OF THE WEEK
