A Little Lagniappe

Hello NDLS,

I hope you all had a blessed and restful Easter Weekend! I, myself, have enjoyed MANY a Reese's Peanut Butter Egg....heck yeah Lent is over!

Easter was definitely a little different this year at my house, to say the least. For one there's the whole virus thing, but on top of that my family had the pleasure of watching our livestream Easter Sunday mass while hunkered down under pillows as a tornado ripped through our town.

We. Cannot. Catch. A. Break!

Fortunately, I'm here to report, our town of Monroe, LA is shaken and a little trampled, but we emerged from our shelters to a perfectly sunny Easter afternoon. All I can say is wow, that was quite literally a whirlwind of a morning!

Now, we get ready to tackle another week of classes. The good news is that we only have about a month of school left! We can do this, y'all! The end is so near!

Keep moving forward and keep up the good work!

Until next time!

Stay Golden, NDLS

Stay Connected...Spiritually!

During this difficult and uncertain time, let us answer Father Jenkins' call and continue "to strengthen one another by mutual support and prayer."

I have included in this section links to livestreams of different masses and prayer services for you to tune in! These are just a few I've been using and some my family members suggested.

If there's a particular service or link you'd like to share, do not hesitate to send it to mondaymorningupdate@gmail.com!

Lend a Helping Hand

As students of NDLS we are called to be "a different kind of lawyer." One of the ways we live up to this profession is by service to our communities. What better time to help than now?!

Each week, I will include a compilation of links to charities across the country submitted by YOU the students! Send me links to get our efforts rolling! We're all sitting around on our phones all day any way (sorry professors!)--we might as well make ourselves useful!

Meals on Wheels and No Kid Hungry

"As you're well aware, these social distancing policies are taxing on all of us. But this is compounded for elderly people who may find it difficult to feed themselves, and low-income children who had been relying on school to provide one if not two meals a day. There are innumerable ways we, as Americans, can come together and look out for one another over the coming months as COVID-19 continues to upend our lives. These two giving options provide a concrete and meaningful way for those interested to contribute to the effort of fighting the virus and the harm it is causing in everyday people's lives. I know it is hard for us, as law students, to do anything meaningful since we are stuck at home, apart, and buried under the work of law school, so I thought providing an avenue to contribute would be in the spirit of the whole morale-boosting effort which is the MMU."--3L, Sawyer White

US Bartenders' Guild Emergency Grant Assistance Program

"Right now, bartenders can apply for grants in order to help make up for the shortfall due to them being laid off last week with restaurants closing. There is a link on the page to donate as well as a FAQ if anyone knows anyone who could benefit from it. Bartenders also don't need to be members of the guild to apply for this benefit. Thanks!"--2L, Cat Burns

Food Bank of Northern Indiana

The Food Bank of Northern Indiana and Real Services, a meal and grocery delivery service for those in need in South Bend, are in need of help with grocery deliveries and prepared meals to members of our community. If you would like more information on how to help these charities, please reach out to Professor Jim Farrington at jfarring@nd.edu.

Get Us PPE

Get Us PPE is an organization headed by healthcare professionals geared towards getting PPE (personal protection equipment such as masks, gloves, and gowns) to healthcare workers at the frontline of the coronavirus epidemic here in the United States. Unfortunately, there is currently a massive shortage of PPE. Nurses and doctors have already begun contracting the virus; some of whom have died as a result. Our healthcare workers are already under enormous strain as some hospitals are overflowing with COVID-19 cases. They are risking their lives everyday to try and help those already infected and to prevent further spread; they should be as safe as we can make them. Donations will help in that effort. Get Us PPE is currently accepting cash donations as well as donations of actual PPE. Please give what you can.

Peggs needs your help!

Pegg's Restaurant in downtown South Bend is selling gift cards online (<https://www.toasttab.com/peggs-restaurant/giftcards>) and 100% of the proceeds are going to pay their staff!

This photo can definitely be "fun" as it will be for our class to view, but I will be the ultimate arbitrator of appropriateness, so please make my job easier. Also, if you have a suggestion for song I can play during the slideshow, I would love that as well."--Elizabeth

3L 50 Day Fiesta Toast

Last week we celebrated our 50 Day Fiesta to commemorate our final 50 days at NDLS. Since, we couldn't all gather together at Salsas for our class toast, 3L Rep, Elizabeth Lombard, was kind enough to rally us to a Zoom toast! Below is Elizabeth's toast to the 3L class presented during our Zoom hangout in case you missed it! Thanks Elizabeth!

"Hi everyone! Thanks for joining for a class toast as part of our fifty-day fiesta. Today marks 50 days until our "graduation."

Not being around each other for these last two weeks and not being able to spend our last 50 days together as 3Ls is definitely disappointing, saddening, and not ever what we could have imagined. But I hope that does not dim your sense of pride in yourself, your classmates, and all we have accomplished together.

I want to start out by saying congratulations—what an honor it is to be Notre Dame Law School's very first online law school graduating class. A true accomplishment.

But in all serious, I hope you all know how proud I am to consider myself part of the NDLS Class of 2020. We have accomplished so much in our short three years here, even with 50 days to spare. What have we accomplished? We are class built of moot court champions, future federal and state clerks, future JAG officers, ARS/Ras/Tas (who keep the school running!), Published Authors (14 LR; 8 JLEGG, 2 jlepp, 2 jicl, 1 jett = 30 from the journals alone... by my count!), new parents!., new dog parents, newlyweds, husbands and wives to be!, future prosecutors, future Das, future big law attorneys.

From father mikes of the past I know we are full of talented musicians and comedians. From bowling, softball, and flag football I know we are full of stellar athletes (cough cough flag football allstars), We have Corbies/Finnies/CJs regulars, ND football fanatics, and most important, in my book, good friends and good people.

I wish we could all lift our oversized margaritas together at salsas right now, but in lieu of that lift whatever drink you have in front of you and cheers to the Class of 2020 and our last fifty days as 3Ls. I am so happy to call myself your classmate. Sending you love, health, and happiness.

Go Irish!"
