

Notre Dame Law School

NDLScholarship

Monday Morning Update

9-14-2020

MMU: 09/14/20–09/20/20

Student Bar Association

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarship.law.nd.edu/monday_morning_update

Part of the Law Commons

Recommended Citation

Student Bar Association, "MMU: 09/14/20–09/20/20" (2020). Monday Morning Update. 177.
https://scholarship.law.nd.edu/monday_morning_update/177

This Newsletter is brought to you for free and open access by NDLScholarship. It has been accepted for inclusion in Monday Morning Update by an authorized administrator of NDLScholarship. For more information, please contact lawdr@nd.edu.

Fwd: MMU: September 14

1 message

Christine Holst-Haley <cholst@nd.edu>
To: law-allfacstaff-list@nd.edu

Mon, Sep 14, 2020 at 9:15 AM

----- Forwarded message -----

From: Krystal Moczygemba <mondaymorningupdate@gmail.com>

Date: Mon, Sep 14, 2020 at 9:15 AM

Subject: MMU: September 14

To: <law-allstudents-list@nd.edu>

General Announcements and Reminders

Crossings

Crossings is closed until further notice. However, the GrubHub app is a great way to see what's available on campus and order ahead for pickup. Download the app on your phone and select "Notre Dame" in the Campus Dining settings to see the options on campus; several are in easy walking distance of the Law School.

CDO

The CDO is still offering Walk-In Hours Monday through Friday, 12:45-4:45pm. What has changed is that you can't just walk into the CDO, but you can do them via Zoom, by clicking here or by using this URL: <https://notredame.zoom.us/j/95730218995>. The Meeting ID is 957 3021 8995.

As in the past, walk-ins are meant to be 15 minutes or less. If you would like to schedule a longer meeting, you can do so by clicking here, or via IrishLink. Or, you can call Heidi at 574-631-7542.

ABA Mental Health Toolkit

The ABA has a Mental Health Toolkit as a resource for you as a law student in these challenging times. Access it here and in the mental health and wellness section below every week herein out.

SBA Store

Come down to the basement store location to pick up all your NDLS paraphernalia needs. Due to the virus that shall not be named, the store is not accepting cash this semester so please only bring card payment options. Store hours are Monday-Wednesday 11:30-3:30; Thursday 12:00-3:30; and Friday 11:30-2:00.

Monday - September 14

- LexisNexis Office Hours
 - Your Lexis Student Reps, Katie Wallace and Lexi Riccolo, will be there to answer your legal research questions and give you the Lexis Tip of the Week (worth 50 Lexis Reward Points) if you missed it. This week, the first three people to attend will win a $5 Starbucks gift card! Talk about a win-win: get help with research and score some Starbucks!
 - 9:00-10:00am, via Zoom: <https://relx.zoom.us/j/92101035287>
- Resume Workshop 6
 - This will be a working Zoom session limited to a total of 20 students. Be sure to have your current resume handy.
 - 12:30pm, Register via IrishLink. The Zoom link for this session will be emailed to those registered for the session Monday morning.
- PUBLIC INTEREST MONTH: State Prosecution
 - Join the CDO for a panel discussion with three young prosecutors. They will discuss lessons they have learned from their early careers, what they wish they would have known, as well as give advice for those of you that want to follow in their footsteps.
 - 12:30pm, Register via IrishLink.
- IP Lecture Series: Professor Margo Bagley from Emory
 - Professor Margo Bagley from Emory will discuss her great paper 'Ask Me No Questions, the Struggle for Disclosure of Cultural and Genetic Resource Utilization in Design Law' as part of our 2020-2021 IP Lecture Series. Students interested in fashion law, design protection, cultural resources, international intellectual property law, and the intersection of traditional knowledge (part of cultural heritage) and intellectual property law will especially appreciate this lecture. Individually wrapped, pre-packaged chocolate will be available in the South Reading Room to complement virtual attendance at the lecture.
 - 12:30 pm- 1:30 pm, Zoom link: <https://notredame.zoom.us/j/94470522030?pwd=cEU1b1J2M1NXMHd2Wm1BOWVZZkpJUT09> (Password: NDLawIP!)
- ND Supreme Court Review: The Roberts Court in OT 2019
 - The Federalist Society hosts Professors Rick Garnett and Jeff Pojanowski to review the most notable Roberts October Term Court decisions.
 - Chick-fil-A will be served
 - 12:30pm on South Quad (Check-in at the table just outside the north entrance to Biolchini

by the flagpole)

- Mass @ 5:15pm

Tuesday - September 15

- Resume Workshop 7
 - This will be a working Zoom session limited to a total of 20 students. Be sure to have your current resume handy.
 - 8:30am, Register via IrishLink. The Zoom link for this session will be emailed to those registered for the session Tuesday morning.
- PUBLIC INTEREST MONTH: Representing the State
 - Join Tom Fisher, the Indiana Solicitor General as he discusses his philosophy behind representing a sovereign entity as his only client. He will discuss what it means to represent an government entity, as opposed to a person or a corporation, and what goes in his decision making process as a litigator. Mr. Fisher is the veteran of many arguments at the United State Supreme Court and will bring a wealth of knowledge and experience to share with students.
 - 12:30pm, Register via IrishLink.
- LexisNexis Office Hours
 - Your Lexis Student Reps, Allison Lantero and Naomi Price, will be there to answer your legal research questions and give you the Lexis Tip of the Week (worth 50 Lexis Reward Points) if you missed it. This week, the first three people to attend will win a $5 Starbucks gift card! Talk about a win-win: get help with research and score some Starbucks!
 - 5:00-6:00pm, via Zoom: <https://relx.zoom.us/j/92101035287>
- Mass @ 5:15pm

Wednesday - September 16

- Resume Workshop 8
 - This will be a working Zoom session limited to a total of 20 students. Be sure to have your current resume handy.
 - 3:00pm, Register via IrishLink. The Zoom link for this session will be emailed to those registered for the session Wednesday prior to the workshop.
- Global Spotlight Lecture Series, *Finding Fault; Doctrine and Difficult Questions in Law
 - Professor Matt Dyson from the University of Oxford and our London Law Program, with co-presenters Ms. Marta Pantaleon Diaz from the Autonomous University of Madrid and Professor John Murphy from Lancaster University, will present three different perspectives on what fault does and what it is. The discussion will span civil law, in tort, and criminal law and will be comparative, beginning with English law and expanding to the US, Spain, France, and Germany. Professor Christian Burset will moderate. Students interested in the London Law Program are highly encouraged to attend.
 - 12:30-1:30pm, 1310 Biolchini and via Zoom for those who RSVP here.

- Mass @ 5:15pm

Thursday - September 17

- PUBLIC INTEREST MONTH: Guardian Ad Litem/Friend of the Court
 - Stephen Briles, from the Office of the Public Guardian in Cook County will be on-hand to discuss his job speaking for those who can't speak for themselves in the Cook County Courts. This will be an excellent opportunity for students who are interested in working with children and endangered adults to learn about an often overlooked career path.
 - 12:30pm, Register via IrishLink.
- Resume Workshop 9
 - This will be a working Zoom session limited to a total of 20 students. Be sure to have your current resume handy.
 - 12:30pm, Register via IrishLink. The Zoom link for this session will be emailed to those registered for the session Thursday prior to the workshop.
- LexisNexis Office Hours
 - Your Lexis Student Reps, Katie Johns and Emma Murphy, will be there to answer your legal research questions and give you the Lexis Tip of the Week (worth 50 Lexis Reward Points) if you missed it. This week, the first three people to attend will win a $5 Starbucks gift card! Talk about a win-win: get help with research and score some Starbucks!
 - 2:00-3:00, via Zoom: <https://relx.zoom.us/j/92101035287>
- BLSA Career Pathways Series
 - This event is co-sponsored by the CDO and FPAC. The speakers will be Kareem Salem and Alvin Adjei. The speakers will talk about their career paths, imposter syndrome, law school expectations vs. professional realities, entering into the public vs. private section, and networking.
 - Alvin Adjei is a previous Assistant District Attorney for Harris County, Houston, TX and will be celebrating the 2nd year anniversary of opening his own firm in Houston, TX. Kareem Salem is currently serving as the Assistant United States Attorney for the U.S. Attorney's Office in the Southern District of California and teaches as an adjunct professor for the University of San Diego, School of Law.
 - 4:00pm, via Zoom: <https://notredame.zoom.us/j/93046487289#success> (Meeting ID: 930 4648 7289)
- Inventing and "Reinventing" under Patent Law
 - The IP Program is co-hosting this conference with Locke Lord in Chicago. The conference will feature panels on the Hatch-Waxman Act and the nuances of inter partes review and district court litigation. Students interested in patent law, litigation, and the nuances of the pharmaceutical industry will find this event especially interesting.
 - 4:00-6:30pm, live stream in 2108 Eck and via Zoom if you RSVP by filling out this form.
- Mass @ 5:15pm

Friday - September 18

- Discussion on US State Department's Commission on Unalienable Rights
 - The international Human Rights Society (IHRs) will be hosting an event featuring Professor Carozza and Professor Babcock from Cornell law school. They will be discussing and debating about the US State Department's Commission on Unalienable Rights.
 - The event will be offered virtually via zoom and both speakers want to open up the event to include law students from Cornell. We also at the IHRs think that it would be an incredible opportunity for students to interact with each other and have a meaningful and fruitful discussion.
 - 12:30pm, Registration is required and it is on a first-come-first-served basis. The link to register for the webinar is https://notredame.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_Gh-4sn-ISiiVtXvX7rXEBw
- IPLS Fall Speaker Series - Liisa Thomas
 - IPLS will be hosting Liisa Thomas to speak on her work and scholarship in Data Privacy. Liisa is the Leading Partner of the Data Privacy and Security group at Sheppard Mullin and is based in both Chicago and London. Liisa is also an adjunct professor at Northwestern University Law School. Much of her work focuses on global and transnational data privacy matters. Known as one of the leaders in the industry, Liisa has written the "definitive treatise" on data breach and has been recognized by many national publications for her work.
 - 12:30pm, via Zoom: <https://notredame.zoom.us/j/95540423879>
- Mass @ 12:30pm

Saturday - September 19

- The Fighting Irish at home against the South Florida Bulls
 - The quest for an ACC-covid season title continues so support the boys in our communal quest!
 - 2:30pm, Notre Dame Stadium or USA channel

Sunday - September 20

- Mass @ 4:30pm
- Send me content for next week's MMU!
 - Please include the name of the event, any details, date and time, and a zoom link if needed.
 - Please try to have all submissions in by 8:00pm.

Submit content for next week's MMU!

Resources and Updates

Legal Writing Center

The WRITING CENTER schedule is now open for the semester! Make an appointment today: <https://nd.mywconline.com>

The Writing Center offers free, one-on-one consultations for undergraduates, graduate students, postdoctoral fellows, and faculty on any aspect of the writing process. We work with writers at ALL levels from ANY discipline at ANY stage in the writing process.

LOCATIONS and HOURS

- Main Writing Center (203 Coleman-Morse Center)
 - Monday through Thursday, 10:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m.
 - Friday, 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.
 - Sunday, 1:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m.
- Hesburgh Library
 - Sunday through Thursday, 7:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m.

Health & Wellness Information

Wellness in Mind - Need some support? Remember that your Wellness Consultant, Stella Miller, is here for you. Drop her a line at stella.miller@nd.edu or make an appointment at www.calendly.com/stellamiller.

Also, we encourage you to be mindful of the relaxation resources available at the McDonald Center for Student Well-Being. These include yoga, Koru Mindfulness, the Sleep Program, and restorative spaces like the Living Room, Break Room, and Fort. Health support services are always available at University Health Services and the University Counseling Center.

Interested in feeling more mindful, more rested, and less stressed? Registration is open now for McWell's free Koru Mindfulness classes! Koru is an evidence-based mindfulness program developed specifically for college students by experts at Duke University. By joining Koru, you'll commit to four 75-minute sessions that take place once per week for four consecutive weeks and learn a variety of mindfulness skills. It's short and sweet but will leave a lasting impact! Go to the McWell website for details and to sign up!

Check out the ABA Mental Health Toolkit here.

SBA Dropbox

Please submit all of your questions, comments, concerns for the SBA here.

COVID Corner

Reminders of these key COVID protocols for the Law buildings:

More information is on the Law School's website HERE or at here.nd.edu.

- Masks must be worn at all times while studying and in class. You should not remove your mask when studying in Library or elsewhere in the Law School buildings unless you are in a study room by yourself with the door CLOSED. Please also use the provided spray to wipe down your study space when you leave.
- Eating is only permitted in the Commons and South Reading Room. You cannot eat in the classrooms or Library study spaces. You may remove your mask only during the time in which you are actively eating. Please be aware of the needs of your classmates and do not use these spaces as study spaces if other students are waiting for a spot to eat their lunch.

- All in-person meetings with faculty and staff must be scheduled. Your professors will send you information about how to schedule appointments with them. You can schedule appointments with staff through the links below:
- - CDO: through IrishLink
 - Student Services (Christine Holst-Haley): <https://calendly.com/ndls-cholst>
 - IT Support (Eric McCartney): <https://calendly.com/emccartn>
 - Wellness Consultant (Stella Miller): <https://calendly.com/stellamiller>
 - Registrar (Jenny Fox): No in-person meetings, email Jenny at jenniferfox@nd.edu with questions or to set up a phone or Zoom call.

A Message From the Editor ~Secretary~

Good Morning NDLS! (Howdy!)

It was real. College football actually came back. I mean I've been excited for this, but don't know if I actually believed that it was going to happen for real. Technically, it's been no longer and we've yet missed no portion of a season, but it feels like absolute ages since it's been the jolly good SZN. And how exciting that we started it off with a Fighting Irish victory over the Duke Blue Devils!! ACC title here we come!!

For those who might not know or understand, Notre Dame Football historically for 133 years has not been a member of a conference (I single out Notre Dame Football because all other sports are part of the ACC...except Hockey, which is the Big 10), but with the arrival of Miss Rona and predominantly conference-only schedules in college football, the ACC logo paints the field in Notre Dame Stadium and the Fighting Irish have a shot at a conference title. And y'all I cannot stress enough how badly I want and how insufferable I will become if we achieved such a title.

For those of you who don't know, or haven't been able to guess from the 'y'all' that inevitably shows up every week in this thing, I am from Texas. Even more than that, I attended the rightful state university as the Loudest and Proudest member of the Fightin' Texas Aggie Class of 2018 (Whoop!). This means I am a faithful fan to the Ags and notoriously suffer from the Stockholm Syndrome-PTSD-esque relationship with the boyz. I relentlessly believe every year that we are going to the Ship, and I invariably watch every year as we seemingly sink our own ship. It tares me up. It's hard to be attached in such a toxic fandom so deep. I mean I know we set ourselves up for failure—who gives their new coach (all hail Jimbo) a blank National Championship trophy? Masochists. That's who. But make no mistake, this is our year for sure.

So when I attend a school that has a chance at a conference title, by default beating out Clemson (who A&M was cheated out of a W two years ago), I am all in. (You should have seen me 1L year when we went to the playoffs—I smack talked for the first time in my life, and obviously that was not a good idea, but alas I learn no lessons when it comes to the potential to college football victory.). Hand-on-the-Bible confession, I'd cheer for A&M over ND, but since we are unlikely to play each other any time soon, I don't have to choose and can unabashedly cheer for both with equal vigor each week. And that, my friends, is probably the first real break I've ever had as a college football fan.

Go Irish! (and Thanks and Gig'em!)

Krystal

1L OF THE WEEK

This week's 1L of the Week is Alexa Schykerynec. She is charming and good heart. Buy her a coffee and brighten your day.

Q: Where is your hometown?

A: I am from Aberdeen, New Jersey. It's the Jersey Shore from Jersey. It's in highly debated Central Jersey.

*I did not know that Central Jersey was such a contested issue.

Q: Where did you attend undergrad?

A: Boston College. I majored in Communications and minored in American Studies of Law and History. It's interesting being at Notre Dame since there's a bit of a Holy War between the two schools, and some of my friends have scoffed at my betrayal, but they're coming around.

Q: What did you do this summer?

A: I worked in Woke and Dry's both Boston and D.C. firms for three years. This summer I went home because of COVID and got to spend a lot of time with family and then three weeks off before school.

Q: When we do tailgate, what is your favorite tailgate activity?

A: I guess the food and cornhole.

Q: Computer or paper notes?

A: Paper. I only take reading notes in blue pen because in high school I read a psychology study that said that notes taken in blue pen are retained better.

Q: Is pumpkin spice overrated?

A: I would say that Pumpkin Spice Lattes are overrated, but all other pumpkin spice things are not. I will say that the new Pumpkin Cream Cold Brew at Starbucks is amazing and everyone should sample it.

Q: If you could have one superpower, what would it be?

A: Oh Invisibility. I've always wanted that one. It's so powerful—you can go anywhere, see anything, hear anyone.

Q: What's the coolest animal you've ever seen?

A: Maybe just a monkey. On some islands you can hold those tiny monkeys. I mean I'm not sure they are monkeys, but they look like small monkeys.

Q: What's the best type of hat?

A: I guess just a baseball cap. But obviously it needs to have a good logo on it. My favorite cap is my Boston Marathon one.

*Alexa ran the Boston Marathon for a foundation for autism and wants to run it again one day.

Q: Do you have anything else you'd like to say to all of your fans?

A: Oh I wish I had fans. Thank you. I guess thank you. While it hasn't been what we expected, everyone has been nice and great, and I've just met some really wonderful people.

Q: Who do you nominate to talk to me next week as the 1L of the Week?

A: Oh I didn't even think that through. I will nominated Mitch Koppinger.

3LOL: Jaemie Paraon

This week's 3LOL is none other than the trilingual Jaemie Paraon. Jaemie proudly hails from Los Angeles, California, and you most likely know that if you've met Jaemie. Buy her a coffee to learn the secrets of becoming shameless at this point in law school so as to not readily recall anything awkward or embarrassing. Now that is how you 3LOL and life.

Jaemie was born in the Philippines, and is trying to go back to visit as part of her South Asia bar trip in the event the world reopens. She also took French and studied in Bordeaux, France in college, which explains why she speaks textbook French with a rural regional accent, English, and Tagalog. Also, one of her love languages is Words of Affirmation, so add that to the list.

But feel inferior not, Jaemie is relatable and full of friendly joy. Showcased in one way by her musical appreciations and the fact that her Spotify Year in Review is likely to be as much of a hot mess as 2020. Three posters of the K-Pop band Twice adorn Jaemie's bedroom (let this segment of Jaemie Paraon be the instigation of an NDLS fandom of Twice), and she is eagerly awaiting the arrival of Fall with T-Swift's

Folklore. She, like me, believes 'Exile' is the best song on the album and people should never be ashamed to be Taylor Swift fans. She also listens to what is probably the two most popular opera songs of cinema to studies during finals.

Another example is Jaemie's current knowledge of the Zumba dance to Brittany Spears' Toxic. Jaemie and 8 of her closest friends from the back corner of 1L Civ Pro decided to do what we all say we will do—start a Zumba class and hold each accountable until finals when every member inevitably gives up mental and physical health for a time. While the Zumba accountability may have stopped, Jaemie's knowledge of the Zumba dance to Brittany Spears' Toxic has not.

Learn from Jaemie. Take Jaemie's advice that she gives all of her various law school mentees: stay in your own lane. Success and progress is not linear and takes different shapes, so have faith in yourself. You're doing yourself a disservice if you compare. And embrace your love of T-Swizzle.

Follow the SBA for more updates!

Copyright © 2020 Student Bar Association, All rights reserved.

ND LAW ALL

Our mailing address is:

Student Bar Association
1329 Biolchini Hall
Notre Dame Law School
Notre Dame, IN 46556-4640

Add us to your address book

Want to change how you receive these emails?

You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list

