General Announcements and Reminders

Crossings

Open Monday thru Friday 7:30-4:00.
This week will feature a different soup each day!

FREE COFFEE from the SBA

Finals week is around the corner. Traditionally, the SBA would help organize a snack table during finals week which clubs would rotate sponsoring in the commons. This year, in light of COVID, we're doing things a little differently. So, for the next two weeks, the SBA will be paying for coffee every morning from the open of the crossings café until noon.

CDO

The CDO is still offering Walk-In Hours Monday through Friday, 12:45-4:45pm. What has changed is that you can't just walk into the CDO, but you can do them via Zoom, by clicking here or by using this URL: <https://notredame.zoom.us/j/95730218995>. The Meeting ID is 957 3021 8995. As in the past, walk-ins are meant to be 15 minutes or less. If you would like to schedule a longer meeting, you can do so by clicking here, or via IrishLink. Or, you can call Heidi at 574-631-7542.

Resume Review! Make sure your resume is ready to be seen by employers by having it reviewed and edited by one of the CDO counselors. You can submit it here.

Hamburg Honors Scholars Video

Did you miss the launch meeting for the Hamburg Honor Scholars Program last month? Fortunately, the meeting was recorded. Watch it here.

Note from Kresge Library

It has come to our attention that not everyone is aware of the hours that the study rooms are available. From now through November 13, 2020, the study rooms are available from 8 am to 10 pm, Monday through Friday, closed on the weekends. A law student is able to make a reservation for a room that is a 2-hour block, 1 reservation per person per day. Keys to the rooms are not available.

Beginning Saturday, November 14, 2020, the study rooms will be open 24/7 through November 23, 2020. Reservations are strongly recommended and will be a 4-hour block, 1 reservation per person per day. Keys to the rooms are not available.

If you have any questions about this information, please inquire at the circulation desk. Or send an email to lawcirc@nd.edu.

Resources and Updates

Legal Writing Center

The Legal Writing Center is open and accepting appointments for law students who wish to seek advice on papers, exam answer structures, outlining techniques, and other legal writing advice. Before making an appointment with the Center, please check with your professor to make sure your intended use of the Center is allowed under course policies. Appointments can be made through the following link:

<https://nd.mywconline.com>

Note for 1Ls: 1Ls are not allowed to use the Center in connection with their first year legal writing course. 1Ls are allowed to use the center for the other resources described above.

The Writing Center offers free, one-on-one consultations for undergraduates, graduate students, postdoctoral fellows, and faculty on any aspect of the writing process. We work with writers at ALL levels from ANY discipline at ANY stage in the writing process.

COVID Corner

Reminders of these key COVID protocols for the Law buildings:

More information is on the Law School's website HERE or at here.nd.edu.

- Card access required for all exterior doors until further notice. All Law School faculty, staff and students will be able to access the building using your Irish1card and 4-digit code. The default code for your Irish1card is the two digit month and two digit day of your birth date (ie. Jan 1 = 0101). You can view and update your Irish1Card 4-digit code by going to this link: <https://irish1card.nd.edu/pin/> Note: you must be logged into the VPN or be on the campus network for the link to work properly.

- Masks must be worn at all times while studying and in class. You should not remove your mask when studying in Library or elsewhere in the Law School buildings unless you are in a study room by yourself with the door CLOSED. Please also use the provided spray to wipe down your study space when you leave.
- Eating is only permitted in the Commons and South Reading Room. You cannot eat in the classrooms or Library study spaces. You may remove your mask only during the time in which you are actively eating. Please be aware of the needs of your classmates and do not use these spaces as study spaces if other students are waiting for a spot to eat their lunch.
- All in-person meetings with faculty and staff must be scheduled. Your professors will send you information about how to schedule appointments with them. You can schedule appointments with staff through the links below:
 - CDO: through IrishLink
 - Student Services (Christine Holst-Haley): <https://calendly.com/ndls-cholst>
 - IT Support (Eric McCartney): <https://calendly.com/emccartn>
 - Wellness Consultant (Stella Miller): <https://calendly.com/stellamiller>
 - Registrar (Jenny Fox): No in-person meetings, email Jenny at jenniferfox@nd.edu with questions or to set up a phone or Zoom call.

A Message From the Editor ~Secretary~

Good Morning NDLS!

Enjoy your reading weekend during which some of your exams were available? LOL welcome to finals 2020 y'all. In the daily catch phrases (which I personally found insufferably annoying) of my 6th grade world geography teacher: "Study study little buddy!" "Quiz quiz cheese wiz!" "Test test, do your best!" and "Have a great day out in the big blue world!"

I also promised our fearless leader, Keith Onger, that I would promulgate the very notable news that the Indiana Football Hoosiers are now 4-0 with a big matchup verses Ohio State for sole possession of the Big 10 East, and a potential college football playoff spot on the line (the only time they have ever been relevant). This may be in tension with my promise to Tim Villari to promulgate the prestige of Ohio State's prowess for having remained ranked in the top four for weeks before they even started their season on October 24, and thoroughly destroying the three teams they've played since (it is easy when you don't play a full season). Both of these are in tension with my own personal wish that A&M's climb to number 5 continues in a way that puts them in play off position (and justifies my snarky responses that surely poked the bears). So alas, the football world is anyone's oyster. Including all of ours with the Fighting Irish!

As you can see, there are no student features this week on the account of it being finals and me not having much time nor wanting to encroach upon the next nominees' time. In a similar vein, it is with heavy hearts I say that we are about to embark on a 10-week break. And by we, I mean the MMU, my messages, and the weekly joy that all of it surely brings to you. I know, it's hard, but I just think it's what's best at this time. We can still be friends...if we have to... After all, it's me, not you, and absence makes the heart grow fonder. It's been a heck of a whirlwind semester and I'll always cherish the time we had together. Also, we'll be back in full swing in February. Until then, keep an eye out for school emails, be kind to yourself, be kind to others, have a Happy Thanksgiving, Merry Christmas, Happy Kwanzaa, Happy Hanukkah, Happy Holidays, and HAPPY NEW YEAR (see ya never 2020)!

Go Irish (all the way to the AAC title and National Championship)!

Krystal
