New faces at NDLS

This week we highlight another new faculty member at Notre Dame: please join us in extending a warm welcome to Bruce

Bruce Huber news

Huber, who joins us from Dartmouth College. Bruce teaches and conducts research in the areas of environmental law, natural resources law, property, and energy law. His current work explores how governmental actors compensate industries and individuals for adverse impacts resulting from regulatory or legal change. After earning his undergraduate degree at Stanford University, Bruce received his J.D. and a Ph.D. in Political Science at the University of California, Berkeley, where he earned several teaching awards. At Dartmouth, he was a visiting professor in the Department of Government. He has also practiced law in Washington State and worked as a college minister for a large Presbyterian church. NDLS Classifieds

From Beth Klein: I am looking for two donations: 1) one women's 2X winter coat and 2) one men's 1X Tall winter coat. St. Vincent de Paul provided summer clothing for the entire family at no charge. However, the family will not be eligible to receive clothing again until February which means facing the cold without warmer outerwear. The kids' will get coats from school or hand-me-downs from relatives. Send me an e-mail if you can help. Thank you. bklein@nd.edu.

Have a submission for The NDLS Update? Send an email by noon on Thursday for inclusion the following Tuesday, to libnews@nd.edu, or contact NDLS Update editors Susan Good or Beth Given.
