GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS:

---

SBA Fall-Ball:

Huge thank you to Andrew Scarafile, SBA members, and everyone else who made this year's Fall Ball a huge success! Everyone looked stunning!

Kresge Law Library:

As the Supreme Court of the United States begins October Term 2021 this month, the Kresge Law Library invites you to explore some of our resources for current, recent, and historical Supreme Court research:

- ABA Supreme Court PREVIEW – The ABA publishes eight issues of its preview of Supreme Court cases each year, providing expert, plain-language analysis of all cases given plenary review by the U.S. Supreme Court. Analysis is published in advance of oral argument.
- Supreme Court Insight, 1975-2021 – ProQuest presents this complete collection of briefs, dockets, joint appendixes, oral arguments, opinions and other documents for each case decided by the U.S. Supreme Court during this time period.
- The Making of Modern Law: U.S. Supreme Court Records and Briefs, 1832-1978 – This database includes records and briefs brought before the U.S. Supreme Court during the final years of Chief Justice John Marshall's Court through the first ten years of the Warren Court.

Please email askus@nd.edu with your research questions.

Lexis Tabling on Tuesdays:

Lexis tabling is back! On Tuesdays, stop by our table outside of the library for snacks, research tips, and Lexis points!

Spring 2022 Externship Application Cycle is Open:

The application cycle for most South Bend-area externships is Oct 4th - Oct 31st. Check IrishLink for listings. See also the website under "Current Students," "Externships." Please be aware that we will not be forwarding applications until after the application deadline has expired, Oct 31st, 11:59 p.m.

The Legal Writing Center:

The Legal Writing Center schedule is open for the semester! Make an appointment today by visiting the online appointment scheduler found HERE and selecting "Legal Writing Center."

Appointments are available from 3:30–6 PM on Tuesdays, 11 AM–3 PM on Wednesdays, and 12:30–4 PM on Thursdays. All sessions will take place in Room 3171.

The LWC offers free, one-on-one consultations for law students at any stage of the writing process. LWC tutors will work with you to address your concerns, whether you are brainstorming paper topics or putting the final touches on a brief. We look forward to working with you!

Health & Wellness Center:

Wellness in Mind - Need some support? Remember that your Wellness Consultant, Stella Miller, is here for you. Drop her a line at stella.miller@nd.edu or make an appointment at www.calendly.com/stellamiller.

Also, we encourage you to be mindful of the relaxation resources available at the McDonald Center for Student Well-Being. ## SPORT REPORT:

Hello All,

It's been a painful season and I can think of no better evidence that God heard our prayers than a Bama loss! To a backup quarterback – credit to Calzada, he played his best game yet. If Georgia pulls through in the SEC championship, we will have a playoff with no Clemson and no Bama! It's happening, people!!!

Brian Kelly continues to play musical chairs with his quarterbacks (and we've seen the results of this so . . . why?). His post-game interview was something along the lines of "media you should be hyping up Coan! I pulled him after the first play and he led two scoring drives in the fourth. He's so resilient!" I'm not sure I've ever heard a more ridiculous plan from a coach. Good for Coan for bouncing back but Brian – the key is to have a quarterback play all four quarters? If you know Coan's your starter, which you clearly claim to, then why yank him out and manufacture 'resiliency?' That is literally like me deliberately burning my hands on a curling iron so that I can take hot pans out of the oven later. Not necessary, a waste of time, and literally harmful. I'm not even a Coan stan but I'll be the first to say that this is absurd – Coan is a lot of things, but he played backup for years and transferred to an entirely new program to get his shot. Pretty sure 'resiliency' or 'mental toughness' or whatever you want to call it is not his problem, so BK maybe stop trying to write an ESPN 30 for 30 episode and coach your quarterback, not his storyline.

Texas is gonna do what Texas is gonna do. And by that, I mean they will hang tough with a top team for three quarters and then choke with like five minutes left in the game. It honestly feels like they are gaslighting us whenever they play a good opponent because it's all "Texas is back!" and then once again, here we are. Really, it's the Texas defense that should shoulder the blame on this one. Oklahoma gets credit for /finally/ moving on from Spencer Rattler – just because someone labels you a Heisman front runner in the pre-season doesn't mean you should be allowed to throw 3472 interceptions a game. Oklahoma loses credit for rushing the field? Are you kidding? You beat the 21st best team in the country (and yes, I know it's the Red River but the point still stands) after an absolutely abysmal first half and you rush the field? This is where security needs to step in and hold back the student section – not because anyone’s going to get hurt but because it is beyond embarrassing to the program’s reputation.

Down goes Penn State and I’m living for the Hawkeyes. Let them win it all please – they are what the Irish could’ve been. Just a tough, vintage team that can actually execute and deliver results. I don’t think they could realistically hang with Georgia, given their lack of receiving weapons, but clearly, stranger things have happened this year. A Cincinnati-Iowa playoff game would be so entertaining. Let the people have what they want!!

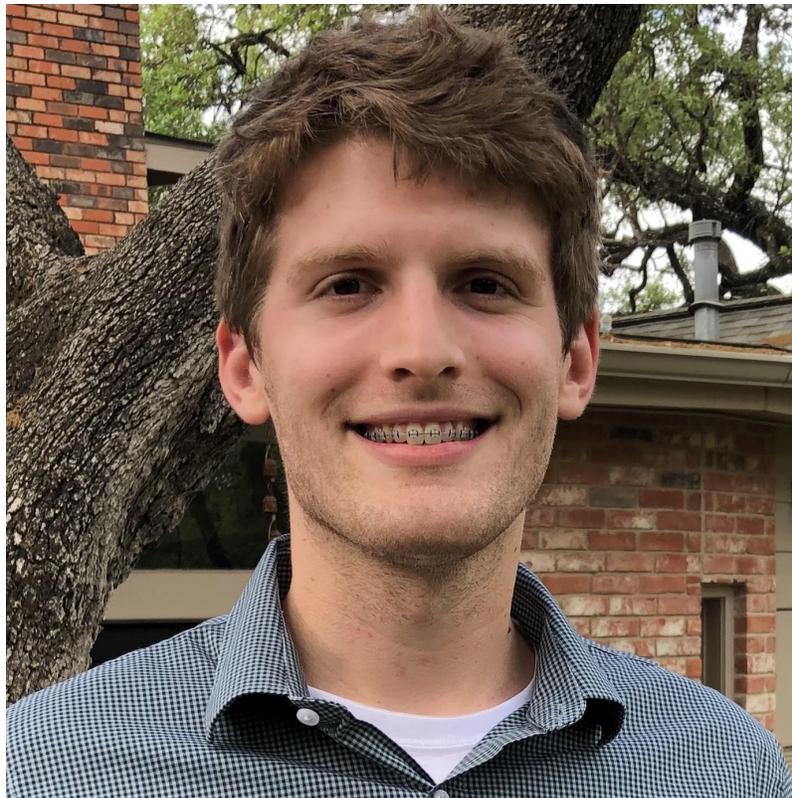

Geaux Irish,

Ashley

1L OF THE WEEK:

Our 1L of the Week is Andrew Badger! Andrew is definitely a 1L you wanna get to know. Grab some Mickey Ds and binge watch Squid Games w/ him soon!

Q. Where are you from/where did you attend undergrad?

San Antonio, Texas / The University of Texas (please don’t talk to me about football after this past Saturday)

Q. If you had to eat at one fast food chain for the rest of your life what would it be?

McDonald’s and I would get the Filet-o-Fish every day.

Q. Since you’ve watched Squid Games... would you have voted yes or no to keep playing?

I wish... I would probably chicken out in the moment. They don't mess around.

Q. What are your plans for fall break?

Back to Texas to spend time with my family.

Q. Would you rather know a little about many things or be an expert in one topic?

If I get to pick the topic, I would rather be an expert on one.

Q. Fight 100 duck-sized horses or 1 horse-sized duck?

100 duck-sized horses. I would probably only be able to take about 10, but I could donate the remaining 90 to Notre Dame and the school could open a mini race track in memoriam.

*** Andrew I appreciate the thoughtfulness to ND, but where would we find the jockeys???

Q. Does pineapple belong on pizza?

Definitely!

Q. What's the sweetest thing anyone has done for you?

My mom allowing her grown son to live and work at home during the pandemic.

Q. Do you have anything to say to your fans?

I am organizing a Squid Game. If you want to participate, please reach out discreetly.

Q. Who do you nominate to be next weeks 1L of the week?

Shaniya Raheja

2Ls TAKING Ls:

This week's "2l taking Ls" story comes from the soccer queen herself, Rachel Collins. Rachel might have won the best L story yet. It might even top paying $400 in airbnb fees, but that's a story for another time. Grab this sweet girl a coffee sometime this week. Just make sure you keep it away from her laptop!

Now for our feature presentation:

In the fall of 1L year, I went into an open study room in my apartment. I walked out to get some coffee and the door shut, locking my laptop, phone, wallet and keys inside. I had a University Conduct hearing later that morning, so I was panicking. About an hour later, the maintenance man was gracious enough to come and unlock the door so I could make the hearing.

At the very end of the hearing, I proceeded to spill a full 32oz mug of coffee on my laptop. The South Bend Apple Store was closed for covid, so I drove to Chicago for them to tell me I'd completely ruined my laptop. I always saved everything to my desktop and never backed anything up. Among the files lost was my legal writing brief that was due in less than a week.

Moral of the story: use google docs.

In sticking with this week's theme of Alabama Ls, I nominate Matteo Taraborelli.

ASK A 3L:

This week's 3L feature is Jacqueline Lau!!! I appreciate Jacqueline for sharing her puppers with NDLS and giving great advice for how we should spend fall break. First time experience for both the 1 & 2ls.

Jacqueline received the following two questions:

Question(s) & Answers:

Q. "What is the best way to spend fall break? If you could go back, would you change the way you spent your 1L fall break?"

3L Advice: I'll actually be spending my 3L fall break the same way I spent my 1L fall break - going to Chicago for one weekend and then back home to Michigan. I'll probably spend less time on schoolwork this year though! Whether you go home, stay here, or go on a vacation, you really can't go wrong. The only wrong way to do fall break is if you don't take some time to relax. If you're stuck on what to do... make a new friend, try the TikTok-famous salmon rice bowl, or start watching the new season of Survivor and I will gladly discuss it with you!

Q. "Is there a backstory as to why SBA felt the need to remind students not to jump in the elevator at fall ball?"

3L Advice: HAH I was just as confused as most of you were when I read that. One of my Double Domer sources tells me that the Dahnke ballroom was only finished in 2017 but it didn't take long for the undergrads to wreak havoc with the elevators. At the dorm dances, the students would jump in the elevators and then get stuck for a few hours because what technician wants to come in at 11:30 on a Saturday night?! Proud of us ~mature~ grad students for resisting the temptation!

Submit your questions to next week's 3L, Emily Dufner, below.
(questions are anonymous)
