Jacquelyn Cascarano returned from maternity leave on Monday, September 9. Welcome back, Jackie!

Paula Smith, Director of Alumni Relations, will be leaving us on September 12, 2013, to assume an exciting new position at Gonzaga University in Spokane, Washington. Paula will serve as the inaugural lead administrator for the University's new office of Student Conduct and Community Standards. Please join Paula for cake and coffee at 2:00 p.m. on Thursday, September 12 in the faculty meeting room as we congratulate Paula on her new position and say a fond farewell. Thank you Paula for your service to NDLS!

Events

Mary Ellen O'Connell is a panelist on The Crisis in Syria today at 4:30 pm in the Hesburgh Center for International Studies Auditorium.

Today, Irish Health Challenge HRQ Screenings for faculty and staff continue in Room 2130 from 8:00am – 11:00am.

On Wednesday, September 11, the Law School will host a live court session of The Indiana Tax Court in the McCartan Courtroom starting at 10:30. All are welcome to drop in and out of the courtroom during the hearing. The case is a dispute between Union Township in St. Joseph County and the State of Indiana over the amount of property tax revenues the township should have been allowed to collect. Judge Martha Blood Wentworth, Indiana's Tax Court judge (a Court of Appeals level position), will hear arguments on the state's Motion to Dismiss and then immediately afterwards on the merits of the case. See briefs.

Friday's Faculty Colloquium features Stacey Dogan, Boston University, presenting "Parody As Brand." As always, colloquium lunch will be available at 12:10 p.m.

Monday, September 16, Law & Economics Workshop in Room 2130 at 2:00. Lisa Bernstein (University of Chicago Law School), presents "Trade Usage in the Courts: The Flawed Evidentiary Basis of Article 2's Incorporation Strategy." The workshop is open to all Notre Dame faculty and students.

Google Celebrities

Google Maps caught Dwight King and wife Mary Hendriksen relaxing on the bench in the area in between Biolchini Hall and Eck Hall.
