Week of 9.12.22

Good afternoon! Please read below for the latest Law School news and events.

The Latest News

Fighting to Educate a Different Kind of Lawyer

ND Law's work in the Appalachia region was featured in the first “What Would You Fight For?” series shown during halftime at the ND-Marshall football game. The video features students in Eastern Kentucky as they work with victims of the largest social security fraud in history.

The Sappy Moffit baseball league has kicked off a fundraising effort to build a field by the Boys & Girls Club in South Bend. It's a great collaboration between the league, the city and the community to make this a wonderful, inclusive resource. Not only will it be a place to play baseball for inner city youth, but it will also be a place where the history of baseball in South Bend is honored. The field will be called Foundry Field, named after the Foundry Giants, which was a predominantly black baseball team that played in the Industrial League in SB about 100 years ago.

Dan Manier is a team member and Jeff Pojanowski played previously.

Read more about the field here and their story here. News Coverage about the fundraising campaign is here on WSBT and on WNDU here.

We would love to share more news, milestones, and accomplishments of our Law School colleagues. Drop us a note here.

Have a great week!
