Week of 10.3.22

Good morning! Please read below for the latest Law School news and events.

The Latest News

ND Law establishes new Murphy Fellowship for students studying law and religion

Notre Dame Law School has established a new fellowship to support students exploring the area of law and religion. The Murphy Fellowship is named in honor of longtime and former Notre Dame Law Professor Edward J. Murphy. Read more about the fellowship and fellows here.

Wrongful Convictions and the Death Penalty in America: Fireside Chat with Sister Helen Prejean and Dean Cole

Watch the video of Sister Helen Prejean and Dean Cole's fireside chat here.

The Religious Liberty Clinic filed an amicus brief urging the Supreme Court to grant certiorari in Groff v. DeJoy. In the case, a Postal Service worker is seeking an accommodation under Title VII that would allow him to observe his Sabbath by not working on Sundays.

Emily Bremer writes, "Final Agency Action on Student Loan Forgiveness: Whether, When, and How Will (and Should) it Come?" for the Yale Journal of Regulation. Read more here.

Nicole Garnett wrote about Arizona's universal school choice decision in the article, "A Radical Step in the Right Direction" for the City-Journal." Read more here.

Staying in the Game

The Black Law Students Association hosted “Staying in the Game,” a panel discussion with leaders in the sports and entertainment industry, on September 16. Watch the full conversation here.

The Indiana Court of Appeals held oral arguments in the case, DeVane v. Arch Wood et al., in McCartan Courtroom on September 23. The Judges -- Nancy Vaidik, Melissa May, and ND Law alumna Elizabeth Tavitas -- participated in a panel discussion with students facilitated by ND Law alumna Judge Cristal Brisco, followed by a reception. An overview and video of the case is here.

Alumni News

We loved seeing alumni and friends on campus before the ND-Cal football game for our annual Law School Homecoming Tailgate. A larger photo gallery of highlights is on the ND Law Facebook page here.

Dear faculty and staff,
We want to share your scholarship and other news and accomplishments with the ND Law community. If you have a new research piece, receive an award, or have anything else to share please let us know. You can email news here.
