The Law School's Barristers Trial Team competed in the National Trial Competition Regional this past weekend in Chicago. They represented the law school very well and we are very proud of their performance. Competing this weekend were Blake Biggar, Alex Foster-Brown, Kristen Hatter, Josh Leong, Matt Munro and Jonathan Schechter. The team was coached by Joel Williams and Kate Singer.

The Moot Court Board sent two teams to compete in the National Religious Freedom Moot Court Tournament held on February 6-7 at George Washington University Law School. Greg Chafuen, Allison Burke, Patrick Duffey and Sarah Gallo were the oralists who represented NDLS. Kyle Ratliff and Jae Kim were the brief writers. Congratulations to Patrick, Sarah, and Jae, who were the tournament champions.

The staff of the Notre Dame Law Review announced that Paul Beach will be the new Editor-in-Chief for Volume 91.

Of Note

Which ND Law Librarian danced on Dick Clark's famous TV Rock & Roll Show "American Bandstand"? Non other than our Carmela Kinslow!

From Ali Wruble: Kennedy Primary Academy is participating in the American Heart Association Jump Rope for Heart event. This nationwide event helps students learn about the benefits of exercise and heart health while raising funds to fight heart disease and stroke. Much of the money raised remains in the local community.

Please consider donating any amount online or through Ali Wruble by Friday, February 13. Thank you so much!
