Today is Carmela Kinslow's last day at Notre Dame. She is off to retirement! Carmela began her career at ND forty-one years ago with a position in the Reference Department at the Hesburgh Library in 1974. In 1979, Carmela transferred the Kresge Law Library to fill the need for Inter-Library Loan and broader patron services. On her thoughts about retirement, she said "I look forward to stepping into my 'June Cleaver' role. I already have the pearl necklace and the apron!" Congratulations and best wishes Carmela!
