all his actions. He caught on to the spirit of the Notre Dame campus life almost as soon as he arrived, taking up the practice of frequent communion which he followed until his death." Speaking on behalf of the University, the Bulletin properly eulogized, "Notre Dame is proud of such a son as he. May his family cherish the thought that John was a loyal Notre Dame man, scholastically and religiously." The Notre Dame Lawyer and the professors and student body of the College of Law at Notre Dame express regret that John was taken from our number, and express sympathy to his family.
