Week of 3.27.23

Good afternoon! Please read below for the latest Law School news and events.

The Latest News

Paolo Carozza was asked to serve as an expert witness before Inter-American Commission on Human Rights Court in the Beatriz et al. v. El Salvador case. The case relates to the alleged violations of the rights of Beatriz and her family due to the prohibition of the voluntary termination of pregnancy in El Salvador, which allegedly prevented her from the possibility of accessing a legal, early and timely termination when dealing with of a situation of alleged risk to life, health and personal integrity; as well as the non-viability of the fetus outside the womb. Paolo testified about the international legal standards that should be applied and how to address the relevance of the principle of human dignity to the case.
