Alumni News

Exoneration Justice Clinic opens doors for graduates to become ‘a different kind of lawyer’

Since its origin as the Wrongful Conviction Externship in fall 2018 through its establishment as a full legal clinic in fall 2020, the Exoneration Justice Clinic has worked to train students on how to investigate and litigate wrongful conviction cases. Many of these students have chosen to build on their clinical training and experience by pursuing careers in the criminal justice system.

Read how some of the Exoneration Justice Clinic alumni have built on their experience at the clinic by joining other wrongful conviction organizations after graduation. Read more here.

Dear faculty and staff,

We want to share your scholarship and other news and accomplishments with the ND Law community. If you have a new research piece, receive an award, or have anything else to share please let us know. You can email news here.
