A Conversation with Justice Elena Kagan

Friday, September 22 | 2:30 p.m.

Leighton Concert Hall, DeBartolo Performing Arts Center

Notre Dame Law School is excited to announce that U.S. Supreme Court Associate Justice Elena Kagan will visit Notre Dame on Friday, September 22. Justice Kagan will be the first speaker for the 2023-24 Notre Dame Forum and will participate in a conversation with G. Marcus Cole, the Joseph A. Matson Dean of Notre Dame Law School.

Law school students, faculty, and staff are being given priority seating for this event, but you must request a ticket by clicking the link below.

The link will close once we hit capacity. You will need to arrive at Leighton Concert Hall in DeBartolo Performing Arts Center (DPAC) between 1:30 and 2:20 p.m. on September 22 in order to claim your ticket. If you do not arrive by 2:20 p.m., your seat will be given to those waiting in line for general tickets. You must show a Notre Dame

ID in order to claim your ticket.

No bags or backpacks will be allowed at DPAC.
