Law School hosts inaugural Homecoming Weekend

The Law School's first Homecoming Weekend was a huge success. About 80 alumni attended a reception on Friday night at the Law School, and more than 250 came for a tailgate Saturday afternoon on the DeBartolo Quad before the football game against Miami of Ohio. The rock band The Slants added to the excitement Saturday by performing in the McCartan Courtroom and talking about their trademark case in an event sponsored by the Intellectual Property Law Society and the Asian Law Students Association.
