Around the Watercooler

Congratulations to Dwight King on his retirement

After 34 years, Dwight King is retiring from the Law Library. Dwight says that he has enjoyed his time working with the faculty, staff, and students of the Law School where he taught legal research and helped students and faculty members with their research projects. He particularly enjoyed his years as faculty advisor for BLSA and as University Ombudsperson for Discriminatory Harassment. In retirement, Dwight hopes to do volunteer work in the community and continue his hobbies of bike riding and woodcarving. Once the pandemic subsides, he and his wife, Mary Hendriksen, the assistant director of Notre Dame's Keough-Naughton Institute for Irish Studies, look forward to visiting their four children and their families in New York City and Chicago.

Congratulations to senior Kariana Radabaugh

Kariana Melody Radabaugh, the daughter of Christopher and Shere Radabaugh, will be attending the University of Notre Dame this fall. Kariana, a senior at Mishawaka High School, is one of five valedictorians for Mishawaka's Class of 2020.

Kariana has been involved with choir, theater, and NHS at Mishawaka and has been a part of several musical and theatrical productions. She has also danced for many years with Debbie Werbrouck School of Dance and the Patchwork Dance Company.
