Speaker Biography

Rev. David Link is the deputy director of religion and community activities of the Indiana Department of Corrections. He is the Joseph A. Matson Dean Emeritus and Professor at Notre Dame Law School. At the time he became dean emeritus, his tenure of more than 24 years as dean was the longest of any law dean in the U.S. He serves as the deputy vice chancellor (academic) and provost for St. Augustine College of South Africa. He also served as the president of the International Centre for Healing and the Law.

In 1990, Link took on the additional responsibility of serving as the founding president and vice chancellor of the University of Notre Dame, Australia. He continues on leave from the Chicago law firm of Winston & Strawn, where he was a senior partner. He also served as a trial attorney and branch chief with the federal government during the Kennedy administration.

Link is a noted teacher, scholar, and lecturer in the fields of applied ethics, professional responsibility, professionalism, law practice, and legal education. He serves on the Board of Dismas (Halfway) House, as a director of the Miracle of Nazareth International Foundation, as a director of the Future of Russia Foundation, and on numerous other professional, charitable, civic, and educational organization boards. He was a co-founder of the South Bend Center for the Homeless.

About the Hesburgh Forum Lecture Series

“Questions and problems continue to challenge us, and given the excellence of today’s faculty, it is a true blessing to have them stimulate and provoke thoughtful dialogue in your communities”

– Rev. Theodore M. Hesburgh, C.S.C., President Emeritus

Since 1986, the Hesburgh Lecture Series has brought a taste of Notre Dame’s academic excellence to alumni and their local communities. The lectures, hosted by Notre Dame Clubs, have perpetuated the example of President Emeritus Rev. Theodore M. Hesburgh, C.S.C., as a lifelong learner.

The Hesburgh Forum is a cornerstone of the activities of the Notre Dame Club of Chicago. The Notre Dame Club of Chicago is a not-for-profit organization. Proceeds from the Hesburgh Forum along with other Club activities, benefit the Notre Dame Club of Chicago Scholarship Foundation. This Foundation grants four-year scholarships to Chicago area Notre Dame students with financial need and currently supports over 70 current students.
