Fees and Expenses

Fees

The fees required by the University may be classified as annual, incidental and optional. The annual fees are the following: (1) A tuition fee of $200, payable in two installments of $100 each in September and January of each year of residence; (2) A library and entertainment fee of $10.00, payable in September of each year; (3) An athletic fee of $10.00, payable in September of each year; (4) Scholastic, student publication, $3.00. The library and entertainment fee admits the student to all lectures, concerts and other entertainments under University auspices during the year, and to the use of the general and departmental libraries. The athletic fee gives the student the use of the gymnasium and admits him to all intercollegiate contests during the year.

The incidental fees are: (1) a matriculation fee of $10.00, payable only once, when the student is admitted to the University; (2) a graduation fee of $10.00, payable once only, when the student receives his Bachelor's degree. The graduation fee for the Master's degree is $15.00, and for the Doctor's degree, $25.00.

The optional fees include laboratory fees, charged in certain courses in science and engineering, and special tuition fees, charged in certain courses in fine arts. Such fees are enumerated in connection with the catalog descriptions of the courses in which they are required.

Room Rental

The University has lodging accommodations for about 2,000 students; other students must secure rooms in private houses in South Bend. These may be rented at rates from $2.50 to $5.00 the week. The Director of Off-Campus Students keeps in his office a list of approved rooms for residence in the city. The charges for lodging on the campus are as follows:

- Rooms in Freshman Hall: $2.00 the week
- Rooms in Howard Hall: $3.75 to $4.50 the week
- Rooms in Morrissey Hall: $4.50 to $5.00 the week
- Rooms in Lyons Hall: $4.50 to $5.00 the week
- Rooms in St. Edward's Hall: $3.50 the week
- Rooms in Sophomore Hall: $3.00 the week
- Rooms in Walsh Hall: $3.75 to $8.00 the week
- Rooms in Badin Hall: $2.50 to $4.00 the week

Meal

The University Dining Halls, which are maintained on the campus and will accommodate more than two thousand (2000) students, are in a new and completely equipped building. All students residing on the campus are required to take their meals in the University Dining Halls.

The charge for board in the dining hall is $375.00 a year, of which $187.50 is to be paid in advance in September, and the other half, $187.50, is to be paid in advance at the beginning of the second semester.

Other Expenses

The University maintains a laundry, which the students may patronize at their option, or they may make use of the laundry facilities of South Bend. The charge for laundry service at the University may be estimated at $15.00 the semester. No credit for books, stationery, clothing and other articles for sale on the campus will be given.

Regulation Governing Payments

The necessary annual and incidental fees, together with optional fees, and such other expenses as the student may wish to incur (room, board, laundry, etc.), must be paid when the student enters in September. It is impossible for the University to make exceptions to this rule.

No rebate will be allowed for late entrance.

The charge of $100 the semester for tuition is accepted as an entirety and will not be refunded in whole or in part if the student be dismissed for wilful infraction of the University regulations, nor in the event of his withdrawing from the University at any time without proper permission. An exception is made if it seems expedient for him to go home because of protracted illness.

No student will be registered for the second semester whose account for the first semester has not been adjusted, nor will a degree be conferred on a student under such circumstances, nor a transcript given of his academic credits.

Semester bills and other accounts are subject to sight draft if not paid within ten days after they have been rendered.

Remittance should be made by draft or by postal or express money...

The University has the bestowal of a number of scholarships and prizes among which the following are of especial interest to students in the College of Law:

The Rev. Thomas Carroll Scholarship. Established March 12, 1895, by a bequest of $5,000 from the Reverend Thomas Carroll, of Oil City, Pennsylvania. The income from this fund is used in helping a worthy student from the Diocese of Erie, Pennsylvania, (preference in the selection being given to students from St. Joseph's Parish, Oil City), to secure an education in one of the colleges of the University. This scholarship, worth $300 a year, is awarded, as a vacancy occurs, to a student beginning his college course and may be held by him for four years, provided that he maintains a high scholastic record. The appointment or re-appointment, however, is made anew each year.

The John P. Lauth Memorial Scholarship. Founded in 1917 by a gift of $1,000 from the Catholic Order of Foresters, of Chicago, as a memorial to John P. Lauth, a former professor in the University of Notre Dame. The income from this fund is awarded each year to some needy and deserving student in one of the colleges of the University.

The Samuel T. Murdoch Scholarship. Established in June, 1917, by a gift of $5,000 from the late Samuel T. Murdoch (C. E., 1886), of Indianapolis, Indiana. The income, amounting to $300, may be used for the assistance of a student in any college of the University who has shown by his industry and attainments that he is worthy of this aid. The income may be allotted to one or two students. Though the appointment or re-appointment to this benefit is made each year, the same student may hold the scholarship for four years, provided that he maintains a satisfactory record in his college work.

The Patrick O'Brien Scholarship. Established in 1913 by a gift of $7,000 from the O'Brien family of South Bend, Indiana, in memory of their father, Patrick O'Brien. The income from this fund, which amounts to $420, is to be awarded annually to a student in any college of the University who needs help and who has a high record in scholarship. The benefit may be shared by two students.

The Richard C. Kerens Scholarship. Founded in 1909 by a bequest of $2,000 from Richard C. Kerens, of St. Louis, Missouri. The income from this fund is available for the assistance of needy and deserving students.

The Breen Medal for Oratory. The gift of the Honorable William Patrick Breen, of the Class of '77. Awarded annually to the student who excels in oratory. The award is made after competition in delivered orations, decided by three judges selected by the Faculty. The winner represents the University in the Indiana State Oratorical Contest, held on the third Friday in February. All college students are eligible for this contest, but no student may receive the Breen Medal more than once. The winner of this prize may, however, compete several times for the honor of representing the University in the State contest. There is also a ten-dollar prize offered to the winners of the freshman, the sophomore, and the junior contest in oratory.

Medal for Public Debating. A debating medal is awarded to each of the students who represent the University in the principal inter-collegiate debates of the year.

The Hering-Keach Prizes. Two money prizes have been offered for distribution among the monogram men who have achieved the highest academic excellence. The first is a prize of one hundred and twenty-five dollars given by Francis Earl Hering, Litt. B., 1898, LL.B., 1902, of South Bend, a member of the baseball team in 1896-97, and captain of the football team during the same year. The other is a prize of one hundred dollars, donated by Leroy Joseph Keach, LL.B., 1908, of Indianapolis, captain of the track team in 1908. The prizes are to be awarded as follows: seventy-five dollars to the senior monogram man with the highest academic average for the freshman and the sophomore year; seventy-five dollars to the junior monogram man with the highest average for the freshman, the sophomore and the junior year; seventy-five dollars to the senior monogram man with the highest class average for the four years of college. To be eligible for these prizes a general average of at least 82 per cent must be attained.

The South Bend Watch Company Prize. The South Bend Watch Company has made permanent arrangements to offer annually a full-jewelled, fourteen-carat gold watch to the senior student in each of the five colleges who has made the best academic record for four years in the college from which he graduates. The recipient of a medal or other prize awarded for four years of general excellence in any course is not eligible to receive this prize. The same company annually donates a gold watch which is awarded to the student who has earned his monogram in athletic competition during his senior year and whose academic record for that year is the best among the senior monogram men.

The Hoynes Award. Established in January, 1926, by a gift from William James Hoynes, A.M., LL.D., Dean Emeritus of the College of Law. The income from this fund, amounting to $100, is awarded annually to the member of the graduating class in the program leading to the degree of Bachelor of Laws who has the highest average in scholastic grades, application, deportment and achievement, together with fitting qualifications for admission to the bar and to the practice of law.

The South Bend Citizens Prizes. A number of public-spirited citizens of the city of South Bend have co-operated in the establishment of a number of money prizes, of which the following are awarded in the College of Law:

Fifty Dollars, offered by Mr. William McInerney, Attorney-at-Law, for excellence in Public Speaking in the College of Law.

Twenty-five Dollars, offered by Mr. Arthur Hubbard, Attorney-at-Law, for high legal accomplishment in the College of Law.

Twenty-five Dollars, offered by Mr. Edmund Wills, Attorney-at-Law, for high legal accomplishment in the College of Law.

Twenty-five Dollars, offered by Mr. Gallitzin A. Farabaugh, Attorney-at-Law, for high legal scholastic achievement in the College of Law.

STUDENT EMPLOYMENT

The University furnishes part-time work for about two hundred students, and a still larger number are accommodated by the business houses and residence owners of South Bend. The positions open on the campus range from that of waiter in the dining-halls to that of secretary to the professors. The basis of remuneration is the number of hours employed and the amount earned is applied to the student’s account with the University. The positions open in South Bend include waiting, clerking, tutoring, and driving automobiles. Many students are able to earn room and board by off-campus work, and a few are able to pay their entire expenses.

Note. Freshmen are not eligible for student employment on the campus.

training in the preparation of pleadings, motions, trial records, exceptions and appeals, and the preparation of cases and briefs on appeals. Each candidate for a degree in law is required to complete the procedure of at least one case from the service of process to its final determination on appeal.

ADMISSION AND DEGREES

A. THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF LAWS (LL.B.):

The following persons are eligible for admission to the college of law as candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.):

1. Graduates of a recognized college or university.
2. Those who have completed three years, or 90 acceptable semester hours of work in the College of Arts and Letters, Science, Commerce, or Engineering of the University of Notre Dame, or other college or university of approved standing.
3. Combined program with College of Arts and Letters:

The College of Arts and Letters and the College of Law together offer a six-year program leading to the two degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Laws. A candidate for the two degrees is required to spend the first three years in the College of Arts and Letters and earn 102 semester hours of credit during those three years. During the first year of law, which is his senior year in the College of Arts and Letters, the candidate for the degree of Bachelor of Arts is required, in addition to the work prescribed for the first year in law, to earn six semester hours of credit in senior philosophy or some other course approved by the Dean of the College of Arts and Letters. In addition thereto, the candidate is required to submit a thesis acceptable to the faculty of the College of Arts and Letters. The degree of Bachelor of Arts will be conferred at the conclusion of the first year in law. Upon the completion of two additional years in the College of Law the degree of Bachelor of Laws will be awarded.

B. THE DEGREE OF JURIS DOCTOR (J. D.):

Students entering the College of Law with a bachelor's degree who complete the full program in law with an average grade of 85, and submit a thesis acceptable to the faculty of the College of Law, may receive the degree of Juris Doctor (J. D.) in place of the degree of Bachelor of Laws.

SPECIAL STUDENTS

A limited number of special students, not candidates for a degree, are admitted to the College of Law, providing that they give evidence of possessing maturity, talent, general education or experience sufficient to justify the hope they will profit from instruction.

THE NOTRE DAME LAWYER

The Notre Dame Lawyer is primarily a student publication. Its managerial and editorial staff is made up of students in the College of Law. Three of the members of the faculty act as faculty advisers. The first issue of this publication appeared in the fall of 1925. It is published monthly during the scholastic year and contains articles by jurists, lawyers, and law professors, reviews of recent cases by students, and also reviews of new publications.

THE LAW CLUB

The Law Club is primarily a law student organization. It has charge of all social and extra-curricular activities of the College of Law. Lectures by prominent judges and members of the bar are arranged for and delivered under its auspices.

THE “ELEVEN” CLUBS

The purpose of these clubs is to train freshman law students in the art of expression and for practice in impromptu discussion. The freshman class is subdivided into groups of eleven and each group meets weekly with one member of the group presiding. Each member of the group is required to give an impromptu talk of five minutes on a subject given out to him at the meeting. Twice each semester a convention of these clubs is held for parliamentary drill and a lecture on parliamentary law.

SENIOR SEMINARS

The senior class in the college of law is divided into three seminar groups. These groups meet once a week for the purpose of discussing matters of practical and public importance. A member of the faculty presides at each group meeting.

GRADING AND SCHOLASTIC REQUIREMENTS

The following grading scale is used to indicate the quality of work done by students: 90 and over, A; 83 to 89 inc., B; 75 to 82 inc., C; 70 to 74, passing; under 70, failure. The candidate for the bachelor's degree must maintain an average grade of 75% in all his subjects.

Students who fail in one-half of the law hours for which they are registered are disqualified for re-registration for the succeeding semester. If a student fails in one-third of the law hours for which he is registered he is placed on probation, and if at the end of the next semester he again fails in one-third of his law hours, he is disqualified for re-registration for the succeeding semester. Students who fail to maintain an average of 75% in any semester are considered delinquent until that average is attained, and may, at the discretion of the faculty, be placed on probation.

SUMMER SESSION

The College of Law offers certain of its courses in second and third year law during the six weeks' summer session of the University. Two summer sessions are equivalent to one semester of work in the academic year.
training in the preparation of pleadings, motions, trial records, exceptions and appeals, and the preparation of cases and briefs on appeals. Each candidate for a degree in law is required to complete the procedure of at least one case from the service of process to its final determination on appeal.

ADMISSION AND DEGREES

A. THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF LAWS (LL.B.):
The following persons are eligible for admission to the college of law as candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.):
1. Graduates of a recognized college or university.
2. Those who have completed three years, or 90 acceptable semester hours of work in the College of Arts and Letters, Science, Commerce, or Engineering of the University of Notre Dame, or other college or university of approved standing.
3. Combined program with College of Arts and Letters:
The College of Arts and Letters and the College of Law together offer a six-year program leading to the two degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Laws. A candidate for the two degrees is required to spend the first three years in the College of Arts and Letters and earn 102 semester hours of credit during those three years. During the first year of law, which is his senior year in the College of Arts and Letters, the candidate for the degree of Bachelor of Laws is required, in addition to the work prescribed for the first year in law, to earn six semester hours of credit in senior philosophy or some other course approved by the Dean of the College of Arts and Letters. In addition thereto, the candidate is required to submit a thesis acceptable to the faculty of the College of Arts and Letters. The degree of Bachelor of Arts will be conferred at the conclusion of the first year in law. Upon the completion of two additional years in the College of Law the degree of Bachelor of Laws will be awarded.

B. THE DEGREE OF JURIS DOCTOR (J.D.):
Students entering the College of Law with a bachelor's degree who complete the full program in law with an average grade of 85, and submit a thesis acceptable to the faculty of the College of Law, may receive the degree of Juris Doctor (J.D.) in place of the degree of Bachelor of Laws.

SPECIAL STUDENTS
A limited number of special students, not candidates for a degree, are admitted to the College of Law, providing that they give evidence of possessing maturity, talent, general education or experience sufficient to justify the hope they will profit from instruction.

THE NOTRE DAME LAWYER
The Notre Dame Lawyer is primarily a student publication. Its managerial and editorial staff is made up of students in the College of Law. Three of the members of the faculty act as faculty advisers. The first issue of this publication appeared in the fall of 1925. It is published monthly during the scholastic year and contains articles by jurists, lawyers, and law professors, reviews of recent cases by students, and also reviews of new publications.

THE LAW CLUB
The Law Club is primarily a law student organization. It has charge of all social and extra-curricular activities of the College of Law. Lectures by prominent judges and members of the bar are arranged for and delivered under its auspices.

THE “ELEVEN” CLUBS
The purpose of these clubs is to train freshman law students in the art of expression and for practice in impromptu discussion. The freshman class is subdivided into groups of eleven and each group meets weekly with one member of the group presiding. Each member of the group is required to give an impromptu talk of five minutes on a subject given out to him at the meeting. Twice each semester a convention of these clubs is held for parliamentary drill and a lecture on parliamentary law.

SENIOR SEMINARS
The senior class in the college of law is divided into three seminar groups. These groups meet once a week for the purpose of discussing matters of practical and public importance. A member of the faculty presides at each group meeting.

GRADING AND SCHOLASTIC REQUIREMENTS
The following grading scale is used to indicate the quality of work done by students: 90 and over, A; 83 to 89 inc., B; 75 to 82 inc., C; 70 to 74, passing; under 70, failure. The candidate for the bachelor's degree must maintain an average grade of 75% in all his subjects.

Students who fail in one-half of the law hours for which they are registered are disqualified for re-registration for the succeeding semester. If a student fails in one-third of the law hours for which he is registered he is placed on probation, and if at the end of the next semester he again fails in one-third of his law hours, he is disqualified for re-registration for the succeeding semester. Students who fail to maintain an average of 75% in any semester are considered delinquent until that average is attained, and may, at the discretion of the faculty, be placed on probation.

SUMMER SESSION
The College of Law offers certain of its courses in second and third year law during the six weeks' summer session of the University. Two summer sessions are equivalent to one semester of work in the academic year.
BACHELOR OF LAWS (LL.B.)

The College of Law offers a three year program leading to the degree of Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.), requiring the completion of at least seventy-six semester hours of required and elective courses. Second and third year students are required to carry twelve hours of work the week. Only in cases of high scholarship will additional work be permitted, and in no case to exceed sixteen hours the week. The required program of courses is as follows:

INTRODUCTORY STATEMENT

In publishing a directory of Alumni of the College of Law of the University of Notre Dame, our object is to bring Notre Dame men in the legal profession into closer intimacy with each other and with the law school. Frequent requests for names and addresses of Notre Dame law graduates led us to believe that there was need of such a publication. We know that an examination of the names will be a pleasure and an inspiration to Notre Dame men in recalling delightful memories of college life.

The College of Law of the University of Notre Dame is one of the oldest law schools in the west. Its graduates are scattered all over the country. They have made enviable reputations on the bench and at the bar. They have brought much credit and honor to their Alma Mater. We are sure that many are wondering what the law school is doing now. We have printed this year's law bulletin with this directory to give you some information on the law school of today. Owing to the fact that many of the graduates of the class of 1929 are not as yet definitely located, we have given their addresses as of the time of graduation.

Few alumni realize what little information is at hand at the University as to where they are and what success they have achieved since they left its portals. Graduates and graduates alone can supply this information. At a banquet of a recent graduating class each man pledged himself to write at least once a year. Only five of that class of sixty have lived up to that pledge. We cherished the hope that this directory would be as complete and accurate as possible. In this we have had many disappointments. In May, 1928, a circular letter was sent to about 900 graduates and responses were received from only 291. In November, 1928, a second circular letter was sent to 650 and to this only about 135 responded. In the summer of 1929, 560 double postals were mailed, and there were only 97 responses.

The directory contains a list of 600 graduates arranged in alphabetical order and geographically. If replies to our communications had been received it would have contained nearly twice that number. The date of the degree and the time and place of admission to the bar are indicated. We know that omissions and errors will be detected. We have done the best under the circumstances. It is our hope that with fuller cooperation we may do better when we try again.
