THE ORGANIZATION OF THE COLLEGE OF LAW

The College of Law, an outgrowth of a course in law established at the University in 1869, is the oldest Catholic law school in the United States. In the reorganization of the University in 1905 the department of law was given the status of a college, and since then it has enjoyed a steady growth. The College is a member of the Association of American Law Schools, an organization of ninety-eight law schools, including the leading university schools of the country, and is rated as approved by the Council on Legal Education of the American Bar Association.

The Equipment of the College

Since 1919 the College of Law has had a building of its own. In that year it was moved from a wing of Sorin Hall to Hoyne Hall, named in honor of the late Col. William James Hoynes, whose labors of a lifetime were devoted to the development of the law school at Notre Dame. In the September of 1930 the College was transferred to a new building, a fine three-story structure of Gothic type and up-to-date construction. This building, 157 feet long and 104 feet wide, has an assembly hall for 350 persons, eight classrooms, four seminar rooms, a courtroom, a discussion room, and a library reading room, 50 by 100 feet with a working library of 18,640 volumes, readily accessible to the students, additional stack-room for 25,000 volumes, and offices for the dean, the librarian, the members of the faculty, and the Notre Dame Lawyer, the quarterly review of the law school. This new building, erected at a cost of more than $400,000, is at the entrance to the campus.

The law library, under the charge of a special and full-time librarian, consists of State reports and statutes, the Reports of the United States Supreme Court, the United States Statutes, Federal Cases, both series of the Federal Reporter, the National Reporter System, complete sets of the Select Case System, the Public Utility Reports, the English Reprint and the English Reports, the Northeastern Digest, the American Digest System, the more important law reviews, and the standard textbooks, treatises, and encyclopedias. The library has from time to time been augmented by substantial gifts of books from friends of the University, among which should be mentioned those from the Hon. Timothy E. Howard, of South Bend, Indiana, the Hon. Jeremiah Gilman Fennessey, of Boston, Massachusetts, the Hon. John F. O’Hara, of Peru, Indiana, the Hon. Edward J. McDermott, of Louisville, Kentucky, and the firm of Parker, Crabill, Crumpacker, May, and Carlisle, of South Bend, Indiana.

In the April of 1930, after the death of the Hon. William P. Breen, '77, of Fort Wayne, Indiana, a lay trustee of the University and one of Notre Dame's most devoted alumni, announcement was made of his gift of $250,000 as endowment to the College of Law.

Aims and Methods of the Instruction

It is the aim of the College of Law to give its students a thorough preparation for the practice of law in any state of the Union. The case method of instruction is employed. By the study, comparison, and discussion of selected cases the principles of law are considered with reference both to their history and to their application in contemporary practice. The classroom lectures and discussions are supplemented by collateral reading and by systematic training in procedure in the practice court of the college. In this court the students receive training in the preparation of cases for trial and briefs on appeals. Each candidate for a degree in law is required to conduct the complete procedure of at least one case, from the service of process to final determination on appeal.

Admission to the College of Law

The persons eligible for admission to regular standing in the College of Law are, 1), graduates of a recognized college or university, and, 2), those who have secured at least ninety semester hours of credit in the College of Arts and Letters, the College of Science, the College of Engineering, or the College of Commerce of the University of Notre Dame in prescribed combination courses. Veterans who have had two

Admission to the College of Law

The persons eligible for admission to regular standing in the College of Law are, 1), graduates of a recognized college or university, and, 2), those who have secured at least ninety semester hours of credit in the College of Arts and Letters, the College of Science, the College of Engineering, or the College of Commerce of the University of Notre Dame in prescribed combination courses. Veterans who have had two years of college work in a recognized institution, all of which would have applied towards a degree, and who have at least 60 semester hours credit will be admitted if they have maintained an average of 80%.

Degrees Conferred

The College of Law confers the degree of bachelor of laws (LL.B.) on the regular student who has been in attendance at the College of Law for a period of three years and who has completed at least eighty semester hours of law, including the required subjects, with a general average of at least 77% (C). The student who enters the College of Law with a bachelor's degree, completes the full program of law with an average grade of 90%, and submits a thesis acceptable to the faculty of the College, may receive the degree of juris doctor (J.D.), instead of the degree of bachelor of laws.

A small number of "special students," who are not candidates for any degree, may be admitted to the College of Law, provided they are at least twenty-three years of age and give evidence of mature talent, general education, and experience, sufficient to justify the hope that they will profit by the instruction.

Professional Periodical of the Law Students

The Notre Dame Lawyer, founded in the fall of 1925, is primarily a student publication, edited and managed by the students of the College of Law. Members of the faculty act as advisers to the student board of editors. The magazine, published quarterly within the schoolyear, contains articles by jurists, lawyers, and professors of law, reviews of recent cases by the students of the College, and reviews of current publications.

The Law Club

The Law Club, primarily an organization of the law students, has charge of all the social and extracurricular activities of the College. Lectures by prominent judges and lawyers are arranged for and delivered under its auspices. The South Bend committee of the American Bar Association holds a meeting every month with the senior members of the Law Club at the court house of St. Joseph County. At these meetings court dockets are examined and explained, and the mechanical features and routine operations incidental to the trial of lawsuits, probate of estates, the recording of instruments, execution sales, and the like are illustrated by court and county officials by reference to actual public records.

Scholastic Grades and Requirements

The following scale is used to indicate the quality of work done by the student: 93% to 100=A; 85 to 92=B; 77 to 84=C; 80 to 76 (merely passing)=D; below 70%=failure. To be graduated the candidate for the degree of bachelor of laws must have an average grade of at least 77% for his passing grades in courses of law at Notre Dame. The student in the College of Law who in any semester fails in as much as a third of the semester hours of work for which he is registered or fails to achieve an average of 77% for his passing grades in law courses is placed on probation. In case he be already on probation or have been on probation in any two former semesters he incurs dismissal because of scholastic deficiencies. The student who in any semester fails in two-thirds of the semester hours of work for which he is registered incurs dismissal.

THE PROGRAM OF COURSES IN LAW

The College of Law offers a three-year program of courses leading to the degree of bachelor of laws: For the degree the student after having secured a bachelor's degree or at least ninety semester hours of college credit must give six semesters to the study of law and secure at least eighty semester hours of credit in the required and elective courses of the program, with an average of at least 77% in those courses. For the degree of bachelor of laws, the transfer student must secure at least twenty-four semester hours of credit in law at Notre Dame and must spend his third year complete in resident study in the Notre Dame College of Law. To constitute full residence a student must carry at least twelve semester hours of work in a semester. The maximum amount of law for which a student may register in any semester is sixteen semester hours out of the total number of hours offered and available.

Combination Programs in Law

THE COMBINATION PROGRAM OF ARTS AND LETTERS AND LAW

The College of Arts and Letters and the College of Law offer a combination program of Arts and Letters and Law, extending through twelve semesters (six schoolyears) and leading to the two degrees of bachelor of arts and bachelor of laws. The student who takes this combination course must spend his first six semesters exclusively in the College of Arts and Letters and must earn 104 semester hours of credit in that college. In his first two semesters of law, which count also as part of his work in the College of Arts and Letters, he is required to take, in addition to the courses of law, four semester hours of senior philosophy or some other subject approved by the dean of the College of Arts and Letters, and to submit a thesis acceptable the faculty of that college or pass a comprehensive examination in his major subject, as required by the particular department. In the third and fourth semesters of his law course he must complete his work in senior philosophy (jurisprudence). The degree of bachelor of arts is conferred at the end of the tenth semester of the combination course and the bachelor of laws at the end of the twelfth semester.

The Combination Program for the Degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Laws

(Each of the six years in the program consists of two semesters. For the specific subjects of the courses of the first three schoolyears see the Bulletin of the College of Arts and Letters.)

THE COLLEGE OF LAW

THE COMBINATION PROGRAM OF COMMERCE AND LAW

The College of Commerce and the College of Law offer a combination program, extending through twelve semesters (six schoolyears) and leading to the two degrees of bachelor of philosophy in commerce or bachelor of science in commerce and bachelor of laws. The student who takes this combination course must spend his first six semesters exclusively in the College of Commerce. In the fourth and fifth years, the student takes law and commerce courses. The degree of bachelor of philosophy in commerce or bachelor of science in commerce is conferred at the end of the fifth year and the degree of bachelor of laws at the end of the sixth year. For the complete program of Commerce courses, consult the Bulletin of the College of Commerce.

Total for the six years: 197 semester hours

1. The non-Catholic student who does not wish to take the courses in religion must substitute for them twelve semester hours in other courses, designated by the Dean of the College.

2. For the selection of science courses the student will be guided by the programs of courses as listed in the Bulletin for the College of Science. If the student wishes to follow a specific major sequence in Chemistry, Physics, or Mathematics, it will be necessary for him to complete courses in mathematics through differential and integral calculus. Furthermore, he must present solid geometry and advanced algebra credit from high school for entrance into the college. If he follows a major sequence in physical science or in biology, General Mathematicians I and II will suffice to meet the requirements in this subject. Plane Geometry and Elementary Algebra credit from high school are required for admission to this program.

3. The twelve semester hours of required credit in foreign language must all be taken in the same language. Substitution of another language for this requirement must be approved by the Dean of the College of Science and the Director of Studies. If the student has completed two or more years of a language in high school—Latin excepted—he must begin his college work with the intermediate courses. In the science programs it would be wise for him to elect another language beginning at the elementary stage.

On the successful completion of Law 27, 28, 37 and 38 the student receives retroactively, one semester hour of credit for each of the four semesters in the four-semester course of practice court and briefing.

Total for the six years: 197 semester hours

1. The non-Catholic student who does not wish to take the courses in religion must substitute for them twelve semester hours in other courses, designated by the Dean of the College.

2. For the selection of science courses the student will be guided by the programs of courses as listed in the Bulletin for the College of Science. If the student wishes to follow a specific major sequence in Chemistry, Physics, or Mathematics, it will be necessary for him to complete courses in mathematics through differential and integral calculus. Furthermore, he must present solid geometry and advanced algebra credit from high school for entrance into the college. If he follows a major sequence in physical science or in biology, General Mathematics, I and II will suffice to meet the requirements in this subject. Plane Geometry and Elementary Algebra credit from high school are required for admission to this program.

3. The twelve semester hours of required credit in foreign language must all be taken in the same language. Substitution of another language for this requirement must be approved by the Dean of the College of Science and the Director of Studies. If the student has completed two or more years of a language in high school—Latin excepted—he must begin his college work with the intermediate courses. In the science programs it would be wise for him to elect another language beginning at the elementary stage.

On the successful completion of Law 27, 28, 37 and 38 the student receives retroactively, one semester hour of credit for each of the four semesters in the four-semester course of practice court and briefing.
