HOW A POWERFUL
LAWYER-TURNED-PRIEST IS CHANGING THE LIVES OF
MEN BEHIND BARS

CAMERADO,
I GIVE YOU MY HAND

BY MAURA POSTON ZAGRANS

“Camerado, I give you my hand!
I give you my love more precious than money, I give you myself before preaching or law.”

—Song of the Open Road by Walt Whitman

Camerado, I Give You My Hand is the inspiring story of how a widower, at age 71, became a Catholic priest and is now changing the lives of incarcerated men in high-security prisons throughout the heartland of America.

Father David Link, Dean Emeritus of Notre Dame Law School, spent fifty years working in jurisprudence and academia. Now, in his role as prison chaplain, Father David sees our criminal justice system as a lost, prodigal son in serious need of guidance and direction, and ultimately in need of healing. This is a profound, moving story that reminds us of the value of human life and the saving power of compassionate friendship.
