New faces at NDLS

Welcome to Janet Laybold, who joins the NDLS community on September 3rd as the Assistant Dean for Graduate and Strategic Initiatives. Janet was the Associate Dean of Admissions, Student and Career Services at the Washington University Law School, where she also taught a course on the theory of negotiation and mediation as a Lecturer in Law and was the founding Director of the New York City Regulatory and Business Externship. As a member of the Dean's senior leadership team at Washington University, Janet advised on strategic planning and communications and worked with the team that developed an on-line LLM program with 2U. Janet served on the Board of Trustees of the Law School Admissions Council from 2010-2013. At NDLS, Janet will have an office in the law school's new Chicago facility at 224 South Michigan (formerly known as the Santa Fe building). There she will manage placements and other student issues in the Chicago externship program and develop new placements, especially placements in corporate legal departments. Read more …

Welcome also to Denise Wager, who joins NDLS as the new Interdisciplinary Senior Coordinator! Denise will provide part time support to the three faculty members, Avishalom Tor, Rick Garnett and A.J. Bellia, and will be responsible for managing and administering the Law School's Interdisciplinary Programs on Church, State and Society; Constitutional Structure; and Law and Market Behavior. She is only working 20 hours per week—Mondays and Wednesdays from 8-2:30 and Tuesdays and Thursdays from 8-12. For the time being, she'll work in the extra cubicle by Lu Ann (#3100) but will relocate to Yi Fang’s space after Yi’s appointment is finished at the end of September. You can reach her at 1-7213.

Welcome to Christopher Lund, who joins NDLS as a Visiting Assistant Professor from Wayne State University Law School.

News and Notes

Let’s get a head start on the Irish Health Challenge! It’s never been easier to complete your HRQ Screenings – they are coming to the Law School on Monday, Sept 9 and Tuesday, Sept 10 from 8:30-10:30 am in the Faculty Meeting Room! Your participation will help the NDLS Team’s score in the Irish Health Challenge. The team with the most participation will win the $5000 prize split randomly between five members of the winning team. To participate all you need to do is sign-up for a time to complete your screening (link will be sent soon for the Law School times), see the HR website for further details. Thank you, Jennifer Kilian, for being our HR/Wellness Champion!

Lloyd Mayer was quoted in the Washington Post article Atheist group can sue IRS over enforcement of pulpit politicking on August 23.

If you’re going to the first home football game this Saturday (vs. Temple, Aug. 31 at 3:30 p.m. at Notre Dame Stadium) please take note of the new bag policy for home football games

Dean’s Bookshelf

Randy Kozel presented me with a summer’s end treat of two law review articles as well as commentary in an online companion to the Michigan Law Review:

Randy J. Kozel, Precedent and Reliance, 62 EMORY L.J. 1460-1507 (2013);

Randy J. Kozel, Settled Versus Right: Constitutional Method and the Path of Precedent, 91 TEX. L. REV. 1843-1896 (2013);

Mary Ellen O’Connell provided a copy of her chapter in a research handbook:

Don Kommers also contributed an essay he wrote as the keynote address in Heidelberg at a memorial celebration of the academic life of Prof. Dr. Winfried Brugger, a dear friend of Don and eminent German constitutional scholar and legal theorist. For those whose German is rusty, the title translates as “A Transatlantic Academic Partnership” and the name of the volume is Constitutional Preconditions.

Many thanks to Randy, Mary Ellen, and Don!
