Week of December 3, 2013

News and Notes

Congratulations to Jen and Kevin, and to big sisters Kate, Caroline and Molly, who welcomed Bridget Marie McAward on December 1st at 11:35am. She weighed in at 8lb 4oz and both mom and baby are doing well.

Kim Daniels, Faculty Administrative Assistant to Professors Root, Finnis, Smithburn, McAward, Ripple, Alford, Smith and Kelly, and primary back-up support assistant for the Dean's Office, will be leaving us on December 6, 2013, to accept a position as Judicial Assistant to Judge Ripple. Kim will travel with Judge Ripple and assist him in chambers. Thanks Kim for your three years of service to the Law School.

Welcome Tracy Zielke to NDLS! Tracy graduated Magna Cum Laude from Siena Heights University with a BA, Multidisciplinary Studies-History & Psychology. She most recently was employed as a financial administrator with the Center for Undergraduate Scholarly Engagement (CUSE). Prior to joining CUSE, Tracy worked as an administrative assistant in the Graduate School, providing administrative support to four associate deans. She has been employed with the University for the past 5 years. Before joining Notre Dame, Tracy held positions as an administrative assistant to the Dean in the School of Nursing at Bethel College along with serving as a Library Technician & Archivist at Lake Michigan College. Please feel free to stop by suite #2155 to meet Tracy.

On Monday, December 2, Rick Garnett was interviewed by Julie Rovner (NPR) about a new lawsuit against the bishops, complaining about their medical directives. See: ACLU Sues, Claiming Catholic Hospitals Put Women At Risk.

On November 27, Lloyd Mayer was quoted in BNA, Inc. Money & Politics Report article Treasury, IRS Propose New Definition Of Political Activity for Social Welfare Groups.

Rick Garnett was quoted in the National Catholic Reporter article Supreme Court takes up contraceptive mandate, will rule on religious rights of corporations on November 26.

Rick Garnett was quoted in The New York Times article Court Confronts Religious Rights of Corporations on November 24.

Jimmy Gurule was interviewed by NPR on the JPMorgan Says It Broke No Law. So Why Pay The $13 Billion? on November 23.

Congratulations and thank you to those who celebrated service anniversaries last month! Rosalind Alexander and Julie Douglas just passed the 5 year mark with the law school, and Leslie Berg celebrated 5 years with the University in November.
