From Beth Klein: Dee Dee Sterling (an HR program manager) at Notre Dame is involved in a project called Project Warm South Bend. They are providing a place for some homeless people to stay at night in the First United Methodist Church on Main Street. They are currently in need of winter coats, specifically three good winter coats in Large and Extra large sizes for some individuals under their care. If anyone can help, please call her directly: Dee Dee Sterling, 210-0113.
That’s it, folks… We’re signing off until 2012!

We wish everyone a very Merry Christmas, Happy Holidays, and best wishes for a fantastic New Year. This will be our last publication of the NDLS Update until we return to work on January 3rd, 2012. See everyone in the New Year!
